The Education And Careers Of Black Teachers Changing Identities Changing Lives:

The Education and Careers of Black Teachers Audrey Osler, 1997 Headteachers teacher unions and education authorities all acknowledge the need for more teachers from black and ethnic minority communities yet until now very little has been known about the professional experiences of black teachers or of the factors which discourage and exclude black and ethnic minority people from teaching as a career This book draws on the life histories of headteachers advisors teachers and student teachers from black and ethnic communities to find out what their working lives are really like Detailed case studies and quotations bring their stories alive It examines how those in positions of influence are seeking to transform schools and improve their pupils life chances How do they achieve success and challenge racism While celebrating black and ethnic minority achievement in education this book does not overlook the costs of success for individuals Drawing on teachers own accounts of their work it explores the complexities of their lived experiences and the tensions which can develop between teachers professional identities and their political identities as black people The findings and recommendations of this book will be of great interest to educational policy makers and decision makers to academics working in the field of race relations and to all engaged in the training and professional development of teachers both in universities and schools It includes practical suggestions for promoting racial justice within the context of current policy frameworks It will also prove useful to trainers and educators in other professional fields such as social work and public administration     From Victims of Change to Agents of Change Martin Johnson, Joe Hallgarten, 2002     Changing Teacher Professionalism Sharon Gewirtz, Pat Mahony, Ian Hextall, Alan Cribb, 2009-01-08 Significant changes in the policy and social context of teaching over the last 30 years have had substantial implications for teacher professionalism This collection of work by leading international scholars in the field makes a unique contribution to understanding both how these changes are impacting on teaching and how teachers might change their practice for the better     Islam and Higher Education in Transitional Societies , 2019-02-11 Islam and Higher Education in Transitional Societies explores and illuminates the intersection of Islam and higher education in changing societies The critical question explored in this book is what role does Islam play in higher education in transitional societies This book presents research conducted in geographic regions that are generally under researched including Iran Turkey Pakistan and where the place of Islam in higher education is often not well explored Because higher education is embedded in the cultural social economic and political contexts of particular countries it is important to examine the role of Islam in higher education systems in different countries to better grasp how next generation of leaders in these countries will be shaped Islam and Higher Education in Transitional Societies serves as an important benchmark for understanding Islam and potentially inform policies to transform higher education institutional processes and structures to be responsive to the Muslim world     Human Rights and Schooling Audrey Osler, 2016 Most of the struggles for equitable schooling including multicultural curricula and culturally responsive teaching have largely taken place on a local or national stage with little awareness of how international human rights standards might support these struggles Human Rights and Schooling explores the potential of human rights frameworks to support grassroots struggles for justice and examines the impact that human rights and child rights education can make in the lives of students including the most marginalized The author Audrey Osler examines the theory research and practice linking human rights to education in order to broaden the concept of citizenship and social studies education Bringing scholarship and practice together the text uses concrete examples to illustrate the links between principles and ideals and actual efforts to realize social justice in and through education Osler anchors her examination of human rights in the U N Convention on the Rights of the Child as well as the U N Declaration on Human Rights Education and Training Audrey Osler offers timely and relevant insights into education for human rights and social justice The book examines complex global realities and the power of narrative to create a grounded and critical cosmopolitanism Monisha Bajaj associate professor International and Multicultural Education University of San Francisco Educators specializing in social studies civic education multicultural comparative and or social justice education will find Audrey Osler s Human Rights and Schooling a fascinating read It is filled with practical strategies for teaching about in and for human rights In her wide ranging discussion of concepts such as cosmopolitan citizenship intersectionality and identity and narrative Osler draws on examples from across the globe to show how educators can foster solidarity with human rights struggles near and far as they empower youth to take action for social justice at home and abroad Carole L Hahn Charles Howard Candler Professor of Educational Studies Emory University

