The End of Being Known Michael Klein, 2009-10-22 Written in poet Michael Klein's uniquely passionate unapologetic but humble voice The End of Being Known explores the lines that define yet also blur the boundaries of sex friendship and compatibility This collection of autobiographical essays probes the manifestations of sexual desire in its mystical variety experiencing incest falling in love being a twin and inhabiting the world of anonymous sex in practice and in an essay about the Body Electric movement as something recuperative and renewing Each essay unfurls in a hybrid of poetry narrative and fragmentary literary devices Here is an uncompromising gaze upon the quandaries of those whose sexual emotional and relational worlds collide yielding no answer to the riddle of desire yet finding meaning by piecing together personal examples of universal themes such as learning through trial and error about love and life

Sandage, 2003-05-01 While forgiveness has historically been regarded as a religious concern it has also become a popular topic in contemporary psychology Unfortunately there has been little effort to combine a Christian understanding of forgiveness with psychology The Faces of Forgiveness winner of the Narramore Award from the Christian Association for Psychological Studies steps in to fill this void The authors fuse Christian forgiveness and psychology with the unifying motif of the face thereby building on the considerable psychological research linking emotions related to forgiveness with the human face At a deeper level the face can serve as a metaphor for integrating forgiveness wholeness and salvation The authors argue that forgiveness should take a central role in our understanding of salvation because it is warranted by the Bible and engages our postmodern context Pastors psychologists family counselors and students of psychology and theology will find The Faces of Forgiveness a helpful resource      Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers Philip Schaff,2007-06-01
