The Electronic Confessional A Sex Of The 80s:

Net.seXXX Dennis D. Waskul, 2004 Sex has shaped the Internet from the very beginning In the process the Internet has also brought about a plethora of new sexual possibilities opened new markets for the entrepreneurs of pornography challenged the boundaries of social institutions exposed precarious moral dynamics and created a novel arena for asking important questions about the people who may or may not be grounded in this emerging matrix of computer mediated meaning This book takes stock of these changes Drawing from some of the most notable works written on the subject and original contributions from experts in the field Net SeXXX explores the dynamics of Internet sex entertains implications and consequences critically examines key conclusions and raises new questions The Electronic Confessional Howard R. Lewis, Martha E. Lewis, 1986-01 Through the use of a computerized sex information service those questions on sexual feelings and behavior that people dare only ask when opposite a faceless machine are answered by a qualified panel of experts

Computers in Human Behavior Volume 7, Number 1/2, 1991, 1991 Sexualities Marny Hall, 1996 Contains essays related to the range of sexual experiences preferences and identities characterizing women s lives exploring issues such as attraction between lesbian clients and therapists the psychosexual exploitation of women in cults and women SandM and therapy Of interest to feminists therapists and sex educators as well as general readers No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Computers in Human Behavior, 1992 The Psychology of False Confessions Gisli H. Gudjonsson, 2018-07-23 Provides a comprehensive and up to date review of the development of the science behind the psychology of false confessions Four decades ago little was known or understood about false confessions and the reasons behind them So much has changed since then due in part to the diligent work done by Gisli H Gudjonsson This eye opening book by the Icelandic British clinical forensic psychologist who in the mid 1970s had worked as detective in Reykjavik offers a complete and current analysis of how the study of the psychology of false confessions came about including the relevant theories and empirical experimental evidence base It also provides a reflective review of the gradual development of the science and how it can be applied to real life cases Based on Gudjonsson s personal account of the biggest murder investigations in Iceland s history as well as other landmark cases The Psychology of False Confessions Forty Years of Science and Practice takes readers inside the minds of those who sit on both sides of the interrogation table to examine why confessions to crimes occur even when the confessor is innocent Presented in three parts the book covers how the science of studying false confessions emerged and grew to become a regular field of practice It then goes deep into the investigation of the mid 1970s assumed murders of two men in Iceland and the people held responsible for them It finishes with an in depth psychological analysis of the confessions of the six people convicted Written by an expert extensively involved in the development of the science and its application to real life cases Covers the most sensational murder cases in Iceland s history Deep analysis of the Reykjavik Confessions adds crucial evidence to understanding how and why coerced internalized false confessions occur and their detrimental and lasting effects on memory The Psychology of False Confessions Forty Years of Science and Practice is an important source book for students academics criminologists and clinical forensic and social psychologists and psychiatrists National Online Meeting Proceedings, 1987 National Online Meeting,1987

Confessions of a Former Prosecutor Preston Shipp , Eric Wilson,2024-04-23 Once an Assistant Attorney General in Tennessee Preston Shipp found his convictions challenged after teaching criminal justice courses to inmates from the Tennessee Prison for Women He resigned from prosecuting and continued teaching Soon after leaving an exceptional individual Cyntoia Brown joined his class Shipp believed she deserved a chance at redemption only to receive an opinion on a years old murder and robbery case in which he himself had argued for a life sentence for 16 year old Cyntoia Brown Out of guilt and empathy Shipp embarked on a decade long journey to free Ms Brown and while traveling his own path to redemption Today he dedicates his efforts to the Campaign for the Fair Sentencing of Youth which has led to more than 1 000 people receiving a new chance at life after being sentenced to life imprisonment even though they were under the age of 18 Shipp shares his views on how the American justice system is in desperate need of reform especially for juveniles

