From amazing wall murals to Banksy's stencils and Invader's mosaics, we showcase 140 creative hotspots across 42 cities and tell you how to find them, as well as introduce pioneering artists and interview those who shaped the movement. Street art is now present in almost every city, town and village in the world, from Aachen to Zwolle. Its true audience is measured in the billions. And given that the first record of homo sapiens painting on walls is thought to date back around 40,000 years, it's surprising that street art has taken so long to flourish. Today, the proliferation of legal walls and organised festivals around the world makes it possible to encounter thought-provoking, transformative art in the most unexpected of places. This visual guide to the world of street art takes in the scene in over 40 cities and includes interviews with some of the most prolific and well-known street artists, including Blek le Rat, FAILE and Faith47. And with hundreds of locations plotted and a special focus on 15 of the world's most incredible street art festivals, this guide will help you discover artworks hidden in plain sight around the world. Kaiser, 2015-02-03 In this clear minded but sobering book Michael M Kaiser assesses the current state of arts institutions orchestras opera ballet modern dance and theater companies and even museums According to Kaiser new developments in the twenty first century including the Internet explosion the death of the recording industry the near death of subscriptions economic instability the focus on STEM education in schools the introduction of movie theater opera the erosion of newspapers the threat to serious arts criticism and the aging of the donor base have together created tremendous challenges for all arts organizations Using Michael Porter's model of industry structure to describe how industries evolve Kaiser argues persuasively that unless steps are taken now midsized performing arts institutions will have all but evaporated by 2035 Only the largest arts organizations will survive with tickets priced for the very wealthy and programming limited to the most popular and lucrative productions Kaiser concludes with a call to arms With three extraordinary decades experience as an arts administrator behind him he advocates passionately for risk taking in programming and more creative marketing and details what needs to happen now building strong donor bases creating effective boards and collective action to sustain the performing arts for generations to come Religious Sounds Beyond the Global North Carola Lorea, Rosalind Hackett, 2025-10-01 What makes sounds religious How are communities shaped by the things they hear play or listen to This book foregrounds connections between sounds bodies and media in the private and public life of communities beyond the Global North analyzing diverse configurations of the category of sound and various sonic ontologies to usher in a more inclusive global anthro history of religious sounds Religious Sounds Beyond the Global North implements a sonic turn in the study of religion by engaging with a diversity of auditory musical and embodied practices Dislodging the Global North as the main point of reference for studies on religious sound in this volume editors Carola E Lorea and Rosalind I J Hackett propose an acoustemology of the post secular with an emphasis on Asia as method

Unsettling and expanding existing discussions on senses media and power the editors present religious sounds as co creating subjectivities and collectivities that coalesce around audible aesthetic formations demonstrating that religious sounds are not only produced by certain religious traditions but also produce communities shaping the self and sensitivity of those who participate Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 2003
