Bad Behavior Jacqueline Vick, 2020-03-20 Vick can inject humor into a death scene while simultaneously providing an important clue. Join the Harlow Brothers for another romp through murderous suspects, romantic possibilities, and the ever-present sibling rivalry. It drives Nicholas Harlow crazy that his brother Edward, the secret author of the Aunt Civility etiquette books, refuses to attend publicity events, instead opting to give lectures to like-minded societies, as the allegedly agoraphobic Auntie's representative. When Nicholas tricks him into a public speaking event, the attendees include Edward's former college English professor, a smarmy Lothario with his own book to hawk. Then the professor dies in a spectacularly public manner, and his last act is to point an accusatory finger at his former student. When Edward is brought in for questioning in front of the local paper's star reporter, Nicholas adds damage control to a growing list of responsibilities that includes pegging the appropriate party for murder. But when he develops feelings for one suspect, that no respectable sleuth should have the investigation jumps off the rails. Unfortunately, the killer remains on course, and it's only a matter of time before the brothers must make hard decisions in order to deliver justice.
