Asian Art News, 2006 Art AsiaPacific Almanac, 2009 Art and AsiaPacific, 2007 A Companion to Asian Art and Architecture Rebecca M. Brown, Deborah S. Hutton, 2015-06-22 A Companion to Asian Art and Architecture presents a collection of 26 original essays from top scholars in the field that explore and critically examine various aspects of Asian art and architectural history Brings together top international scholars of Asian art and architecture Represents the current state of the field while highlighting the wide range of scholarly approaches to Asian Art Features work on Korea and Southeast Asia two regions often overlooked in a field that is often defined as India China Japan Explores the influences on Asian art of global and colonial interactions and of the diasporic communities in the US and UK Showcases a wide range of topics including imperial commissions ancient tombs gardens monastic spaces performances and pilgrimages Original - Copy - Fake? Ernst Pernicka, Silke von Berswordt-Wallrabe, 2008 English summary It is not always easy to decide whether an object of art or an antiquity is authentic or not On the one hand there is a gradual transition from improving restoration to outright deceit On the other hand the methods applied in the production of fakes become ever more sophisticated so that fakes are sometimes incorporated even in respected and well known collections This situation is even more unfortunate as these collections represent points of reference for further stylistic investigations and comparisons Bochum based foundation Situation Kunst owns a substantial collection of West African art which has been the subject of controversial opinions concerning its authenticity The questions posed in the title of this book gave rise to an exchange of positions and experiences between art historians ethnologists scientists and restorers at a meeting at Ruhr University Bochum in February 2007 The results of this memorable symposium are collected in this volume The Japanese Period Film S.A. Thornton, 2007-11-13 This study examines the history of the Japanese period film and proposes that a powerful relationship exists between the past and present in Japan s narrative tradition The first section of the book analyzes the form and function of the Japanese period film describing the unique iconography and characteristics of films set in the past The author also examines how the period film has allowed Japanese filmmakers to circumvent government censorship by serving as a rhetorical device with which they can explore contemporary concerns through a criticism of the past The final section of the book contains chapters that focus on the narrative in Japanese epic religion theater and modern popular literature A complete filmography and bibliography are included Sultans of the South Navina Najat Haidar, Marika Sardar, 2011 Between the 14th and the 17th century the Deccan plateau of south central India was home to a series of important and highly cultured Muslim courts Subtly blending elements from Iran West Asia southern India and northern India the arts produced under these sultanates are markedly different from those of the rest of India and especially from those produced under Mughal patronage This publication a result of a 2008 symposium held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art investigates the arts of Deccan and the unique output in the fields of painting literature architecture arms textiles and carpet Art and Globalization James Elkins, Zhivka