Proceedings ,1987 American Magazines for the 1980s William Howard Taft,1982 I Confess! Thomas Waugh,Brandon Arroyo,2019-11-21 In the postwar decades sexual revolutions first women s suffrage flappers Prohibition and Mae West later Alfred Kinsey Hugh Hefner and the pill altered the lifestyles and desires of generations Since the 1990s the internet and its cataclysmic cultural and social technological shifts have unleashed a third sexual revolution crystallized in the acts and rituals of confession that are a staple of our twenty first century lives In I Confess a collection of thirty original essays leading international scholars such as Ken Plummer Susanna Paasonen Tom Roach and Shohini Ghosh explore the ideas of confession and sexuality in moving image arts and media mostly in the Global North over the last quarter century Through self referencing or autobiographical stories testimonies and performances and through rigorously scrutinized case studies of gay for pay gaming camming YouTube uploads and the films Tarnation and Nymph maniac the contributors describe a spectrum of identities desires and related representational practices Together these desires and practices shape how we see construct and live our identities within this third sexual revolution embodying both its ominous implications of surveillance and control and its utopian glimmers of community and liberation Inspired by theorists from Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze to Gayle Rubin and Jos Esteban Muñoz I Confess reflects an extraordinary paradigm shifting proliferation of first person voices and imagery produced during the third sexual revolution from the eve of the internet to today War, Violence and the Modern Condition Bernd Hüppauf,2010-11-05 No detailed description available for War Violence and the Modern Condition MicroBionic: Radical Electronic Music and Sound Art in the 21st Century Thomas Bey William Bailey,2012-12-10 Micro Bionic is an exciting survey of electronic music and sound art from cultural critic and mixed media artist Thomas Bey William Bailey This superior revised edition includes all of the original supplements neglected by the publishers of the first edition including a full index bibliography additional notes commentary and an updated discography As the title suggests the unifying theme of the book is that of musicians and sound artists taking bold leaps forward in spite of or sometimes because of their financial technological and social restrictions Some symptoms of this condition include the gigantic discography amassed by the one man project Merzbow the drama of silence enacted by onkyo and New Berlin Minimalism the annihilating noise transmitted from the humble laptop computers of Russell Haswell and Peter Rehberg and much more besides Although the journey begins in the Industrial 1980s in order to trace how the innovations of that period have gained greater currency in the present it surveys a wide array of artists breaking ground in the 21st century with radical attitudes and techniques A healthy amount of global travel and concentrated listening have combined to make this a sophisticated yet accessible document unafraid to explore both the transgressive extremes of this culture and the more deftly concealed interstices thereof Part historical document part survival manual for the marginalized electronic musician part sociological investigation Micro Bionic is a number of different things and as such will likely generate a variety of reactions from inspiration to offense Numerous exclusive interviews with leading lights of the field were also conducted for this book William Bennett Whitehouse Peter Christopherson r i p Throbbing Gristle Coil Peter Rehberg John Duncan Francisco Lopez Carl Michael von Hausswolff Bob Ostertag Zbigniew Karkowski and many others weigh in with a diversity of thoughts and opinions that underscore the incredible diversity to be found within new electronic music itself

A History of Experimental Film and Video A.L. Rees, 2019-07-25 Avant garde film is almost indefinable It is in a constant state of change and redefinition In his highly acclaimed history of experimental film A L Rees tracks the movement of the film avant garde between the cinema and modern art with its postmodern coda But he also reconstitutes the film avant garde as an independent form of art practice with its own internal logic and aesthetic discourse In this revised and updated edition Rees introduces experimental film and video to new readers interested in the wider cinema as well as offering a guide to enthusiasts of avant garde film and new media arts Ranging from C zanne and Dada via Cocteau Brakhage and Le Grice to the new wave of British film and video artists from the 1990s to the present day this expansive study situates avant garde film between the cinema and the gallery with many links to sonic as well as visual arts The new edition includes a review of current scholarship in avant garde film history and includes updated reading and viewing lists It also features a new introduction and concluding chapter which assess the rise of video projection in the gallery since the millennium and describe new work by the latest generation of experimental film makers The new edition is richly illustrated with images of the art works discussed

Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D. Kamitsuka, 2007-07-20 Kamitsuka cautions the feminist theological community against the possibility of excluding some segments of the female population in its quest for liberation She directs her readers attention to the fact that most feminist theologians are writing from a position of privilege as white heterosexual women Applying postmodern and postcolonial thought to better explore feminist theology Kamitsuka argues that the feminist theological movement needs to consider a broader range of issues affecting women today Focusing on womens experience as portrayed in literature biblical narrative and ethnographic writing Kamitsuka examines the assumptions of first wave feminist theology and reflects on the roles of race and sexuality and their possible impact on feminist theological trends

Making Asian American Film and Video Jun Okada,2015-03-06 The words Asian American film might evoke a painfully earnest low budget documentary or family drama destined to be seen only in small film festivals or on PBS Public Broadcasting Service In her groundbreaking study of the past fifty years of Asian American film and video Jun Okada demonstrates that although this stereotype is not entirely unfounded a remarkably diverse range of Asian American filmmaking has emerged Yet Okada also reveals how the legacy of institutional funding and the PBS style unites these filmmakers whether they are working within that system or setting themselves in opposition to its conventions Making Asian American Film and Video explores how the genre has served as a flashpoint for debates about what constitutes Asian American identity Tracing a history of how Asian American film was initially conceived as a form of public interest media part of a broader effort to give voice to underrepresented American minorities Okada shows why this seemingly well intentioned project inspired deeply ambivalent responses In addition she considers a number of Asian American filmmakers who have opted out of producing state funded films from Wayne Wang to Gregg Araki to Justin Lin Okada gives us a unique behind the scenes look at the various institutions that have bankrolled and distributed Asian American films revealing the dynamic interplay between commercial and state run media More than just a history of Asian Americans in film Making Asian American Film and Video is an insightful meditation on both the achievements and the limitations of institutionalized multiculturalism
