Soul Of Wood:

Soul of Wood Jakov Lind, 2010-01-05 Soul of Wood made Jakov Lind's reputation as one of the most boldly imaginative postwar writers and it remains his most celebrated achievement. In the title novella and six subsequent stories, Lind distorts and refashions reality to make the deepest horrors of the twentieth century his own. Set during World War II, Soul of Wood is the story of Wohlbrecht, a peg-legged veteran of World War I who smuggles Anton Barth, a paralyzed Jewish boy, to a mountain hideout after the boy's parents have been sent to their deaths. Abandoning the helpless boy to the elements, Wohlbrecht returns to Vienna where, having been committed to an insane asylum, he helps the chief psychiatrist to administer lethal injections to other patients. But Germany is collapsing and the war will soon be over. The one way Wohlbrecht realizes that he can evade retribution is by returning to the woods to redeem his hidden Jew. Others, however, have had the same bright idea.

Rendering Houses in Ladakh Sophie Day, 2023-05-30 Sophie Day explores the houses that are imagined, built, repurposed, and dismantled among different communities in Ladakh, drawing attention to the ways in which houses are like and unlike people. A handful of in-depth house portraits are selected for the insight they provide into major regional developments based on the author's extended engagement since 1981. Most of these houses are Buddhist and associated with the town of Leh. Drawing on both image and text, collaborative methods for assembling material show the intricate relationships between people and places over the life course. Innovative methods for recording and archiving, such as storyboards, are developed to frame different views of the house. This approach raises analytical questions about the composition of life within and beyond storyboards, offering new ways to understand a region that intrigues specialists and non-specialists alike.