Valiavicharska,Alice Kim,2010 Brings together historians philosophers critics postcolonial theorists and curators to ask how contemporary global art is conceptualized Issues discussed include globalism and globalization internationalism and nationality empire and capitalism Provided by publisher Comics Art in China John A. Lent,Xu Ying,2017-07-20 International Convention of Asia Scholars 2019 Book Prize Best Art Publication In the most comprehensive and authoritative source on this subject Comics Art in China covers almost all comics art forms in mainland China providing the history from the nineteenth century to the present as well as perspectives on both the industry and the art form This volume encompasses political social and gag cartoons lianhuanhua picture books comic books humorous drawings cartoon and humor periodicals and donghua animation while exploring topics ranging from the earliest Western influenced cartoons and the popular often salacious 1930s humor magazines to cartoons as wartime propaganda and comics art in the reform Coupling a comprehensive review of secondary materials histories anthologies biographies memoirs and more in English and Chinese with the artists actual works the result spans more than two centuries of Chinese animation Structured chronologically the study begins with precursors in early China and proceeds through the Republican wartime Communist and market economy periods Based primarily on interviews senior scholar John A Lent and Xu Ying conducted with over one hundred cartoonists animators and other comics art figures Comics Art in China sheds light on tumult and triumphs Meticulously Lent and Xu describe the evolution of Chinese comics within a global context probing the often tense relationship between expression and government as well as proving that art can be a powerful force for revolution Indeed the authors explore Chinese comics art as it continues to grow and adapt in the twenty first century Enhanced with over one hundred black and white and color illustrations this book stands out as not only the first such survey in English but perhaps the most complete one in any language American Art Directory 2005-2006 National Register Publishing,2004 The East Asian Modern Girl Sumei Wang,2021-09-06 The East Asian Modern Girl reports the long neglected experiences of modern women in East Asia during the interwar period The edited volume includes original studies on the modern girl in Taiwan Korea Manchuria Japan Shanghai and Hong Kong which reveal differentiated forms of colonial modernity influences of global media and the struggles of women at the time The advent of the East Asian modern girl is particularly meaningful for it signifies a separation from traditional Confucian influences and progression toward global media and capitalism which involves high political and economic tension between the East and West This book presents geo historical investigations on the multi force triggered phenomenon and how it eventually contributed to greater post war transformations Asian Cultural Flows Nobuko Kawashima,Hye-Kyung Lee,2018-10-10 This book investigates economic political and cultural conditions that have led to transnational flows of culture in Asia Coverage also looks at the consequences of an increasingly interconnected Asian regional culture as well as policy makers and cultural industries response to it The book features essays written by researchers from different countries in Asia and beyond with diverse disciplinary backgrounds The volume also contains engaging examples and cases with comparative perspectives The contributors provide readers with grounded analysis in the organizational and economic logics of Asian creative industries national cultural policies that promote or hinder cultural flows and the media convergence and online consumers surging demand for Asianized cultural products Such insights are of crucial importance for a better understanding of the dynamics of transnational cultural flows in contemporary Asia In addition the essays aim to de westernize the study of cultural and creative industries which draws predominantly on cases in the United States and Europe The contributors focus instead on regional dynamics of the development of these industries The popularity of J Pop and K Pop in East and Southeast Asia and beyond is now well known but less is known about how this happened This volume offers readers theoretical tools that will help them to make better sense of those exciting phenomena and other rising cultural flows within Asia and their relevance to the global cultural economy

Muslim Devotional Art in India Yousuf Saeed, 2018-10-26 This book highlights the history of Islamic popular devotional art and visual culture in 20th century India weaving the personal narrative of the author's journey through his understanding of the faith It begins with an introductory exploration of how the basic and universal image of Mecca and Medina may have been imported into Indian popular print culture and what variants it resulted in here Besides providing a historical context of the pre print culture of popular Muslim visuality the book also explores the impact the 1947 Partition of India may have made on the calendar art in South Asia A significant portion of the book focuses on the contemporary prints of different localised images found in India and what role these play in the users lives especially in the augmentation of their popular faith and cultural practices The volume also compares the images published in India with some of those available in Pakistan to reflect different socio political trajectories Finally it discusses why such a vibrant visual culture continues to thrive among South Asian Muslims despite the questions raised by the orthodoxy on its legitimacy in Islam and why images and popular visual cultures are inevitable for popular piety despite the orthodox Muslims increasing dissociation from them This work is one of the first books on Indian Muslim poster art with rare images and simple narratives anecdotes about rituals ceremonies and cultural traditions running parallel to research findings This second edition contains a new Afterword that discusses challenges to religious plurality arising on account of changing political landscapes economic liberalisation technology and new media and socio religious developments It will appeal to the lay reader as well as the specialist and will be especially useful to researchers and scholars in popular culture media and cultural studies visual art and performance studies and sociology and social anthropology

