The Elventh Corps Artillery At Gettysburg:

The Eleventh Corps Artillery at Gettysburg Thomas Ward Osborn, 1991-01-01 Pickett's Charge Richard Rollins, 2021-08-15 More than 150 firsthand accounts of the American Civil War many of them long forgotten and previously unpublished Includes accounts from Lee Longstreet Pickett Meade and Hancock Maps pinpoint each writer's location on the battlefield The 7th Tennessee Infantry in the Civil War William Thomas Venner, 2013-07-17 This book follows the 7th Tennessee Infantry Regiment from their May 1861 mustering in to the war's final moments at Appomattox in April 1865 It is an intensely personal account based upon the Tennesseans' letters journals memoirs official reports personnel records and family histories It is a powerful account of courage and sacrifice The men a full roster is included changed from exhilarated volunteers to battle hardened veterans They had eagerly rushed to join up anxious to confront the enemy on the battle front Later amid the grim realities the Tennesseans stayed with their comrades and carried out their responsibilities Rifleman Tom Holloway wrote I went into this measure with the conviction that it was my imperative duty Eventually as the war destroyed the Tennesseans Lt Ferguson Harris wrote simply I wonder who will be the last of us to go Johnson's Universal Cyclopaedia, 1895 The Sigel Regiment James S. Pula, 2014-03-26 The 26th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry was quietly mustered into service in Milwaukee on September 17 1862 the bloodiest day in American history Composed primarily of German immigrants and Americans of German descent the 26th fought and bled its way into the record books as one of Fox's Fighting 300 regiments James S. Pula's The Sigel Regiment A History of the 26th Wisconsin Volunteers 1862-1865 is the first book to examine this regiment's storied yet overlooked history The 26th's service spanned three years and three theaters of war The Sigel Regiment named after German General Franz Sigel was initially absorbed into the Army of the Potomac and attached to the 2nd Brigade 3rd Division Howard's 11th Army Corps Its bloody battlefield debut took place at Chancellorsville on May 2 1863 where the Wisconsin soldiers found themselves on the receiving end of one of the most successful surprise attacks in military history Outnumbered outflanked and caught in a crossfire the battling regiment and its Colonel William Jacobs refused to fall back before the onslaught until twice ordered to do so Similar ill luck two months later ensconced the regiment north of Gettysburg where the Badger State troops this time under Lt Col Hans Boebel left another 250 men on the field By the time the 26th Wisconsin shipped out that fall for service in the Western Theater hardened combat veterans who had seen the worst war has to offer populated its ranks Service in Tennessee with the Army of the Cumberland lessened the regiment's exposure to hard combat only temporarily Burdened with political strife and facing a cold winter the Wisconsin men marched and skirmished their way through the fall and early winter campaigns of Chattanooga and Knoxville The spring of 1864 brought with it another season of bloodshed when General William T. Sherman determined to drive deep into Georgia and capture Atlanta Fighting now as part of the 20th Corps the 26th Wisconsin distinguished itself on a number of fields including Resaca New Hope Church Kennesaw Mountain and Peach Tree Creek The thinning German regiment achieved a special distinction at Peach Tree Creek by capturing the flag of the 33rd Mississippi Infantry After the fall of Atlanta the men of the 26th tramped to Savannah on the March to the Sea and north into the Carolinas where more hard fighting at Averasboro and Bentonville awaited them By the end of the war 1 089 men had served in the 26th s ranks more than 17% were killed or mortally wounded Pula s gracefully written and superbly researched The Sigel Regiment A History of the 26th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry 1862 1865 is a distinguished study of a fighting ethnic regiment

Reynolds Memorial Historical Society of Pennsylvania, 1880 This Great Struggle Steven E. Woodworth, 2011-04-16 Referring to the war that was raging across parts of the American landscape Abraham Lincoln told Congress in 1862 We shall nobly save or meanly lose the last best hope on earth Lincoln recognized what was at stake in the American Civil War not only freedom for 3 5 million slaves but also survival of self government in the last place on earth where it could have the opportunity of developing freely Noted historian Steven E Woodworth tells the story of what many regard as the defining event in United States history While covering all theaters of war he emphasizes the importance of action in the region between the Appalachians and the Mississippi River in determining its outcome Woodworth argues that the Civil War had a distinct purpose that was understood by most of its participants it was primarily a conflict over the issue of slavery The soldiers who filled the ranks of the armies on both sides knew what they were fighting for The outcome of the war after its beginnings at Fort Sumter to the Confederate surrender four years later was the result of the actions and decisions made by those soldiers and millions of other Americans Written in clear and compelling fashion This Great Struggle is their story and ours
