The Art Of Preaching Cistercian Fathers Series:

The Art of Preaching Alanus (de Insulis), 1981 The art of preaching had become a highly formal science by the late twelfth century Taught at universities of western Europe the meticulous construction of sermons satisfied a scholastic desire for order and exactness Alan of Lille the Doctor Universalis was acknowledged by his contemporaries to be an exceptionally learned man His manual on the Art of Preaching is an explanation of the theory of sermon composition as it was developing in the schools of his day A handbook for future preachers it gives moderns an insight into the techniques and the contents of medieval sermons The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F. Brown, Juan Carlos Flores, 2010-03-23 The Middle Ages is often viewed as a period of low intellectual achievement The name itself refers to the time between the high philosophical and literary accomplishments of the Greco Roman world and the technological advances that were achieved and philosophical and theological alternatives that were formulated in the modern world that followed However having produced such great philosophers as Anselm Peter Abelard John Duns Scotus William of Ockham Peter Lombard and the towering Thomas Aquinas it hardly seems fair to label the medieval period as such Examining the influence of ancient Greek philosophy as well as of the Arabian and Hebrew scholars who transmitted it The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology presents the philosophy of the Christian West from the 9th to the early 17th century This is accomplished through a chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the philosophers concepts issues institutions and events making this an important reference for the study of the progression of human thought Historical Dictionary of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F. Brown, Juan Carlos Flores, 2018-08-10 This second edition concentrates on various philosophers and theologians from the medieval Arabian Jewish and Christian worlds It principally centers on authors such as Abumashar Saadiah Gaon and Alcuin from the eighth century and follows the intellectual developments of the three traditions up to the fifteenth century Ibn Khaldun Hasdai Crescas and Marsilio Ficino The spiritual journeys presuppose earlier human sources such as the philosophy of Plato Aristotle Plotinus and Porphyry and various Stoic authors the revealed teachings of the Jewish Law the Koran and the Christian Bible The Fathers of the Church such as St Augustine and Gregory the Great provided examples of theology in their attempts to reconcile revealed truth and man's philosophical knowledge and deserve attention as pre medieval contributors to medieval intellectual life Avicenna and Averroes Maimonides and Gersonides St Thomas Aquinas and St Bonaventure stand out in the three traditions as special medieval contributors who deserve more attention This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Medieval Philosophy and Theology contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important persons events and concepts that shaped medieval philosophy and theology This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about medieval philosophy and theology The Company of Preachers Richard Lischer, 2002-08-30 This unique volume draws on the wisdom of Christian thinkers and preachers from across the ages to present a warm and informative collection of insights on the art of preaching. Gathering the writing of figures as diverse as Augustine, John Chrysostom, Jonathan Edwards, Gardner C. Taylor, and Barbara Brown Taylor, The Company of Preachers provides experienced advice on effective preaching direct from the pens of those who have known it best. The book is arranged in seven divisions, each covering a central component of the preaching task. Editor Richard Lischer himself, a distinguished preacher and teacher, gives a brief introduction to each selection. Aptly presenting a theological and historical cross section of the church's homiletics, this volume will be invaluable to preachers, students preparing for ministry, and others seeking models of powerful Christian speech. Features insights on preaching from Augustine, Karl Barth, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Walter Brueggemann, Rudolf Bultmann, Horace Bushnell, David Buttrick, John Calvin, John Cassian, John Chrysostom, Fred B. Craddock, C. H. Dodd, Jarena Lee, Jonathan Edwards, Charles Grandison Finney, P. T. Forsyth, Harry Emerson Fosdick, Gregory the Great, George Herbert, Martin Luther, Henry H. Mitchell, John Henry Newman, Phoebe Palmer, Paul Ricoeur, Oscar Romero, Friedrich Schleiermacher, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, Barbara Brown Taylor, Gardner C. Taylor, John Wesley, and many more.

