The Elder Talmud On Blessings:

The Elder Talmud on Blessings Charles F. Horne, 2005-12 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age, it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia, and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. Birkat HaMinim Yaakov Y. Teppler, 2007 One of the intriguing questions in the study of the period of the reformation of Judaism after the destruction of the Second Temple is the identity of a group which appears in hundreds of Talmudic sources from those days, the minim. It is clear that most of these sources reflect different facets of the polemic between Judaism and Christianity, which were both engaged in establishing their identities. This book concentrates mainly on the second century CE and includes two basic questions: the question of the earliest text of the twelfth blessing of the central Jewish prayer composed at that time, Birkat haMinim, and the question of the identity of those minim who are cursed in this blessing. In the first section of the book, Yaakov Yanki Teppler analyzes the blessing itself. In the second section, which concerns the question of its principal objects, he sets out on a quest for the characterization of the minim using all the hundreds of sources which deal with them. Having united these two sections in one framework, a proposal is made as to the identity of the minim. This proposal should provide a coherent basis for further research on this subject, laying a firm foundation for understanding the processes of separation between Judaism and Christianity in this stormy and fascinating period. On Wings of Prayer Nuria Calduch-Benages, Michael W. Duggan, Dalia Marx, 2019-07-22 The contributors and editors dedicate this volume of research to Professor Stefan C. Reif on the occasion of his 75th birthday. Together, these twenty papers reflect our appreciation for his exemplary scholarship and lifelong commitment to acquaint our world with the theological and cultural riches of Jewish Studies. This collection reflects the breadth of Prof. Reif's interests insofar as it is a combination of Second Temple studies and Jewish studies on the roots of Jewish prayer and liturgy, which is his main field of expertise. Contributions on biblical and Second Temple studies cover Amos, Ben Sira, Esther, 2 Maccabees, Judith, Wisdom, Qumran Psalms, and James. Contributions on Jewish studies cover nuptial and benedictions after meals, Adon Olam, Passover Seder, Amidah, the Medieval Palestinian Tefillat ha-Shir, and other aspects of rabbinic liturgy. Moreover, the regional diversity of scholars from Israel, continental Europe, the United Kingdom, Ireland, and North America mirrors Stefan's travels as a lecturer and the reach of his publications. The volume includes a foreword of appreciation and a bibliographic list of Professor Reif's works. From the Talmud and Hebraica John Lightfoot, 2013-01-01 The ^AOxford Handbook of Jewish Ethics and Morality Elliot N. Dorff, Jonathan K. Crane, 2012-12-21 The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Ethics and Morality offers a collection of original essays, historical and contemporary, as well as philosophical and practical, by leading scholars from around the world. The first section of the volume describes the history of the Jewish tradition's moral thought from the Bible to contemporary Jewish approaches The second part includes chapters on specific fields in ethics including the ethics of medicine business sex speech politics war and the environment Jewish Visions for Aging Rabbi Dayle A. sacrificial cult conducted by a priestly hierarchy as described in the biblical Pentateuch and the later transition to a democratized form of verbal worship conducted by the laity in a synagogue or by the individual in one's home as described in the rabbinic literature. One of the significant difficulties encountered in such a study is the translation of biblical and rabbinic Hebrew texts into English which employs terminology such as worship and prayer terms which have no reliable biblical or rabbinic Hebrew equivalent. Accordingly the common equation of worship in the general sense of reverence paid to a god with prayer in the more precise Jewish sense of supplication or petition can be misleading. Indeed prayer understood in the latter sense constitutes a rather small segment of the voluminous liturgy of Jewish worship much of which is drawn directly from Scripture whereas prayer as petition both formal and personal is primarily the product of individuals confronting a variety of challenges to their and their coreligionists' social and physical wellbeing. The principal focus of this study is on prayer understood in the latter sense which is traditionally interconnected with benedictions intended to give hope to those petitioning for divine beneficence.
