The Baby Of Macon:

The Films of Peter Greenaway Douglas Keeseey, 2015-01-09 British filmmaker Peter Greenaway says life offers only two subjects One is sex and the other is death Greenaway uses both and romanticizes neither indeed his goal is the antithesis of the sanitary and sentimental portrayal of humanity Although his films have met with outrage from some viewers cult audiences praise them for insightful messages that people are detached from violence because they fail to see others bodies as identical to their own that predatory capitalism has caused humans to lose sight of our shared physicality and mortality and that taboos are simply a system allowing people to exercise power over others This book examines nine of Greenaway s feature films dedicating a chapter to each The Draughtsman s Contract A Zed and Two Noughts The Belly of an Architect Drowning by Numbers The Cook the Thief His Wife and Her Lover Prospero s Books The Baby of Macon The Pillow Book and 8 1 2 Women The author examines the characters and plot studies the structure and elements of the story explores Greenaway s motives and reactions and reveals audience reactions including comments from viewers A filmography lists films written and directed by Peter Greenaway from 1962 to 2004

Ill Effects Martin Barker, Julian Petley, 2013-08-21 Ill Effects is a radical re-examination of the whole media effects debate. It questions not only whether the media is capable of directly influencing people's views and actions but also whether the idea of effects is the most useful way of conceptualising the relationship between the media and audiences. Ill Effects looks at the reasons why the media are routinely blamed for horrific events such as the murders of James Bulger and Suzanne Capper and the Hungerford massacre as well as for perceived trends such as the alleged death of the family and the rise of yob culture. The authors' concern goes beyond individual cases; they discuss the development and current state of play of research into media effects, the remarkable power of common sense notions of media effects and the way in which the effects issue has become embroiled in debates about freedom of expression and censorship. They suggest how audiences really respond to media texts and argue that there is an urgent need for informed and interdisciplinary approaches to the study of the media.

Peter Greenaway's Postmodern / Poststructuralist Cinema Paula Willoquet-Maricondi, Mary Alemany-Galway, 2008-07-17 Since the 1960s British multi-media artist Peter Greenaway has shocked and intrigued audiences with his avant-garde approach to filmmaking and other artistic ventures. From early experimental films to provocative features, Greenaway has deployed strategies associated with structuralist cinema only to challenge or critique the very limits of that cinema and of film in general. In this collection of essays, scholars from a variety of disciplines explore various postmodern and poststructuralist aspects of Greenaway's films, starting with his early shorts and delving into his feature-length works including The Draughtman's Contract, The Belly of an Architect, A Zed and Two Noughts, The Cook the Thief His Wife and Her Lover, The Baby of M'con and The Pillow Book. Other artistic productions, including his paintings and installations, are also discussed. These essays examine the filmmaker's position within British and avant-garde cinema and his interest in constructing and deconstructing representational systems. In the years since the first edition of this book, Greenaway has enjoyed continued success in creating hybridized media projects for the stage and screen, as evidenced by additional essays for this revised edition. A new chapter addresses how Dutch political events and Dutch art have been crucial in shaping Greenaway's aesthetic, focusing on The Draughtman's Contract, the 1991 opera Writing to Vermeer and Nightwatching, the audio-visual installation and 2007 film of the same name, which were inspired by Rembrandt's Night Watch. Also new to this collection is an essay that examines Greenaway's most ambitious endeavor to date, The Tulse Luper Suitcases, which exists as four feature films, multiple websites, an online game, several books, and installations, and a number of theatrical events.

Peter Greenaway's Postmodern Poststructuralist Cinema, Revised Edition, explores the cultural, historical, and philosophical implications. Peter Greenaway, Paul Melia, Peter Greenaway, Alan Woods, Cornerhouse (Gallery: Manchester, England), 1998.