A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards Jr., 2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church's ministry of proclamation. Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser-known figures, Edwards paints a detailed, compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel. Pastors, scholars, and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching. Volume 1 contains Edwards's magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching's development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative. Along the way, the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time: Origen, Chrysostom, Augustine, Bernard, Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Edwards, Rauschenbusch, Barth, all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention. Yet lesser-known figures and developments also appear from the ninth-century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands, preachers of the eighteenth-century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew. Volume 2, available separately as 9781501833786, contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. The author has written an introduction to each selection, placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution. Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history. Ecumenical in scope, fair-minded in presentation, appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story.

of what it means to develop deliver and listen to a sermon A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years says Ann K Riggs who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission Author Edwards former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary is co-moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches we all participate in this field says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65 Winter 2004 2005 published by the National Council of Churches

The Cistercian Reform and the Art of the Book in Twelfth-Century France Diane Reilly, 2025-10-01 This book is a study of the programmatic oral performance of the written word and its impact on art and text Communal singing and reading of the Latin texts that formed the core of Christian ritual and belief consumed many hours of the Benedictine monk's day These texts read and sung out loud memorized and copied into manuscripts were often illustrated by the very same monks who participated in the choir liturgy The meaning of these illustrations sometimes only becomes clear when they are read in the context of the texts these monks heard read The earliest manuscripts of Cîteaux copied and illuminated at the same time that the new monastery's liturgy was being reformed demonstrate the transformation of aural experience to visual and textual legacy

Women Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2009-08-01 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women's preaching Kim makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics as it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection from other women preachers as well as herself It is the author's hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman's perspective Kim's ground-breaking book is the first comprehensive narrative of women preachers from the Second Testament to the Second Millennium Through Kim's eyes we see women as a constant and forceful if often subversive presence in Christian preaching After focusing on the medieval period the Reformation and the early twentieth century the author brings her autobiography close to the surface as she leads us to consider women and the politics of God in the colonial and post-colonial eras with a special focus on Asia The book climaxes with a call to envision preaching as partnership with God that facilitates partnership in the church and world in the service of liberation Ronald J Allen Nettie Sweeney and Hugh Th Miller Professor of Preaching and New Testament Christian Theological Seminary Indianapolis Indiana Kim's exciting exploration of the history of women preachers illuminates the remarkable perseverance of God and the women who partner with God to bring words of peace and transformation to the world Those churches that continue to deny women's preaching do more than simply perpetuate an inequality They also quench the Spirit who yearns to transform us co-workers in the liberative work of God Cliff Guthrie Associate Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Studies Bangor Theological Seminary Bangor Maine

English Works of John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester John Fisher, 2002-02-21 Bishop John Fisher was a scholar and theologian of European reputation famous as a preacher and author of the first sermon sequence to be printed in English He was beheaded for his opposition to Henry VIII's divorce from Catherine of Aragon and pursued after his death by the enmity of the king who suppressed his books and sought to blacken his name The figure of John Fisher links the age of late medieval piety with the growth of Christian humanism and the new learning which as a friend of Erasmus he introduced as chancellor of Cambridge University His English writings are distinctive for their structured elegance and clarity This new edition contains sermons written during the last fifteen years of Fisher's life including a previously unpublished eyewitness account of the Field of Cloth of Gold celebrations and devotional works composed while he was a prisoner in the Tower of London

Eros and the Christ David E. Fredrickson, 2013-06-01 The self emptying of Christ kenosis in Philippians 2 has long been the focus of attention by Christian theologians and interpreters of Paul's Christology David E. Fredrickson sheds dramatic new light on familiar texts by discussing the centuries old language of love and longing in Greek and Roman epistolary literature showing that a physics of desire was related to notions of power and dominance Paul's kenotic Christology challenged not only received notions of the power of the gods but of the very nature of love itself as a component of human society

Communicating Papal Authority in the Middle Ages Minoru Ozawa, Thomas W. Smith, Georg Strack, 2023-02-17 This book bridges Japanese and European scholarly approaches to ecclesiastical history to provide new insights into how the papacy conceptualised its authority and attempted to realise and communicate that authority in ecclesiastical and secular spheres across Christendom Adopting a broad yet cohesive temporal and geographical approach that spans the Early to the Late Middle Ages from Europe to Asia the book focuses on the different media used to represent authority the structures through which authority was channelled and the restrictions that popes faced in so doing and the less certain expression of papal authority on the edges of Christendom Through twelve chapters that encompass key topics such as anti popes artistic representations preaching heresy the crusades and mission and the East this interdisciplinary volume brings new perspectives to bear on the medieval papacy The book demonstrates that the communication of papal authority was a two way process effected by the popes and their supporters but also by their enemies who helped to shape concepts of ecclesiastical power Communicating Papal Authority in the Middle Ages will appeal to researchers and students alike interested in the relationships between the papacy and medieval society and the ways in which the papacy negotiated and expressed its authority in Europe and beyond
