Behind the Magic Mirror Sandra Hart,2002 Former Romper Room Teacher and Anchorwoman Sandra Hart has written her powerful memoir a story of betrayal murder and survival revolving around schizophrenia A visually rich journey begins with the author s childhood in a gloomy Ohio Valley steel town and follows her through her early career on Romper Room and then her final investigation into the disappearance of her ex husband Surviving an early life threatening illness Sandra finally finds happiness in adulthood only to discover that her utopian life is a mirage A confident personality in front of the camera few knew that behind the scenes she was fearful of a stalker intent on destroying her It is a searing story of a woman who leads a double life Her public persona was that of a successful television personality but her private life was one of personal pain and constant terror A compassionate kaleidoscope of events of a life as it is Janice Lieberman NBC TV A suspenseful and compelling love story in which both the reader and author are spectators in an awesome discovery M Cohen Major credit cards accepted Toll free 1 866 294 9063 e mail myartisansway aol com or myartisansway com Distributor Wholesaler Baker and Taylor      Spitz and Fisher's Medicolegal Investigation of Death Werner U. Spitz,Francisco J. Handbook of Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2020-09-04 This book offers a comprehensive guide to global literary engagement with the Cold War. Eschewing the common focus on national cultures, the collection defines Cold War literature as an international current focused on the military and ideological conflicts of the age and characterised by styles and approaches that transcended national borders. Drawing on specialists from across the world, the volume analyses the period's fiction, poetry, drama, and autobiographical writings in three sections: dominant concerns (socialism, decolonisation, nuclearism, propaganda, censorship, espionage, common genres, postmodernism, socialism, realism, dystopianism, migrant poetry, science fiction, testimonial writing) and regional cultures (Asia, Africa, Oceania, Europe, and the Americas). In doing so, the volume forms a landmark contribution to Cold War literary studies which will appeal to all those working on literature of the 1945-1989 period, including specialists in comparative literature, postcolonial literature, contemporary literature, and regional literature.

A Dollar a Day Without Being There: The Biography of Frank J. Mueller Frank J. Mueller, 2018-05-29 About 1991 I was living in a spare room in my sister's house. She was having a difficult time and would soon be selling her house. I had worked so hard and for so long and I found myself having no money plus there were rumors of big layoffs in the oil industry. My best estimate was ninety days and I would have to claim my corner of that I-10 overpass to beg for food. It was an undesirable situation and it wasn't fair. My whole entire thinking process had to be wrong. I began writing my autobiography before I started giving my money talk while teaching safety training classes for oilfield workers and I wanted to write both books so I just combined them. This book was written for my children and grandchildren and if anyone else finds it interesting then good.
