James Grant Wilson

The Haggis:

The Haggis Clarissa Dickson Wright, 1996 The author one of the Two Fat Ladies of television cookbook fame handles the history of the haggis with aplomb in this little cookbook Haggis for the uninitiated is a dish commonly made in a sheep's maw of minced lungs hearts and liver of the same animal However the haggis is much more than a mere meal The haggis or some version of it may be found in the histories of countries as varied as ancient Greece Sweden and the United States Yet the haggis is most closely associated with Scotland and has come to represent that country just as pasta represents Italy Scotland may thank its beloved bard Robert Burns for this Burns immortalized the dish in perhaps his best known poem Address to the Haggis In it he refers to the haggis as the Great Chieftan o the Puddin' race How far the haggis had come Originally a meal of the lower classes who could not afford to waste any edible portion of their livestock the haggis mysteriously transformed into a delicacy deemed worthy of royalty Queen Victoria an enthusiast for most all things Scottish said of the haggis I find I like it very well Clans and Tartans A Little Book of Scottish Baking and A Life of Robert Burns are the other books in Pelican's Little Book series The FKing Book Allan Wood, 2006-10-03 These writings are a celebration of the evolution of our habitat and its inhabitants from time immemorial to present day Together with our singular appreciation for the most spoken word of all time a word that conveys different emotions has multiple meanings a word that is never used out of context always grammatically correct spans cultural geographical political and national barriers brings all communications to a level playing field This book is dedicated to everyone who is misguided enough to believe the world has evolved au naturel Hopefully once reading this literary milestone you will come to realise this world's original inhabitants were put here by some Universal Interplanetary Council Correctional Department to facilitate their rehabilitation all of these early settlers were undoubtedly mentally and/or criminally insane and have unwittingly spawned what we know today as a seething mass of institutionalised and certifiable nutters of which you are undoubtedly one Man of the World Gareth May, 2012-06-21 In his brilliant first book 150 Things Every Man Should Know Gareth May instructed the young man about town in vital life lessons such as how to undo a girl's bra with one hand and how to down a pint without being sick All well and good But there comes a time in most young men's lives when their education completed they decide to spread their wings and travel to foreign climes From international dining etiquette to the safe ascension of Kilimanjaro and surviving a shark attack to cooling cans of beer in the Savanna sun Gareth's simple and brilliantly executed new book is a must have for the modern man setting off passport in hand for the first time Covering every possible travel scenario from must visit nudist colonies to tips on how to organise the ultimate stag weekend abroad from where to experience the most exhilarating white water raft run in the world to how to get married by an Elvis lookalike in Vegas never before has a book listed how to read global currency rates on one page and how to drink snake blood in Cambodia on the next With comprehensive cool city guides for the young dude and the most unexpected travel tips you're likely to read anywhere armed