The Art is Long Alexis M. Butzner, 2021-08-27 The Art Is Long Primary Texts on Medicine and the Humanities gathers introductory texts in the growing field of medical humanities This unique volume presents a lens with which to examine the intersection of literature and medicine with diverse selections that span time and the globe With authors from Sushruta to Hippocrates Margery Kempe to John Donne and Susie King Taylor to Sigmund Freud the volume also highlights the voices of women people of color and those who have been overlooked or marginalized by the medical establishment The Art Is Long aims to expand the medical humanities canon. In addition to more traditional works readers will find snippets of literary and narrative encounters with medicine by writers who are neither doctors nor nurses including professional caretakers and people who might be labelled quacks today but whose contributions represent a part of medical history. This anthology also includes medical reportage and philosophy fiction and nonfiction image and poetry. The shifts in genre style and perspective provide a wealth of opportunities to reflect on medical history and literary techniques focusing on narratives that highlight a personal context for medical subjects in a single volume.

Forms of the Left in Postcolonial South Asia Sanjukta Sunderason, Lotte Hoek, 2021-12-16 This book explores the aesthetic forms of the political left across the borders of post colonial post partition South Asia. Spanning India Sri Lanka Pakistan and Bangladesh the contributors study art film literature poetry and cultural discourse to illuminate the ways in which political commitment has been given aesthetic form and artistic value by artists and by cultural and political activists in postcolonial South Asia. With a focused conceptualization this volume asks: Does the political left in South Asia have a recognizable aesthetic form? And if so what political effects do left wing artistic movements and aesthetic artefacts have in shaping movements against inequality and injustice? Reframing political aesthetics within a postcolonial and decolonised framework the contributors detail the trajectories and transformations of left wing cultural formations and affiliations and focus on connections and continuities across post 1947 India Pakistan Sri Lanka and Bangladesh.

Pazyryk Culture Up in the Altai Kathryn M. Linduff, Karen S. Robinson, 2021-12-30 This book reconsiders the archaeology of the Pazyryk the horse riding people of the Altai Mountains who lived in the 4th-3rd centuries BCE in light of recent scientific studies and excavations not only in Russia but also Kazakhstan Mongolia and China together with new theories of landscape. Excavation of the Pazyryk burials sparked great interest because of their wealth of organic remains including tattooed bodies and sacrificed horses together with superb wooden carvings and colorful textiles. In view of this new research the role of the Pazyryk Culture in the ancient globalized world can now be more focused and refined. In this synthetic study of the region the Pazyryk Culture is set into the landscape using recent studies on climate technology human and animal DNA and local resources. It shows that this was a powerful semi sedentary interdependent group with contacts in Eurasia to their west and to their east in Mongolia and south in China. This book is for archaeologists anthropologists art historians social and economic historians as well as persons with general interests in mobile pastoralism the emergence of complex societies the social roles of artifacts and the diverse nature of an interconnected ancient world.

Chinese Art and Dynastic Time Wu Hung, 2022-05-03 A sweeping look at Chinese art across the millennia that upends traditional perspectives and offers new pathways for art history. Throughout Chinese history dynastic time the organization of history through the lens of successive dynasties has been the dominant mode of narrating the story of Chinese art even though there has been little examination of this concept in discourse and practice until now. Chinese Art and Dynastic Time uncovers how the development of Chinese art was described in its original cultural sociopolitical and artistic contexts and how these narratives were interwoven with contemporaneous artistic creation In doing so leading art historian Wu Hung opens up new pathways for the consideration of not only Chinese art but also the whole of art history Wu Hung brings together ten case studies ranging from the third millennium BCE to the early twentieth century CE and spanning ritual and religious art painting sculpture the built environment and popular art in order to examine the deep rooted patterns in the historical conceptualization of Chinese art Elucidating the changing notions of dynastic time in various contexts he also challenges the preoccupation with this concept as the default mode in art historical writing This critical investigation of dynastic time thus constitutes an essential foundation to pursue new narrative and interpretative frameworks in thinking about art history Remarkable for the sweep and scope of its arguments and lucid style Chinese Art and Dynastic Time probes the roots of the collective imagination in Chinese art and frees us from long held perspectives on how this art should be understood Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC
