The Badland's Poetry Tone One, 2001-06-19 It s impossible to put this book down It ll make you cry laugh hate and love towards everyone around you Video Source Book ,2008 Ghetto Love: Renaissance Sedelia Gardner, 2015-02-10 I started my Ghetto love poetry series in 2010 and I now have over 200 published and copyrighted poems This particular poetry collection is a collaboration of prayer interpretation My signature wine shape poem that I place in every one of my books is in here as well This Ghetto Love addition was creatively worded and put together by me to give God the praise He deserves This poetry collection talks about the strength He has given us and the countless victories we have won I hope this collection gives you some uplifting in your life like it has given me If you have enjoyed reading or listening to my past poetry writings then I know you will surely enjoy this collaboration as well Lord pull me out of this abyss of darkness I have placed myself in Let the prayers that I have in the storehouse fall down on me Let the words of the prayers that have been said on my behalf hook my soul and pull me out of this pit I hope that you enjoy reading this collection as much as I enjoyed writing it Sedelia Gardner Ghetto Love

Voices From The Ghetto (Dedicated To Maya Angelou) Gaiven Clairmont, 2023-10-27 An Amazon 1 Bestseller in African American Poetry From the author who brought you The 7 Lamps Of Inspiration comes another powerful poetic book meant to change the landscape of mankind s morality and humanity PRAISE FOR VOICES FROM THE GHETTO The poems I have read thus far are introspective and truly try to bring to light a want for more positivity among blacks actually among any human Ani Best Voices from the Ghetto paints a vivid picture of a change needed but most of all it gives you the courage to stand up and make a change Author Tamyara Brown Reading this book shows the rawness of the unsung in the ghetto When I read it I felt the pain I felt the heartache but I felt the hope Jaime Perry It takes serious power to write like this Ashley Elizabeth This book will go down in history I have so enjoyed the writing Lisa Holden Christiansen This book is dedicated to the memory of the great poet and civil rights activist Maya Angelou as well as Trayvon Martin Jordan Davis Oscar Grant III Mike Brown and other young black men who were killed because of racial stereotypes Voices From The Ghetto is a collection of powerful urban stories told using poetry This book is meant to do two things One to bring awareness to the lives of those who live in the ghetto and other urban and impoverished areas These people have stories that no one hears about When we hear about them in the news we don t see them as people thus this books is meant to bring back humanity to those who we have dehumanized The second thing this book is meant to achieve is to inspire those living in the ghetto to not just achieve their destiny but become a destination for others to follow It is meant to show people that they can conquer their environment and that no matter where you are born or what colour your skin is you can achieve greatness and even immortality This book was inspired by books like The Autobiography of Malcolm X Nelson Mandela s The Long Walk To Freedom Maya Angelou s I Know Why The Caged Bird Sings to name a few So if you want to read a book meant to not just inspire minorities but also to give voices to the people whose stories we don t know about Then this book is for you your children and your grand children My hope is that book can help save lives and stop the stereotypical killings like the Trayvon Martins Jordan Davis s Oscar Grants Mike Browns and the others who have been killed for no other reason than the colour of their skin and the prejudices that go with that skin Read this excerpt from one of the poems in this book and if you are moved emotionally then download your copy today and don t delay the chance to have this breath taking powerful book in your library We have lost too many princes and princesses It breaks my heart seeing this It breaks my heart seeing how low we have gone Is this what Rosa Parks sat for Is this what Malcolm X fought for Is this what MLK died for Is this what Maya Angelou wrote for Is this what Barack Obama ran for Make yourself more than a man Or a woman Make yourself an idea Don t just chase your destiny Become a destination For others to follow And if you can t change the narrative of the gate keepers Then aspire to be a gatekeeper And change the narrative for the generations to come Let us not have anymore Trayvon Martins Jordan Davis s Oscar Grants Isn t it ironic that the same media Who were outraged at Martin s killing May have been the very ones who helped pull the trigger

Under the Ghetto Spotlight Lake'Sha Sims,2019-07-29 When I was 10 years old my auntie JenJen brought me my first typewriter I always loved to write not sure why I never majored in journalism but I have always had a passion for writing When I was a teenager I attended this all girls group called Family Matters the director of the program Kim DeLong decided some of the girls that was a part of a sub group The Leadership Core would get together and do a dance for her church Right away I let Kim know due to my lack of rhythm I would not be participating Kim was like okay well since you can t dance what can you do Right away I was like I can write In the end the performance turned out beautiful The other girls did this dance off this song Black On Black Crime by Stanley from Boyz in the Hood soundtrack In the middle of the dance the other girls froze and then I came on the stage and I read my poem Soon Hope Will Come it was super dope I wrote Soon Hope Will Come in a matter of minutes which made me realize that I had a gift I know there is a video tape out there of our performance I would love for it to surface It has always been a dream of mine to write a poem book Under The Ghetto Spotlight is a collection of some of my best pieces Each Poem has a special meaning to me and was wrote from my heart Another one of my favorite poems is the one titled Jaden I was inspired to write that poem on behalf of my nephew Jayden I named him who was diagnosed with a chromosome disorder Tetrasomy 18p When he was born Jayden Could not speak and did not have a voice In the poem Jaden I was speaking on his behalf and I gave him a voice through my poetry Under the ghetto Spotlight is an expression of me and again I greatly appreciate everyone who has took the time out to read my words

