Teleworking in the Countryside Michael Antony Clark, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2000 Since the 1970s there has been widespread debate on the potential of information communication technologies on the organization of work and in particular the implications of and opportunities engendered through telework and the decentralization of the workplace However despite the possible spatial cultural social and economic implications much of the telework debate has been informed by anecdotal examples journalistic reporting and individual forecasts This book aims to further the debate by analyzing the scale nature and experience of telework in the countryside It examines how and by whom telework is set up and what policy and social changes are taking place to facilitate it in rural areas Individual teleworkers and the organizations using them are questioned to assess whether rural teleworking is proving as advantageous in practice as it is thought to be in theory Its conclusions suggest that teleworking may not yet be the solution to the many rural problems such as unemployment and depopulation and that businesses and local authorities still need to develop their policies and strategies to allow this type of working to reach its potential

Managing Labour in Small Firms Susan Marlow, Dean Patton, Monder Ram, 2004-08-02 The majority of employees currently working in the private sector are now employed in small firms yet little is known about their working conditions This collection of essays addresses this gap Based on theoretical analysis supported by contemporary empirical evidence the book explores key areas of the employment relationship adding a new perspective to our understanding of contemporary work

Audretsch, Isabel Grilo, A. Roy Thurik, 2007 This book is a well written and handy source for readers Additionally it provides an overview of current issues relevant to the development of entrepreneurial policy which is based on interesting case studies across a number of nations Dessy Irawati International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research What is new in the world is the need to understand business dynamics the entry exit and growth of firms in the economy This dynamic firm structure as opposed to the static firm structure that dominated past thinking has spurred an outpouring of research The heart of the issue is that while many have identified the importance of business dynamics entry and exit we have only recently taken a closer look at the ecological system in which some companies must die for others to thrive Entrepreneurs are the predators of this system Public policy in an entrepreneurial economy dynamic must limit the forces that prevent firm exit and foster the forces that promote firm entry This book makes an important contribution to the debate Zoltan J Acs George Mason University US and Max Planck Institute of Economics Germany This unique Handbook provides a solid foundation for essential study in the nascent field of entrepreneurship policy research This foundation is initially developed via the exploration of two significant propositions underpinning the nature of entrepreneurship policy research The first is that entrepreneurship has emerged as a bona fide focus of public policy particularly with respect to economic growth and employment creation The second is that neither scholars nor policy makers are presently equipped to understand the public policy role for entrepreneurship The contributors experienced scholars specialist researchers and dynamic policy makers thus grapple with novel questions of considerable policy relevance that few have previously posed The Handbook therefore provides some of the first crucial systematic analyses of important issues and key questions to be raised in order to move entrepreneurship policy forward are also presented Written by academics and practitioners drawing examples from both North America and Europe this stimulating new Handbook is a prerequisite for students scholars and practitioners in the incipient world of entrepreneurship policy      Markets and Incentives for Livelihoods and Landscapes Strategy Lucy Emerton, 2009      ENTREPRENEURSHIP DEVELOPMENT (For HS 1st Year Course of Assam State School Education Board) Dr. Raju Subba , Dr. Kripanjali Pradhani, 2025-09-18 Entrepreneurship Development is designed specifically for the Higher Secondary First Year course under the Assam State School Education Board This book aims to equip students with a foundational understanding of entrepreneurship and its crucial role in individual social and economic development especially in the context of Assam and the North Eastern region of India Entrepreneurship today is not merely about starting a business it is about identifying opportunities solving problems taking initiative and creating value In a rapidly changing world nurturing entrepreneurial thinking from a young age is essential to building a generation that is confident innovative and self reliant The book has been developed in alignment with the prescribed syllabus and structured into four comprehensive units Unit 1 Introduction to Entrepreneurship lays the groundwork by introducing the concept aims objectives scope and evolution of entrepreneurship while highlighting its interdisciplinary nature Unit 2 Developing Entrepreneurial Quality and Motivation delves into the personality traits and behavioural bases of successful entrepreneurs It emphasizes self awareness problem solving skills creativity communication and motivation all of which are vital for aspiring entrepreneurs Unit 3 Dynamics of Entrepreneurship explores various entrepreneurial perspectives the historical development of entrepreneurship in India particularly in the North East and identifies local opportunities and challenges This unit aims to contextualize entrepreneurship within students immediate socio economic and cultural surroundings Unit 4 Government Policies and Schemes provides insights into key industrial policies since independence and introduces students to various government initiatives that support entrepreneurial ventures It is designed to familiarize students with practical knowledge about the institutional support system available for entrepreneurs Additionally case studies have been included to provide real life insights and inspire students by showcasing successful entrepreneurial stories and scenarios that reflect both challenges and achievements This book is the result of thoughtful curation and sincere effort to blend theoretical knowledge with practical relevance It is written in simple and accessible language to suit the learning needs of Higher Secondary students while stimulating their curiosity and ambition We hope this book will not only meet academic requirements but also ignite the entrepreneurial spirit among students encouraging them to become job creators rather than job seekers in the future

Small Enterprise Development in South-East Europe Will Bartlett, William Bartlett, Milford Bateman, Maja Vehovec, 2002-05-31 Since the end of the Kosovo war in 1999 increasing attention has been paid to the problems of economic development and reconstruction in South East Europe In a context of limited resources small and medium sized enterprises SMEs have a key role to play in creating jobs and building a dynamic entrepreneurial economy Small Enterprise Development In South East Europe presents important findings from recent empirical research on key factors which hinder sustainable SME growth in South East Europe Finance is identified as a critical barrier to growth and the role of commercial banks micro finance institutions and credit cooperatives in assisting growth is addressed Yet finance alone is not enough A rebuilding of social capital a reduction of the unofficial or grey economy and the promotion of inter firm networks and clusters are also of vital importance in promoting sustainable growth The book concludes with critical analyses of SME policies in Albania Croatia and Macedonia countries which hitherto have received little attention in the literature Small Enterprise Development in South East Europe will be of great interest to policy makers business consultants and academics and post graduate students working on economic development and reconstruction in South East Europe
