Awake in the Dark Roger Ebert, 2022-12-22 A collection of greatest film reviews from a critic who understands how to pop the hood of a movie and tell us how it runs Steven Spielberg Pulitzer Prize winning film critic Roger Ebert wrote movie reviews for the Chicago Sun Times for over forty years His wide knowledge keen judgment and sharp sense of humor made him America s most celebrated film critic the only one to have a star dedicated to him on the Hollywood Walk of Fame His hit TV show At the Movies made two thumbs up a coveted hallmark in the industry From The Godfather to GoodFellas from Cries and Whispers to Crash the reviews in Awake in the Dark span some of the most exceptional periods in film history from the dramatic rise of rebel Hollywood and the heyday of the auteur to the triumph of blockbuster films such as Star Wars and Raiders of the Lost Ark to the indie revolution The extraordinary interviews included capture Ebert engaging with such influential directors as Martin Scorsese Steven Spielberg Woody Allen Robert Altman Werner Herzog and Ingmar Bergman as well respected actors as diverse as Robert Mitchum James Stewart Warren Beatty and Meryl Streep Also gathered here are some of his most admired essays among them a moving appreciation of John Cassavetes and a loving tribute to the virtues of black and white films A treasure trove for film buffs Awake in the Dark is a compulsively readable chronicle of film since the late 1960s Ebert has a keen understanding of the way movies work Martin Scorsese Ebert s criticism shows a nearly unequalled grasp of film history and technique A O Scott New York Times New York Magazine , 1983-02-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea From Cooper to Philip Roth , 2021-11-08 New York Magazine , 1983-02-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Varieties of Southern Religious Experiences Samuel S. Hill, 1988-01-01 Over the past twenty years there has been a dramatic increase in the number scope and quality of studies of religion in the American South This new work has been inspired and furthered by a growing acknowledgment of the importance of religious studies in general by the conviction that religion has always been basic to popular discourse in the South and by an awareness of the bearing of religion on the political economic and social spheres of life The authors represented in this collection are professors of religion sociology and history and are all part of a new wave of scholars with fresh orientations toward the study of southern religion The essays cover a wide variety of subjects ranging chronologically from John Boles's work on white black relations in antebellum biracial churches to William Martin's treatment of what he calls the electronic church of the 1980s the television audience congregations who follow evangelists such as Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson The book encompasses a wide range of points of view socioeconomic classes and denominations In addition to C Eric Lincoln's essay on the history of the black church in America there are J Wayne Flynt's on the social gospel among southern Protestants from 1890 to 1920 David Edwin Harrell's on plain folk religion in the South from 1835 to 1920 Randall M Miller's on southern Catholicism and Ralph E Luker's on the ideas of the Episcopal theologian William Porcher DuBose Wade Clark Roof shows how the unchurched in both the South and the rest of the nation reflect the general modernizing process and Richard L Rubenstein treats the relationship between slavery and the Holocaust in William Styron's Sophie's Choice Clarence C Gen writes on the sectional splits in the major denominations prior to the Civil War and in his introduction and conclusion to the collection Samuel S Hill places these ten essays clearly in the context of our current understanding of southern religion and suggests the ways in which this work breaks new ground and points to important new interpretations These essays reflect the central assumption that there has been a distinct South for a long time and they also reveal and examine the genuine diversity of that region's religious history The book is effective and engaging in its treatment of southern religion as an identifiable cultural entity as well as in its evocation of the rich diversity of the parts of that entity New York Magazine, 1983-05-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1983-03-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Holocaust Fiction Sue Vice, 2003-09-02 Examining the controversies that have accompanied the publication of novels representing the Holocaust this compelling book explores such literature to analyze their violently mixed receptions and what this says about the ethics and practice of millennial Holocaust literature The novels examined including some for the first time are Time's Arrow by Martin Amis The White Hotel by D M Thomas The Painted Bird by Jerzy Kosinski Schindler's List by Thomas Keneally Sophie's Choice by William Styron The Hand that Signed the Paper by Helen Darville Taking issue with the idea that the Holocaust should only be represented factually this compelling book argues that Holocaust fiction is not only legitimate but an important genre that it is essential to accept In a growing area of interest Sue Vice adds a new intelligent and contentious voice to the key debates within Holocaust studies Moral Strata John R. Welch, 2014-09-19

This volume recreates the received notion of reflective equilibrium It reconfigures reflective equilibrium as both a cognitive ideal and a method for approximating this ideal The ideal of reflective equilibrium is restructured using the concept of discursive strata which are formed by sentences and differentiated by function Sentences that perform the same kind of linguistic function constitute a stratum The book shows how moral discourse can be analyzed into phenomenal instrumental and teleological strata and the ideal of reflective equilibrium reworked in these terms In addition the work strengthens the method of reflective equilibrium by harnessing the resources of decision theory and inductive logic It launches a comparative version of decision theory and employs this framework as a guide to moral theory choice It also recruits quantitative inductive logic to inform a standard of inductive cogency When used in tandem with comparative decision theory this standard can aid in the effort to turn the undesirable condition of reflective disequilibrium into reflective equilibrium