Nordic Perspectives on Human Rights Education Audrey Osler, Beate Goldschmidt-Gjerløw, 2024-07-29 Backed by a range of case studies and recent developments in human rights education research Nordic Perspectives on Human Rights Education guides readers through an analysis of educational inequities and identifies how internationally agreed upon human rights standards may inform social justice practices within schools In an age characterised by authoritarianism and extremism but also social and climate justice movements this book provides a critical analysis of current practice within schools Contributing authors also discuss how a human rights framework may improve practice supporting intersectional thinking and more sustainable learning environments while also empowering teachers to confidently navigate issues of gender national identity and minority rights Divided into three distinct sections chapters invite readers to consider The context behind human rights education HRE Rights based approaches to teaching and education International dialogue and how we may learn from the approaches of other countries Drawing on research from the Nordic region and discussing its implications elsewhere this volume is an essential resource for scholars developing theory and practice in human rights education social studies citizenship education and international and comparative education Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license Chapters 1 6 7 9 12 and 13 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>

com under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license      Changing Citizenship Osler, Audrey, Starkey, Hugh, 2005-04-01 Changing Citizenship supports educators in understanding the links between global change and the everyday realities of teachers and learners It explores the role that schools can play in creating a new vision of citizenship for multicultural democracies      Learning from Latino Teachers Gilda Ochoa, 2007-10-05 Learning from Latino Teachers offers insightful stories and powerful visions in the movement for equitable schools This compelling book is based on Gilda Ochoa's in depth interviews with Latino teachers who have a range of teaching experience in schools with significant Latino immigrant populations The book offers a unique insider's perspective on the educational challenges facing Latinos The teachers' stories offer valuable insights gained from their experiences coming up through the K 12 system as students and then becoming part of the same system as teachers      Education for Values: Morals, Ethics and Citizenship in Contemporary Teaching Cairns, Jo, Gardner, Roy (all of Institute of Education, University of London), Lawton, Denis, 2013-05-13 Values in education in terms of both how they are taught and of the ethics of teaching itself are an area of lively debate This text provides a resource of ideas issues and practice for all those with an interest in this area of education      Inequalities in the Teaching Profession M. Moreau, 2014-05-06 Countering the commonplace view of teaching as inclusive this collection highlights the persistence of inequalities in the teaching profession It explores the ways in which gender ethnicity social class and other identity markers shape teachers' experiences in a range of institutional and national contexts      Mixed-Race, Post-Race Suki Ali, 2020-05-27 Social scientists claim that we now live in a post race society where race has been replaced by ethnicity Yet racism is endemic to British society and people often think in terms of black and white With a marked rise in the number of children from mixed parentage there is an urgent need to challenge simplistic understandings of race nation and culture and interrogate what it means to grow up in Britain and claim a mixed identity Focusing on mixed race and inter ethnic families this book not only explores current understandings of race but it shows using innovative research techniques with children how we come to read race What influence do photographs and television have on children's ideas about race How do children use memories and stories to talk about racial differences within their own families How important is the home and domestic culture in achieving a sense of belonging Ali also considers through data gathered from teachers and parents broader issues relating to the effectiveness of anti racist and multicultural teaching in schools and parental concerns over the social mobility and social acceptability of their children Rigorously researched this book is the first to combine children's accounts on race and identity with contemporary cultural theory Using fascinating case studies it fills a major gap in this area and provides an original approach to writing on race      Understanding and Managing Sophisticated and Everyday Racism Victoria Showunmi, Carol Tomlin, 2022-03-31 Sophisticated Racism Understanding and Managing the Complexity of Everyday Racism adopts a fresh approach to the study of racism Victoria Showunmi and Carol Tomlin identify the prevalence of sophisticated racism and explore how it manifests itself in society particularly in the workplace The authors narrate examples of everyday racism from the lived experiences of Black women They take the reader on a compelling journey from the sources of racism through narratives of disquieting racist events to the destination of affirming approaches to preserving a sense of self and individual identity in the face of sophisticated racism The authors explain how the interplay between Black women and White women originates in historical patterns of behavior which emerged on the plantations during enslavement The term White women syndrome has been coined to represent attempts to defend the limited space for female success by denigrating and excluding Black women A unique feature of the book is that it reaches beyond the historical context to the provision of strategies for managing sophisticated and everyday racism in contemporary society

Mixed Matters Denise Williams, 2011 More often than not mixed race pupils are simply referred to as black and tend to be encompassed in a larger more diverse group of black pupils but the increased presence of mixed race pupils in schools needs to focus the efforts of education professionals to address issues of race ethnicity and culture Mixed Matters is essential reading for all educational professionals who want to get to grips with the issues that face mixed families and the pupils themselves as they share their personal experiences of what it is like to be them in the British schooling system The young people featured in this book challenge some of the commonly held assumptions made about them especially regarding their aspirations This book contains some resources that can be used to support work with mixed race pupils as well as initial training and professional development of teachers The book also details the approach of Mixed formerly the Multiple Heritage Project in organising youth conferences and training youth facilitators of mixed race to lead their peers in discussions about school and identity

