

Behind every woman is an essence.
Something you can't touch, hold, copy, or recreate.
It's her.
An essence unique to her.
Call it spirit or energy if you like.
It's the spark that fuels the fire, burning heat
Which radiates from every cell of her.
It comes out when she's fired up or makes a stand for something.
It's soft - don't get me wrong,
But for so long, we've been tricked
To see women as weak or shy, when, in fact, her essence says it all.
There's not an ounce of weakness in her breath.
She's pure power, with every ounce of knowing, like a wise sage ready to step in.
Watch her; she has a voice, and she'll use it forcefully.

Critical Studies in the Cynewulf Group Claes Schaar, The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24 Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in depth examination of Carver's poems making a case for the quality of Carver's poetic output and showing the central role Carver's pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the inter relatedness of biological and cultural systems This idea is seen as informing Carver's entire production and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe's book is its contextualization of Carver's poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between Carver's poetry and short story careers situates Carver's poetry within the love poem tradition explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories and examines Carver's use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness Tellingly Carver's poetry which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars is frequently taught to medical students This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver's work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe's culminating discussion of Carver's work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine Mama Yetta and Other Poems Hermine Pinson, 1999

Scottish Poetry of the Sixteenth Century Various Authors, 2020-09-28 Flodden Field that long slope looking north ward by the deep and dark and sullen Till where on a September afternoon in 1513 the flower of Scotland fell round James

the Fourth stands darkly marked on the page of history both of the Scottish nation and of Scottish poetry It was for the North the burial place of one era and the birth place of another The English billmen who on Flodden closed round the last desperate ring of Scottish spears hewed down with their ghastly weapons not only James himself and his nobles but the feudal system in church and state with all that sprang from it the civilization and poetry of the Middle Ages in Scotland The national spirit which had burst into leaf at Bannockburn was touched now as by an autumn frost and a time of storm and darkness must ensue before the country could feel the re-awakening influences of a new spring The medi val world with its charm and its chivalry its splendour cruelty and power was passing away while the modern world was in the throes of being born Had James IV lived he would doubtless have continued firm handed as he was to hold in check both churchmen and nobles and the reforms which were in the air might have taken effect like leaven and not as they did like gunpowder They might have been grafted upon the existing stem as in England instead of overturning it But during the long minority of James V the abuses of the feudal system political and ecclesiastical attained too rank a growth to be pruned by the hand of that king when he came of age notwithstanding his energy and good intentions The system as Macaulay has pointed out had served its purpose in the Middle Ages as perhaps no more modern system could have done In the feudal castles and monasteries had been preserved certain lights of chivalry and learning which without such shelter must amid the storms of these centuries have flickered and disappeared These lights were now however burning more and more dimly The corruptions of the clergy and the rapacity of the nobles outran all bounds and between the two no man's life was safe and no woman's honour Like other human institutions therefore which have outlived their usefulness feudalism was doomed
