Eller, William F. Touponce, 2004 This is a textual bibliographical and cultural study of 60 years of Bradbury's fiction The authors draw upon correspondence with his publishers agents and friends as well as archival manuscripts to examine the story of Bradbury's authorship over more than half a century Bradbury Beyond Apollo Jonathan R. Eller, 2020-08-22 Celebrated storyteller cultural commentator friend of astronauts prophet of the Space Age by the end of the 1960s Ray Bradbury had attained a level of fame and success rarely achieved by authors let alone authors of science fiction and fantasy He had also embarked on a phase of his career that found him exploring new creative outlets while reinterpreting his classic tales for generations of new fans Drawing on numerous interviews with Bradbury and privileged access to personal papers and private collections Jonathan R. Eller examines the often overlooked second half of Bradbury's working life As Bradbury's dreams took him into a wider range of nonfiction writing and public lectures the diminishing time that remained for creative pursuits went toward Hollywood productions like the award winning series Ray Bradbury Theater Bradbury developed the Spaceship Earth narration at Disney's EPCOT Center appeared everywhere from public television to NASA events to comic conventions published poetry and mined past triumphs for stage productions that enjoyed mixed success Distracted from storytelling as he became more famous Bradbury nonetheless published innovative experiments in autobiography masked as detective novels the well received fantasy The Halloween Tree and the masterful time travel story The Toynbee Convector Yet his embrace of celebrity was often at odds with his passion for writing and the resulting tension continuously pulled at his sense of self The revelatory conclusion to the acclaimed three part biography Bradbury Beyond Apollo tells the story of an inexhaustible creative force seeking new frontiers

The Rehabilitation of Thomas Mark Tom Crites, 2020-10-08 I don't even know why I'm bothering to write this It isn't like I'm going to ever read it and I certainly wouldn't see the point of showing it to anybody else I suppose it's just for the sake of writing even if it's not very creative or even particularly interesting at least it's writing These are the words of Thomas Mark Crites as he embarks on a period of rehabilitation for his dependence on alcohol Crites as he preferred to be called had intelligence wit and a talent for art that earned him respect in the small press world He self published much of his work as well as that of others and it seemed like youth was on his side What got in the way was the booze A few beers at lunch and drinks around dinner turned into straight alcohol vodka whiskey rum from the first opening of the eyes on through to blackout Following another serious accident that he cannot remember in this instance a face first fall down a flight of stairs Crites family convince him to seek professional help He believes his treatment will last only days but it takes many long months Through journal entries and correspondence with family and close friends this is Crites story one that documents the months prior to during and immediately following his admission to a clinic for alcohol dependency It is an uncompromising and ultimately tragic account but filled with humour and insight in Crites own inimitable style
