Byrne,2006-04-18 This revealing book explores the processes of racialization class and gender and examines how these processes play out in the everyday lives of white women living in London with young children Bridget Byrne analyzes the flexibility of racialized discourse in everyday life whilst simultaneously arguing for a radical deconstruction of the notions of race these discourses create Byrne focuses on the experience of white mothers and their children as a key site in the reproduction of class race and gender subjectivities offering a compelling account of both the experience of motherhood and ideas of white identity Byrne s research is unique in its approach of exploring whiteness in the context of practices of mothering She adopts a broad perspective and her approach provides a suggestive framework for analyzing the racialization of everyday life The book s multi layered analysis shifts expertly from intimate acts to those which engage with local and national discourses in more public spaces Reconsidering white identities through white experiences of race White Lives encompasses many disciplines making valuable reading for those studying sociology anthropology race and ethnicity and cultural studies Winner of the BSA Philip Abrams Memorial Prize 2007 Marriage affinity question: or, Marriage with the

Zuleika Dobson Max Beerbohm,2021-01-01 The passage of time has conferred a dark power upon Beerbohm s ostensibly light and witty Edwardian satire Zuleika Dobson Max Beerbohm,2017-05-03T00:13:38Z Max Beerbohm earned his fame as a caricaturist and essayist and Zuleika Dobson is his only novel Despite that Zuleika has earned no small measure of fame with the Modern Library ranking it 59th in its 100 Best English Language Novels of the 20th Century Beerbohm s essays were famous for their sharp wit and humor and Zuleika follows in that tradition Beerbohm himself called the novel the work of a leisurely essayist amusing himself with a narrative idea The novel follows Zuleika Dobson a rather talentless woman of middling looks who nonetheless holds an almost mystical power of attraction over the men she comes in contact with When she begins attending Oxford she catches the eye of not just the Duke of Dorset but of the entire male class Zuleika is both an easy comedy and a biting satire of Edwardian social mores and of the male dominated Oxford student culture Beerbohm also seems to forecast with eerie accuracy the cultural obsession with talentless celebrity that came to dominate the turn of the 21st century This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks

Zuleika Dobson (Romance Classic) Max Beerbohm, 2019-12-18 Zuleika is a devastatingly attractive young woman of the Edwardian era a true femme fatale who is a prestidigitator by profession formerly a governess Zuleika's current occupation has made her something of a small time celebrity and she manages to gain entrance to the privileged all male domain of Oxford University because her grandfather is the Warden of Judas College There she falls in love for the first time in her life with the Duke of Dorset a snobbish emotionally detached student who is forced to admit that she too is his first love impulsively proposing to her As she feels that she cannot love anyone unless he is impervious to her charms however she rejects all her suitors doing the same with the astonished Duke The Duke decides that he will commit suicide to symbolize his passion for Zuleika but similar idea comes to mind of all Zuleika's suitors