Notes from the Badlands Anna Martinez,2002 Anna Martinez is the Lenny Bruce of Poetry a splendidly unique voice This collection of poetry can be sipped like fine wine or guzzled down in one sitting Either way you re in for one helluva ride Grounded in the senses you can see taste and smell the poems Her approach to her uncomfortable subject matter is both lyrical and profane She has a genius for powerful punch lines and black eyes This collection of poetry terribly human is powerfully forthright yet funny gut wrenching and heroic with irreverence shock value

A Heaven In The Ghetto Berlinda White,2006-11 Never see disparity and pretend we re blind When we learn to have wisdom And not sacrifice good for grandeur Don t partake in parts of foolishness Getting caught up in the mazes of life Listening to others say Let your ego have its way Knowing that would be a bitter move Have a sense of Heaven about you Cause love is rare in this day As families part but not pass away When we learn to be brighter Instead of getting wrapped up in burdens of fire This is what will make our lives inspire We must come to terms That we need a sense of concern This will be the message When we learn More Than Meat and Raiment Angela Jackson,2022-01-15 Angela Jackson returns with a poetic collage that draws on imagery from the African American South and the South Side of Chicago storytelling the Black Arts Movement and Hausa folklore Deftly intertwining narrative and free verse she expresses the complexities beauty and haunts of the multilayered Black voice Jackson offers a stirring mixture of the music food and soul that have come to characterize her lyrical work The speakers of these poems reflect on memory and saga history and legend Voices recall evenings spent catching fireflies with a younger sister the aroma of homemade rolls the father who squeezes papers into his wallet alongside bills in order to appear wealthy a flock of green birds rustling inside to get out for some extravagance A Black girl watches TV and dreams of the perfect partner A citizen contends with the unrelenting devastation of police violence in a work reminiscent of Gwendolyn Brooks s verse journalism A mother loses her daughter only to witness her rebirth Praise be the human being that is being In For Our People an homage to Margaret Walker Jackson summons the resilience and imagination of African Americans celebrating each of us injured or exalted betrayed or betrayed muted and declamatory all one each of us all of us each a private star beloved in the universe Lauded as one of American poetry's most vivid voices Jackson continues her reign among the country's foremost wordsmiths This sublime collection delves deep into the porch stories and folktales that have carried the Black voice through all its histories

From This Ghetto Comes Poetry Kilolo Mwasi, 2011-03 Y U Gotta Call it Ghetto?, 2011 East Oakland and ghetto hood poor at risk disadvantaged Black and Brown are too often used interchangeably in media popular culture and research The writers in this book use poetry to analyze their own experiences of living in East Oakland in conversation with their analysis of the works of Black and Brown poets from across time and space They remind us that the story of the ghetto is a bit more complex than just a moniker or an adjective Ghetto Blues II Stacey P. Murray, 2018-03-29 Ghetto Blues II A New Beginning is a series of poems written about life and death experiences not only of myself but also of people I have encountered thus far Ghetto Koans Cagney, 2025-07-15 The Japanese word koan is a seemingly unanswerable riddle used by practitioners of Zen Buddhism to trigger spiritual enlightenment and understanding Ghetto Koans A Personal Archive is a vibrant genre busting collection of voices observations and memories that trigger nostalgia of a lost time lost neighborhood lost city Cagney masterfully weaves together monologues documentary style narratives and keen observations offering a profound glimpse into the lives and stories that shape this unique community and beyond From direct door to door salesmen and flirtatious phlebotomists to rotary telephones and an appreciation of clotheslines each poem serves as a window into the heart of the Bay Area capturing the raw beauty struggles and curious triumphs of its people Cagney's words resonate with authenticity and depth making this collection a must read for anyone seeking to understand the rich tapestry of urban life Experience the power of poetry that transcends boundaries and speaks to the universal human experience Ghetto Koans A Personal Archive is a journey through the soul of a community told with unparalleled honesty and grace Ghetto Lullabies Nefertari Imani Baraka, 2006-06-01 Nefertari Imani Baraka is a teacher poetess singer and spoken word artist Though currently living in Georgia she was born and raised in Detroit Michigan She has worked with the Detroit Council of the Arts and sits on the board of directors of Elder Care and Youth Education Foundation Inc ECAYE an organization whose first priority is to inspire and assist students in achieving a higher education These poems are a snapshot of things she's seen and places she's been in her life either firsthand or through people she's met aA ghetto is not a place it's a state of mind a The Ghetto Poet S. Earl Wilson III, 2015-01-12 The Ghetto Poet was born in the Ghetto of Hattiesburg Mississippi which at that time was the third largest city in the state I was exposed at a very early age to Ghetto ways eating drinking the blues fussing fighting yelling dancing singing sorrow laughter happiness along with prostitution and gambling All of this happened between two corner churches on Mobile street just past the beer garden and dance hall where very loud live music was played I could hardly sleep at night from listening to the blues We then moved to the outskirts or country where my father became principal of the Springfield school I was raised and educated in the country There I learned country ways and also country talk I then went to Morehouse college in Atlanta Georgia and hung out on Auburn avenue and Hunter street partying
