Tradition Anna Contadini,2011-11-11 A study of the Kit b Na t al ayaw n Book on the Characteristics of Animals this book considers together text and image in this unique thirteenth century manuscript thereby contributing to the wider scholarship on Middle Eastern painting and art of the pre modern period

Media and Religion Stewart M. Hoover,Nabil Echchaibi,2021-07-05 This volume considers the mediation of religion in the context of global relations of power culture and communication It takes a nuanced historical view of emergent religions and their mediation in various forms The wide range of chapters provides valuable insight into particular contexts while also offering connections to other cases and contexts Together they form a snapshot of religious evolution in the media age

Byzantine Trade, 4th-12th Centuries Marlia Mundell Mango,2016-12-05 The 28 papers examine questions relating to the extent and nature of Byzantine trade from Late Antiquity into the Middle Ages The Byzantine state was the only political entity of the Mediterranean to survive Antiquity and thus offers a theoretical standard against which to measure diachronic and regional changes in trading practices within the area and beyond To complement previous extensive work on late antique long distance trade within the Mediterranean based on the grain supply amphorae and fine ware circulation the papers concentrate on local and international trade The emphasis is on recently uncovered or studied archaeological evidence relating to key topics These include local retail organisation within the city some regional markets within the empire the production and or circulation patterns of particular goods metalware ivory and bone glass pottery and objects of international trade both exports such as wine and glass imports such as materia medica and the lack of importation of for example Sasanian pottery In particular new work relating to specific regions of Byzantium s international trade is highlighted in Britain the Levant the Red Sea the Black Sea and China Papers of the 38th Spring Symposium of Byzantine Studies held in 2004 at Oxford under the auspices of the Committee for Byzantine Studies