Young People and Offending Martin Stephenson, 2006-11 This book seeks to explore the full extent of the implications of the relationship between education and youth crime in terms of social policy and public opinion It will be essential reading for youth justice practitioners as well as students taking courses on youth crime and youth justice or on youth justice or probation training courses

The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History Ivor Goodson, Ari Antikainen, Pat Sikes, Molly Andrews, 2016-10-04 In recent decades there has been a substantial turn towards narrative and life history study The embrace of narrative and life history work has accompanied the move to postmodernism and post structuralism across a wide range of disciplines sociological studies gender studies cultural studies social history literary theory and most recently psychology Written by leading international scholars from the main contributing perspectives and disciplines The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History seeks to capture the range and scope as well as the considerable complexity of the field of narrative study and life history work by situating these fields of study within the historical and contemporary context Topics covered include The historical emergences of life history and narrative study Techniques for conducting life history and narrative study Identity and politics Generational history Social and psycho social approaches to narrative history With chapters from expert contributors this volume will prove a comprehensive and authoritative resource to students researchers and educators interested in narrative theory analysis and interpretation      Teachers, Gender and the Feminisation Debate Marie-Pierre Moreau, 2019-01-15 Teachers Gender and the Feminisation Debate critically engages with the claim that teaching is a feminised profession and offers a comprehensive and authoritative analysis of the way gender and power play out in the lives of male and female teachers Informed by social constructivist feminist theories of work and education the book adopts a relational and intersectional approach to gender Drawing on a range of primary and secondary sources including national and international datasets policy and research texts and an original corpus of interviews conducted by the author in England and France the book provides a timely assessment of a view of teaching as feminised It explores the various discourses and debates about the feminisation of teaching which circulate in media and policy circles in a range of local national and international contexts and questions some of the claims underpinning these discourses It also analyses the experiences of men and women who teach looking at the way gender and power impact on their careers and private lives in the context of the feminisation debate Teachers Gender and the Feminisation Debate offers a research informed and comprehensive account of gender issues in the teaching profession and will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education sociology and gender studies      The History of Education Under Apartheid, 1948-1994 Peter Kallaway, 2002      Race, Education and Educational Leadership in England Paul Miller, Christine Callender, 2019-04-18 In recent years the issue of race in education in the UK have been submerged in wider discourses of diversity leading to an invisibility of the quotidian experiences of marginalised peoples in educational institutions Race Education and Educational Leadership in England looks at how the experiences of black and ethnic minority BME students and academics in education has changed and investigates how the implementation of current policies on race equality are being monitored by the government The contributors take an integrated approach looking at issues and themes that occur across all educational phases in England and draw on expertise from within and outside the education system The editors highlight areas of weakness and good practice in access curriculum progression and the lived experience This book makes a compelling argument for why race equality matters in England s education system      Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World      Key Issues for Teaching Assistants Gill Richards, Felicity Armstrong, 2007-10-30 Teaching Assistants are increasingly relied upon to provide for children who experience difficulties in learning Key Issues for Teaching Assistants is an essential companion for any Teaching Assistant who wants to understand more about inclusion and diversity in today s classrooms While focussing particularly on the diverse roles of teaching assistants in supporting inclusive education this book will be invaluable for all those involved in the development of inclusive learning and teaching This highly accessible resource explores the values and the possible contradictions in policies and beliefs enabling Teaching Assistants to develop a deeper understanding of the fundamental principles of inclusive education Contributions from leading experts in the field consider common classroom issues such as inclusion and special needs dealing with hard to reach parents tackling bullying and supporting those bullied boys girls and the different ways they achieve being the class TA not PA Each chapter contains an overview of topical debates current research and initiatives emphasising inclusive approaches and the importance of understanding the perspectives of children regardless of their difference Useful questions for reflection and a helpful list of suggested further reading material are also provided Teaching Assistants whether in practice or as part of their study will find this book an indispensable resource
