British Models of Art Collecting and the American Response Dr Inge Reist,2014-10-28 This collection of fourteen essays by distinguished art and cultural historians examine points of similarity and difference in British and American art collecting Half the essays examine the trends that dominated the British art collecting scene of the nineteenth century Others focus on American collectors using biographical sketches and case studies to demonstrate how collectors in the United States embellished the British model to develop their own often philanthropic approach to art collecting Inventing the Art

Collection Oscar E. Vázquez,2010-11-01 The pace and scale of the exchange of cultural goods of all sorts paintings furniture even ladies fans increased sharply in nineteenth century Spain and new institutions and practices for exhibiting as well as valorizing art were soon formed Oscar V zquez maps this cultural landscape tracing the connections between the growth of art markets and changing patterns of collecting Unlike many earlier students of collecting he focuses not upon questions of taste but rather upon the discursive and institutional frameworks that came to regulate art s economic and symbolic worth at all levels of Spanish society Drawing upon sources that range from newspaper reviews to notarial documents V zquez shows how collecting acquired the power to mediate debates over individual regional and national identity His book also looks at the emergence of a new state apparatus for arts administration and situates these social and political changes in the broader European context Inventing the Art Collection will be of interest to historians and sociologists of Spain and Europe as well as art historians and cultural theorists Doing Things with Texts Meyer Howard Abrams,M. H. Abrams,1991 One of the most respected literary scholars alive Abrams stands for understanding and conciliation calling for a kind of humanism that can embrace the good in all literary theories Washington Post

The Strawberry Hill Set Brian Fothergill,2013-12-19 To Horace Walpole s house at Strawberry Hill in Twickenham came a remarkable assortment of poets and writers artists and antiquaries politicians and society figures Among them were Thomas Gray whose great Elegy might never have been published without Walpole s encouragement that laughter loving dame Kitty Clive the greatest comic actress of her day Lady Suffolk who entertained Walpole with stories of the days when she was George II s mistress the epicene John Chute whose architectural knowledge and enthusiasm helped to inspire Strawberry Hill the gentle Berry sisters who comforted Walpole s old age George Selwyn celebrated for his wit languor and necrophilia If Mr Selwyn calls said Mr Fox on his death bed show him up If I m still alive I ll be glad to see him and if I m dead he ll be glad to see me The most fascinating member of this circle was Horace Walpole himself Son of Sir Robert Member of Parliament for many years author of the first Gothic romance The Castle of Otranto passionate collector influential amateur of architecture and above all prince of English letter writers he emerges gradually but clearly through the eyes of his friends Brian Fothergill always an accomplished biographer perhaps found his most congenial subject in this book the result is a work as entertaining as it is informative Handbook of Material Culture Christopher Y. Tilley,2006-01-26 Provides a critical survey of the theories concepts intellectual debates substantive domains and traditions of study characterizing the analysis of things This handbook charts an interdisciplinary field of studies that makes a fundamental contribution to an understanding of what it means to be human The

Wunderkammer of Lady Charlotte Guest Erica Obey,2007 Lady Charlotte s translation of the Mabinogion opens a window into several important nineteenth century intellectual issues It sheds light on the interrelationships among antiquarianism philosophy folklore collection and children s literature that underlie the works of such seminal creators of the Victorian fairy tale as the Brothers Grimm Fraud, Fakery and False Business Abigail Harrison Moore,2011-09-08 In 1922 Adolphe

Shrager having made his fortune during the First World War approached the London dealer Basil Dighton for advice on purchasing antique furniture Dighton sold him about five hundred items but shortly afterwards Shrager discovered that one of his collector s pieces was judged to be a fake and grossly over priced and he sued The trial held in early 1923 became a cause celebre but it can be viewed as a case study of a much wider set of social and cultural concerns the fact that Shrager lost both the first trial and the appeal despite demonstrating on numerous occasions that he had a clear case against Dighton raises questions of race prejudice and class where the establishment closed ranks against Shrager the nouveau riche Jew and alleged war profiteer This book the first on the Shrager Dighton case is the result of the author s original archival research

Art, Power and Modernity Gordon Fyfe,2001-01-01 Hwo did the rise of metropolitan art institutions influence modernism and the modernisation of art in England This volume explores the artist as creator notions of class and taste and the power of institutions to affect creativity and artistic expression Topics discussed include the radicalism of engravers and how their claim to be artists is an important and neglected aspect of the nineteenth century art world and how the aesthetic dispute over the Chantrey Bequest epitomized conflicts of taste cultural independence and interdependence between opposed art institutions and the Treasury Christiana Herringham and the Edwardian Art Scene Mary Lago,1996 Lady

Herringham arrived on the Edwardian art scene with a translation of Il Libro dell Arte o Trattato della Pittura Cennini s fifteenth century handbook on fresco and tempera It aroused new interest in those techniques and led to the founding of the Society of Painters in Tempera in 1901 To preserve Britain s art heritage from buyers abroad she provided the money that launched the National Art Collections Fund in 1903 creating what is still a vital and authoritative voice in Britain s cultural life Her work as the only woman on the NACF s first executive committee prepared her to assist in founding the India Society which urged respect for indigenous Indian traditions of the fine arts and encouraged appreciation for them in England

