Copperhead and Animal Vegetable Miracle raises her voice in praise of nature family literature and the joys of everyday life while examining the genesis of war violence and poverty in our world Whether Barbara Kingsolver is contemplating the Grand Canyon her vegetable garden motherhood genetic engineering or the future of a nation founded on the best of all human impulses her writings are grounded in the belief that our largest problems have grown from the earth s remotest

Tucson brings to us out of one of history s darker moments an extended love song to the world we still have From its opening parable gleaned from recent news about a lost child saved in an astonishing way the book moves on to consider a world of surprising and hopeful prospects ranging from an inventive conservation scheme in a remote jungle to the backyard flock of chickens tended by the author s small daughter Whether she is contemplating the Grand Canyon her vegetable garden motherhood adolescence genetic engineering TV watching the history of civil rights or the future of a nation founded on the best of all human impulses these essays are grounded in the author s belief that our largest problems have grown from the earth s remotest corners as well as our own backyards and that answers may lie in those places too In the voice Kingsolver s
