It's God's Word, Not Mine... Gail J. Manizak,2012-02 Gail Manizak is a gifted prophet At sixteen years old Gail became a born again believer joy filled her heart daily as page after page of poetry was written Being full of God s presence she wrote daily as He led At twenty four years old Gail having been baptized in the Holy Spirit received a gift of writing prophetic words As with the poetry it came very naturally to write what she heard in her ear It was prophesied in 1971 that she would hold the office of a prophet In April of 2010 she was officially released by leadership into the office of a prophet Prophetic words spoken confirmed this portion of her call the first being spoken over her life forty years ago This gift has been used to minister to people all over the world In 2009 the Lord dealt with her about opening up the websites for personal prophecy requests She was reminded of all the psychics soothsayers palm readers card readers and astrologers that were operating in the gift but not of the Holy Spirit People were accepting a spirit of deception and lies To be a servant to the people is an honor

Russian Talk Nancy Ries,1997 As one of the first Western ethnographers working in Moscow Nancy Ries became convinced that talk is one crucial way in which Russian identity is constructed and reproduced Listening to the grim stories people used to characterize their lives during perestroika and encountering the florid pessimism with which Muscovites described the unraveling of Soviet governance Ries realized that these dire tales played a crucial role in fabricating a sense of shared experience and destiny While many of the narratives aptly depicted the chaotic social and political events they also promoted key images of Russianness and presented Russian society as an inescapable realm of injustice absurdity and suffering At the height of perestroika in the early 1990s Moscow residents commonly used the phrase complete ruin to refer to the disintegration of Russian society encompassing in that phrase the escalation of crime the disappearance of goods from stores the fall of production ecological catastrophes ethnic violence in the Caucasus the degradation of the arts and the flood of pornography Ries argues that such stories became a genre of folklore consistent in their lamenting portentous tone and their dramatic culturally poignant details
