The End Of The Ancient World:

The End of the Ancient World and the Beginnings of the Middle Ages Ferdinand Lot, 1966 The End of the Ancient World Santo Mazzarino, 1966 The Past Prologue , The Early Medieval World Michael Frassetto, 2013-03-14 This book examines a pivotal period in ancient human history the fall of the Roman Empire and the birth of a new European civilization in the early Middle Ages The Early Medieval World From the Fall of Rome to the Time of Charlemagne addresses the social and material culture of this critical period in the evolution of Western society covering the social political cultural and religious history of the Mediterranean world and northern Europe The two volume set explains how invading and migrating barbarian tribes spurred by raiding Huns from the steppes of Central Asia contributed to the fall of the Western Roman Empire and documents how the blending of Greco Roman Germanic and Christian cultures birthed a new civilization in Western Europe creating the Christian Church and the modern nation state A Z entries discuss political transformation changing religious practices in daily life sculpture and the arts material culture and social structure and provide biographies of important men and women in the transitional period of late antiquity The work will be extremely helpful to students learning about the factors that contributed to the decline of the Roman Empire an important and common topic in world history curricula The End of the Ancient World Ferdinand Lot, 2013-11-05 Originally published between 1920 70 The History of Civilization was a landmark in early twentieth century publishing It was published at a formative time within the social sciences and during a period of decisive historical discovery The aim of the general editor C K Ogden was to summarize the most up to date findings and theories of historians anthropologists archaeologists and sociologists This reprinted material is available as a set or in the following groupings Prehistory and Historical Ethnography Set of 12 0 415 15611 4 800 00 Greek Civilization Set of 7 0 415 15612 2 450 00 Roman Civilization Set of 6 0 415 15613 0 400 00 Eastern Civilizations Set of 10 0 415 15614 9 650 00 Judaeo Christian Civilization Set of 4 0 415 15615 7 250 00 European Civilization Set of 11 0 415 15616 5 700 00 The End of the World Ernesto de Martino, 2023-11-29 A philosopher historian of religions and anthropologist Ernesto De Martino is often glossed as ahead of his time In his work a reader sees the roots of psychological and medical anthropology discussions of reflexivity and the role of the ethnographer considerations of colonialism and migration and the trauma they might engender and an anticipation of the existential turn in anthropology A reader would also find an attentiveness to hope and possibility despite the gloomy title of his posthumously published book La fine del mondo The End of the World Perhaps the end of the world is an overstatement But in a rapidly globalizing world one in which the entire earth becomes our shared cultural homeland despite our different values and local histories the end of the world might simply mean the end of a world our particular world and the dawning of something new the world of tomorrow De Martino seeks in part to make the idea of the end of a world less horrifying while at the same time attending to the individual loss of self that one might feel in contemplating an apocalypse especially as modernization has divorced us from the rituals and folklore that might make such an eventuality less terrifying De Martino writes Two opposed terrors dominate our age the terror of losing the world and the terror of being lost in the world The end of the world the loss of presence Interweaving the cultural and individual levels of apocalypse treating subjects both classic and contemporary and both European and non Western ranging across ethnography and philosophy De Martino probes how we relate to our world and how we might be better subjects and thinkers within it The End of the World? Reginald Stackhouse,1997 With the millennium fast approaching here is a book that is both timely and informative Reginald Stackhouse reviews the long held belief that the world as we know it will end that Christ will return and that a new social order will be established Writing in a popular style Stackhouse provides an accessible look at eschatology particularly biblical prophecies about the end of the world from a historical perspective He outlines three ways of interpreting biblical discussions of the end times that have been employed in Christian history Millennial confidence the best is yet to come Pastoral interpretation the best is beyond this world Social interpretation the best can be found here and now Throughout his work the author uses historical figures and examples to illustrate his points The Mediterranean World in Late Antiquity Averil Cameron,2015-04-29 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of The Mediterranean World in Late Antiquity now covering the period 395-700 AD provides both a detailed introduction to late antiquity and a direct challenge to conventional views of the end of the Roman empire Leading scholar Averil Cameron focuses on the changes and continuities in Mediterranean society as a whole before the Arab conquests Two new chapters survey the situation in the east after the death of Justinian and cover the Byzantine wars with Persia religious developments in the eastern Mediterranean during the life of Muhammad the reign of Heraclius the Arab conquests and the establishment of the Umayyad caliphate Using the latest in depth archaeological evidence this all round historical and thematic study of the west and the eastern empire has become the standard work on the period The new edition takes account of recent research on topics such as the barbarian invasions periodization and questions of decline or continuity as well as the current interest in church councils orthodoxy and heresy and the separation of the miaphysite church in the sixth century east It contains a new introductory survey of recent scholarship on the fourth century AD and has a full bibliography and extensive notes with suggestions for further reading The Mediterranean World in Late Antiquity 395-700 AD continues to be the benchmark for publications on the history of Late Antiquity and is indispensable to anyone studying the period The Academic World in the Era of the Great War Marie-Eve Chagnon,Tomás Irish,2017-10-17 This book examines the ways in which scholarly expertise was mobilized during the First World War and the consequences of this for the inter connected academic world that had developed in the late nineteenth century Adopting a strong international approach the contributors to this volume examine the impact of the War on individuals institutions and disciplines cumulatively demonstrating the strong afterlife of conflict for scholarly practices and academic communities across Europe and North America in the decades following the cessation of the Great War The End of the Ancient World West