Material Inspirations Jonah Siegel, 2020-10-14 This book is a study of the complex relationship between matter and idea that shaped the nineteenth century culture of art and that in turn determined the course of still current accounts of art's nature and value. Fundamental questions about the effects of material conditions on the creation and reception of art arose as early as the nineteenth century and put important pressures on later eras. The place of class distinctions in the making and reception of art, the relationship between copy and original, the effects of display on art appreciation, even the role of pleasure itself: this book treats these and related issues as productive conceptual challenges with an unresolved relationship to matter at their core. Drawing on recent scholarship on the history of art and its institutions, Material Inspirations places cultural developments such as the emergence of new sites for exhibition and the astonishing proliferation of printed reproductions alongside a wide range of texts including novels, poems, travel guidebooks, compendia of antiquities, and especially the great line of critical writing that emerged in the period. The study vivifies a dynamic era which is still too often seen as static and unchanging by emphasizing the transformations taking place throughout the period in precisely those areas that have appeared to promise little more than repetition or continuity: collection, exhibition, and reproduction. The book culminates with the two great critics of the period, John Ruskin and Walter Pater, but it also includes close analysis of other prose writers as well as poets and novelists ranging from William Blake to Robert Browning, George Eliot to Henry James. Significant developments addressed include the vogue for the representation of Old Masters in the first half of the century, ongoing innovations in the creation and diffusion of reproductions, and the emergence of the field of art history itself. At the heart of each of these, the book identifies a material pressure shaping concepts, texts, and works of art.

Relics of Death in Victorian Literature and Culture Deborah Lutz, 2015-01-15 This literary and cultural study explores the practice in nineteenth century Britain of treasuring objects that had belonged to the dead.

Poetic Exhibitions Eric Gidal, 2001 In the process of tracing poetic and critical responses to the museum and its collections, Poetic Exhibitions simultaneously demonstrates the impact of nationalist ideologies and scientific discourse on formal and thematic developments in Romantic poetry and aesthetics.

Frederick Richard Leyland: Patron and Collector of Art Vinita Sundaram, 1983 The Emergence of the Antique and Curiosity Dealer in Britain 1815-1850 Mark Westgarth, 2020-04-07 Rather than the customary focus on the activities of individual collectors, The Emergence of the Antique and Curiosity Dealer in Britain 1815-1850 illuminates the less studied roles played by dealers in the nineteenth century antique and curiosity markets. Set against the recent art market turn in scholarly literature, this volume examines the role, activities, agency, and influence of antique and curiosity dealers as they emerged in the opening decades of the nineteenth century. This study begins at the end of the Napoleonic Wars when dealers began their wholesale importations of historical objects; it closes during the 1850s after which the trade became increasingly specialised, reflecting the rise of historical museums such as the South Kensington

Museum V A Focusing on the archive of the early nineteenth century London dealer John Coleman Isaac c 1803 1887 as well as drawing on a wide range of other archival and contextual material Mark Westgarth considers the emergence of the dealer in relation to a broad historical and cultural landscape The emergence of the antique and curiosity dealer was part of the rapid economic social political and cultural change of early nineteenth century Britain centred around ideas of antiquarianism the commercialisation of culture and a distinctive and evolving interest in historical objects This book will be of interest to scholars in art history histories of collecting museum and heritage studies and nineteenth century culture

The Naval Miscellany Susan Rose, 2020-11-25 This seventh volume of Naval Miscellany contains documents which range in date from the late thirteenth century to the Korean War They illustrate the many different ways in which the naval forces of the crown have served the realm Topics covered include the role of ships in campaigns against Scotland under Edward I and Edward VI the protection of the Iceland fishery in the days of the Commonwealth government and the operation of prize courts during the wars against France in the eighteenth century Moving on to the nineteenth century the supply of timber to the Royal Navy is examined while two contributions deal with surveying off the west coast of Africa and another prints a diary kept by a member of the Naval Brigade operating onshore in the Zulu War The most recent contributions deal with the origins and development of the Royal Australian Navy up to the 1950s Two more controversial subjects are also included the first gives more information about the storage of cordite on battle cruisers in 1916 and the battle of Jutland the second documents the relief of Admiral North from Gibraltar in 1940 There is something here for every enthusiast for naval history and for all students of the relevant periods

The Brontë Cabinet Deborah Lutz, 2015-04-27 Yields up all sorts of fascinating new angles on the famous siblings Illuminating Maureen Corrigan NPR's Fresh Air In this unique and lovingly detailed biography Victorian literature scholar Deborah Lutz illuminates the fascinating lives of the Brontës through the things they wore stitched and inscribed Lutz immerses readers in a nuanced re-creation of the sisters' days while moving us chronologically through their lives From the miniature books they made as children to the walking sticks they carried on hikes on the moors each possession opens a window onto the sisters' world their beloved fiction and the Victorian era
