gender sexual and social identities Drawing on a range of theoretical approaches from Barthes and Baudrillard to Marxist psychoanalytic and feminist theory Barnard addresses the ambivalent status of fashion in contemporary culture The Psychopolitics of Fashion Otto Von Busch,2020-02-20 What if fashion was a state What kind of state would it be Probably not a democracy Otto von Busch sees fashion as a totalitarian state with a population all too eager to enact the decrees of its aesthetic superiority Peers police each other and deploy acts of judgment peer regulation and micro violence to uphold the aesthetic order of fashion supremacy Using four design projects as tools for inquiry Von Busch explores the seductive desires of envy and violence within fashion drawing on political theories He proposes that the violent conflicts of fashion happen not only in arid cotton fields or collapsing factories but in the everyday practice of getting dressed in the judgments sneers and rejections of others Indeed he suggests that feelings of inclusion and adoration are what make us feel the pleasure of being fashionable of being seductive popular and powerful Exploring the conflicting emotions associated with fashion Von Busch argues that while the current state of fashion is bred out of fear The Psychopolitics of Fashion can offer constructive modes of mitigation and resistance Through projects that actively work towards disarming the violent practices of dress Von Busch suggests paths towards a more engaging and meaningful experience of fashion he calls deep fashion The Consumption Reader David B. performances of respectability femininity and motherhood are embodied by fashion and shaped by class In unpacking this fashion class relationship the book explores how fashion is used by British women to talk about class It offers important insights into the ways fashion mobilises class differences in understandings of dressing up performance and public space It considers how class identity shapes women s attitudes concerning fashion trends and classic styles and it draws attention to the pivotal role mothers play in cultivating these class distinctions The book will be of interest to students in sociology fashion studies cultural studies human geography and consumer behaviour