Persian Art Vladimir Lukonin,Anatoly Ivanov,2015-09-15 Housed in the Hermitage Museum along with other institutes libraries and museums in Russia and the republics of the former Soviet Union are some of the most magnificent treasures of Persian Art For the most part many of these works have been lost but have been catalogued and published here for the first time with an unsurpassed selection of colour plates In a comprehensive introduction Vladimir Lukonin Director of the Oriental Art section of the Hermitage Museum and his colleague Anatoli Ivanov have broadly documented the major developments of Persian Art from the first signs of civilisation on the plains of Iran around the 10th century BCE through the early 20th century In the second part of the book they have catalogued Persian Art giving locations origins descriptions and artist biographies where available Persian Art demonstrates a common theme which runs through the art of the region over the past three millennia Despite many religious and political upheavals Persian Art whether in its architecture sculpture frescoes miniatures porcelain fabrics or rugs whether in the work of the humble craftsmen or the high art of court painters displays the delicate touch and subtle refinement which has had a profound influence on art throughout the world Facts and Artefacts - Art in the Islamic World Annette Hagedorn, Avinoam Shalem, 2007-11-13 The scholarly search on the art of the object is of enduring interest and enjoys a new renaissance in the last few years This book mainly explores the art and craft of Islamic artefacts and presents to the reader a diverse range of approaches Despite this variety in which also artefacts of the pre Islamic period as well as orientalized European artefacts of the modern era are included there is an overarching theme the linking of the interpretation of objects and their specific aesthetics to textual sources and the aim of setting them in historical and artistic context In this impressive collection honouring the German scholar of Islamic art Jens Kr ger on his 65th birthday Avinoam Shalem and Annette Hagedorn bring together contributions from a highly distinguished group of scholars of Asiatic Sasanian Islamic as well as European art history Unpublished artefacts and new interpretations are presented in this book South Asian Islam Nasr M Arif, Abbas Panakkal, 2023-10-06 This volume explores the historical trajectory of the spread of Islam in South Asia and how the engagements of the past have played a crucial role in the making of the present outfits of South Asian Islam Islam in South Asia has maintained a distinct role while imbibing cultural social ethnic folk and artistic networks of the subcontinent in diverse echelons In an unequivocal analysis this volume showcases the visible varieties of Islam from an array of regional cultural ethnic and vernacular groups While many characteristics remain distinct in different provinces or regions of South Asia similarities are palpable in etiquettes customary laws art and architecture More than regional differences various ethnic groups from all poles of the Indian subcontinent have paved the way for the dissimilar landscapes of Islam in tandem with differences in language culture and festivals The case studies in this book exhibit forms of cultural pluralism in the communities which have helped in building a cohesive community Part of the Global Islamic Cultures series that looks at integrated and indigenized Islam this book will be of interest to students and researchers of religion religious history theology study of Islamic law and politics cultural studies and South Asian Studies It will also be useful to general readers who are interested in world religions and cultures The Journey of Maps and Images on the Silk Road Philippe Forêt, Andreas Kaplony, 2008-11-30 This book covers new ground on the diffusion and transmission of geographical knowledge that occurred at critical junctures in the long history of the Silk Road Much of twentieth century scholarship on the Silk Road examined the ancient archaeological objects and medieval historical records found within each cultural area while the consequences of long distance interaction across Eurasia remained poorly studied Here ample attention is given to the journeys that notions and objects undertook to transmit spatial values to other civilizations In retracing the steps of four major circuits right across the many civilizations that shared the Silk Road The Journey of Maps and Images on the Silk Road traces the ways in which maps and images surmounted spatial historical and cultural divisions 1400 Years of Islamic Art Géza Fehérvári, Yasin Hamid Safadi, 1981 Arts of Allusion Margaret S. Graves, 2018-07-31 The art of the object reached unparalleled heights in the medieval Islamic world yet the intellectual dimensions of ceramics metalwares and other plastic arts in this milieu have not always been acknowledged Arts of Allusion reveals the object as a crucial site where pre modern craftsmen of the eastern Mediterranean and Persianate realms engaged in fertile dialogue with poetry literature painting and perhaps most strikingly architecture Lanterns fashioned after miniature shrines incense burners in the form of domed monuments earthenware jars articulated with arches and windows inkwells that allude to tents through close studies of objects from the ninth to the thirteenth centuries this book reveals that allusions to architecture abound across media in the portable arts of the medieval Islamic world Arts of Allusion draws upon a broad range of material evidence as well as medieval texts to locate its subjects in a cultural landscape where the material visual and verbal realms were intertwined Moving far beyond the initial identification of architectural types with their miniature counterparts in the plastic arts Margaret Graves develops a series of new frameworks for exploring the intelligent art of the allusive object These address materiality representation and perception and examine contemporary literary and poetic paradigms of metaphor description and indirect reference as tools for approaching the plastic arts Arguing for the role of the intellect in the applied arts and for the communicative potential of ornament Arts of Allusion asserts the reinstatement of craftsmanship into Islamic intellectual history Society and Culture in the Early Modern Middle East Newman, 2003-05-22 The volume comprises a collection of 20 of the 43 papers presented at the Third International Round Table on Safavid Persia held at the University of Edinburgh in August 1998 and edited by the Round Table's organiser The Third Round Table the largest of the series to date continued the emphasis of its predecessors on understanding and appreciating the legacy of the Safavid period by means of exchanges between both established and newer scholars drawn from a variety of fields to facilitate an exchange of ideas information and methodologies across a broad range of academic disciplines between scholars from diverse disciplines and research backgrounds with a common interest in the history and culture of this period of Iran's history The Monumental Inscriptions from Early Islamic Iran and Transoxiana Sheila Blair, 1992 This book studies the surviving 79 monumental inscriptions from the Iranian world that date to the first five centuries of the Muslim era ad 622 1106 Each is presented with photographs drawings transcriptions translations and an extensive commentary which explains the text in its larger historical and artistic context Ayyubid Metalwork with Christian Images Eva Baer, 2023-12-21 Muqarnas Supplements presents book length historical examinations of primary sources on the arts architecture and material cultures of Islamicate lands as well as occasional thematic conference proceedings and special edited volumes Muqarnas is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts Related series Muqarnas The series published three volumes over the last 5 years A Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture, 2 Volume Set
