Harvey Araton,2014-06-23 Harvey Araton writes with keen insight of a time when power was ebbing fast from both newspapers and their unions It s an especially bittersweet tale he tells of the people who had grown up in newspapers and unions as they struggle to adapt to this evolving new order And of course what makes this even more evocative is that we re still trying to sort this all out Frank Deford author of Everybody s All American NPR commentator Father and son face their demons each other and a depressingly realistic publisher in a newspaper yarn that made me yell Hold the Front Page for Harvey Araton s rousing debut as a novelist Robert Lipsyte author of An Accidental Sportswriter In times of change American novelists return to old themes In Cold Type as in Arthur Miller s Death of a Salesman a son and his father struggle to hold onto what they think is right It s mid 1990s and cold type technology a k a computerized typesetting wreaks havoc among workers in the newspaper industry A fabulously wealthy Briton buys the New York City Trib and immediately refuses to negotiate with the truck drivers union In solidarity all the other blue collar unions take to the streets Jamie Kramer is a reporter for the Trib His father is a hardcore shop steward unusual for a Jew in Irish dominated unions from the old day of hot type but who has become a typographer in a world he doesn t understand His father expects Jamie not to cross the picket line It would be an act of supreme disrespect But that s not so easy for Jamie His marriage has fallen apart he desperately needs his paycheck for child support and he needs to make his own life outside the shadow of his father Harvey Araton is a celebrated sports reporter and columnist for the New York Times He authored the New York Times best seller Driving Mr Yogi Yogi Berra Ron Guidry and Baseball s Greatest Gift plus When the Garden Was Eden Clyde the Captain Dollar Bill and the Glory Days of the New York Knicks Araton also finds time to serve as adjunct professor in sports writing at Montclair State University in New Jersey where he lives

AI Needs You Verity Harding,2025-09-02 A humanist manifesto for the age of AI Artificial intelligence may be the most transformative technology of our time As AI s power grows so does the need to figure out what and who this technology is really for AI Needs You argues that it is critical for society to take the lead in answering this urgent question and ensuring that AI fulfills its promise Verity Harding draws inspiring lessons from the histories of three twentieth century tech revolutions the space race in vitro fertilization and the internet to empower each of us to join the conversation about AI and its possible futures Sharing her perspective as a leading insider in technology and politics she rejects the dominant narrative which often likens AI's advent to that of the atomic bomb History points the way to an achievable future in which democratically determined values guide AI to be peaceful in its intent to embrace limitations to serve purpose not profit and to be firmly rooted in societal trust Now with a new foreword by the author AI Needs You gives us hope that we the people can imbue AI with a deep intentionality that reflects our best values ideals and interests and that serves the public good AI will permeate our lives in unforeseeable ways but it is clear that the shape of AI's future and of our own cannot be left only to those building it It is up to us to guide this technology away from our worst fears and toward a future that we can trust and believe in
