thoughtful gathering of new and selected essays spans Kathleen Dean Moore's distinguished career as a tireless advocate for environmental activism in the face of climate change. In this meditation on the music of the natural world, Moore celebrates the call of loons, howl of wolves, bellow of whales, laughter of children, and shriek of frogs, even as she warns of the threats against them. Each group of essays moves as Moore herself has been moved: from celebration to lamentation to bewilderment and finally to the determination to act in defense of wild songs and the creatures who sing them. Music is the shivering urgency and exuberance of life ongoing. In a time of terrible silencing, Moore asks: who will forgive us if we do not save nature's songs.

A New English Music Tim Rayborn, 2016-04-27. The turn of the 20th century was a time of great change in Britain. The empire saw its global influence waning, and its traditional social structures challenged. There was a growing weariness of industrialism and a desire to rediscover tradition and the roots of English heritage. A new interest in English folk song and dance inspired art music, which many believed was seeing a renaissance after a period of stagnation since the 18th century. This book focuses on the lives of seven composers: Ralph Vaughan Williams, Gustav Holst, Ernest Moeran, George Butterworth, Philip Heseltine, Peter Warlock, Gerald Finzi, and Percy Grainger, whose work was influenced by folk songs and early music. Each chapter provides an historical background and tells the fascinating story of a musical life.
