Snow White The Storyteller Library:

Walt Disney, from Reader to Storyteller Kathy Merlock Jackson, Mark I. West, 2014-12-12 Walt Disney best known as a filmmaker had perhaps a greater skill as a reader While many would have regarded Felix Salten's Bambi and Carlo Collodi's Pinocchio as too somber for family oriented films he saw their possibilities He appealed to his audience by selecting but then transforming familiar stories Many of the tales he chose to adapt to film became some of the most read books in America Although much published research has addressed his adaptation process often criticizing his films for being too saccharine or not true to their literary sources little has been written on him as a reader what he read what he liked his reading experiences and the books that influenced him This collection of 15 fresh essays and one classic addresses Disney as a reader and shows how his responses to literature fueled his success Essays discuss the books he read the ones he adapted to film and the ways in which he demonstrated his narrative ability Exploring his literary connections to films nature documentaries theme park creations and overall creative vision the contributors provide insight into Walt Disney's relationships with authors his animation staff and his audience

The Austin Clarke Library Austin Clarke, 2015-08-22 Gathered together are three extraordinary books by renowned storyteller and memoirist Austin Clarke Membering Clarke's breathtaking memoir spans over fifty years of his life as a writer chronicling his coming to Canada in the fifties formative experiences with Malcolm X Chinua Achebe and LeRoi Jones and bursting with cultural insights and poignant memories from a narrative master In The Polished Hoe winner of the Giller Prize and the 2003 Commonwealth Writers Prize when an elderly Bimshire village woman calls the police to confess to a murder the result is a shattering all night vigil that brings together elements of the African diaspora in one epic sweep Set on the post colonial West Indian island of Bimshire in 1952 The Polished Hoe unravels over the course of 24 hours but spans the lifetime of one woman and the collective experience of a society informed by slavery Choosing His Coffin is a selection of Clarke's finest work from more than forty years of storytelling drawing on his Caribbean roots and his years in Canada These stories range in theme from growing up in West Indian society and what it means to be black in both the United States and Canada to surviving as an immigrant in a predominantly Anglo Saxon culture
