Pathways to Public Relations Burton St. John III,Margot Opdycke Lamme,Jacquie L'Etang,2014-04-24 Over the centuries scholars have studied how individuals institutions and groups have used various rhetorical stances to persuade others to pay attention to believe in and adopt a course of action The emergence of public relations as an identifiable and discrete occupation in the early 20th century led scholars to describe this new iteration of persuasion as a unique more systematized and technical form of wielding influence resulting in an overemphasis on practice frequently couched within an American historical context This volume responds to such approaches by expanding the framework for understanding public relations history investigating broad conceptual questions concerning the ways in which public relations rose as a practice and a field within different cultures and countries at different times in history With its unique cultural and contextual emphasis Pathways to Public Relations shifts the paradigm of public relations history away from traditional methodologies and assumptions and provides a new and unique entry point into this complicated arena Asian Perspectives on the Development of Public Relations T. Watson,2014-04-24 The National Perspectives on the Development of Public Relations Other Voices series is the first to offer an authentic world wide view of the history of public relations It will feature six books five of which will cover continental and regional groups This first book in the series focuses on Asia and Australasia The Australian Public Relations Manual Candy Tymson,William S. Sherman,1987 The Australian Guide to Careers in Music Michael Hannan,2003 Provides a comprehensive guide to careers in music covering over 150 job classifications that contribute to the production or dissemination of music Public Relations Melanie James, 2006 This book will launch you into a career in PR Get the insider's viewpoint from marketing managers media advisers communications consultants and others and find out how to get your foot in the door of the dynamic communications industry Australian national bibliography, 1961 Arts Management Jennifer Radbourne, 2023-04-14 Arts management is no longer a resting place for enthusiastic amateurs or artists with insufficient talent to make the big time Rather it is increasingly being recognised as a profession with a set of skills which need to be learnt Arts Management is a comprehensive handbook for arts administrators working in all art forms and in organisations ranging from small community co-operatives to large national flagships With extensive Australian case studies it covers cultural policy fundraising legal issues marketing and public relations managing people and money and event management Arts Management is an essential reference for practising arts administrators and students The 21st Century Media (r)evolution Jim Macnamara, 2010 The emergence of new media and social media is widely discussed in contemporary society However media and public communication are mostly analyzed within particular theoretical frameworks and within specific disciplinary fields Such approaches have created polarized views on media and communication and fail to create an understanding of the interdependencies between these fields This book expertly synthesizes competing theories and disciplinary viewpoints integrates scholarly and cutting edge research and examines international data from fast growing markets including China to provide a comprehensive holistic view of the twenty first century's evolution in media and public communication The book identifies how the changes are located in practices rather than technologies and that these practices are emergent in highly significant ways Engaging and accessible the book is essential reading for media scholars and communication professionals and a valuable text for courses in media studies journalism advertising public relations and organisational and political communication