The End of the World as You Know It Matthew L. Halsted,2024-02-07 Thinking about the end times isn't supposed to terrify you Christians rightly turn to the Bible to make sense of our times But so often we get the wrong answers because we ask the wrong questions In The End of the World as You Know It Matthew L Halsted challenges common end times assumptions and points us back to Scripture Each chapter reevaluates a popular question in light of the Bible's own concerns Will Christians be raptured What is the mark of the beast When we let Scripture direct our questions we get better and more hopeful answers The Bible was written for us but not to us We must bridge the gap between Scripture's ancient context and our own Reading end times texts in their ancient context helps us understand our present and future And when we do we find that God's word brings peace not fear and confusion Social and Political Thought of Julius Evola Paul Furlong,2011-04-21 This book is the first full length study in English to present his political thought to a wider audience beyond that of his followers and sympathisers and to bring into the open the study of a neglected strand of contemporary Western thought that of traditionalism Repetition, Communication, and Meaning in the Ancient World,2021-09-13 This volume features an international group of experts on the literature philosophy and religion of the ancient Mediterranean world Each paper makes a unique contribution and together the papers draw an engaging portrait of the idea of repetition Late Antiquity on the Eve of Islam Averil Cameron,2017-05-15 This volume reflects the huge upsurge of interest in the Near East and early Islam currently taking place among historians of late antiquity At the same time Islamicists and Qur'anic scholars are also increasingly seeking to place the life of Muhammad and the Qur'an in a late antique background Averil Cameron herself one of the leading scholars of late antiquity and Byzantium has chosen eleven key articles that together give a rounded picture of the most important trends in late antique scholarship over the last decades and provide a coherent context for the emergence of the new religion A substantial introduction with a detailed bibliography surveys the present state of the field as well as discussing some recent themes in Qur'anic and early Islamic scholarship from the point of view of a late antique historian The volume also provides an invaluable introduction to recent scholarship making clear the ferment of religious change that was taking place across the Near East before during and after the lifetime of Muhammad It will be essential reading for Islamicists and late antique students and scholars alike The World System and the Earth System Alf Hornborg,Carole L Crumley,2016-09-17 In this benchmark volume top scholars come together to present state of the art research and pursue a more rigorous framework for understanding and studying the linkages between social and ecological systems Contributors from a wide spectrum of disciplines including archaeology anthropology geography ecology palaeo science geology sociology and history present and assess both the evolution of our thinking and current state of the art theory and research Covering ancient through modern periods they discuss the complex ways in which human culture economy and demographics interact with ecology and climate change The World System and the Earth System is critical reading for all scholars and students working at the interface of nature and society Contributors Thomas Abel Björn Berglund Chris Chase Dunn Alfred Crosby Carole L. Crumley John Dearing Bert de Vries Nina Eisenmenger Andre Gunder Frank Jonathan Friedman Stefan Giljum Thomas Hall Karin Holmgren Alf Hornborg Kristian Kristiansen Thomas Malm Daniel Mandell Betty Meggers George Modelski Emilio Moran Helena Berg Frank Oldfield Susan Stonich William Thompson Peter Turchin The Cambridge World History of Slavery: Volume 2, AD 500–AD 1420 Craig Perry, David Eltis, Stanley L. Engerman, David Richardson, 2021-08-12

Medieval slavery has received little attention relative to slavery in ancient Greece and Rome and in the early modern Atlantic world This imbalance in the scholarship has led many to assume that slavery was of minor importance in the Middle Ages In fact the practice of slavery continued unabated across the globe throughout the medieval millennium This volume the final volume in The Cambridge World History of Slavery covers the period between the fall of Rome and the rise of the transatlantic plantation complexes by assembling twenty three original essays written by scholars acknowledged as leaders in their respective fields The volume demonstrates the continual and central presence of slavery in societies worldwide between 500 CE and 1420 CE The essays analyze key concepts in the history of slavery including gender trade empire state formation and diplomacy labor childhood social status and mobility cultural attitudes spectrums of dependency and coercion and life histories of enslaved people
