The Arts:

The Theory of the Arts Francis Edward Sparshott, 2014-07-14 In a systematic overview of classical and modern contributions to aesthetics Professor Sparshott argues that all four lines of theory and no others are necessary to coherent thinking about art Originally published in 1982 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Hearings on the National Endowment for the Arts United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Labor-Management Relations, 1994 Risk and Regulation at the Interface of Medicine and the Arts Larry Lynch, Robert Marshall, Gregg Whelan, 2017-05-11 This book brings together an edited selection of presentations from the Association for Medical Humanities annual conference 2015 held at Dartington Hall UK that address the question How might innovative performing arts help to develop medical education and practice It includes papers and accounts of both keynote talks and performances presenting cutting edge activity thinking and research in the medical and health humanities The volume also offers an archive of a visual arts exhibition focused on surgical themes that ran in conjunction with the conference An introductory chapter situates the conference in the context of Dartington Hall's radical education tradition while an overview chapter discusses the theme of risk and regulation in contemporary culture with particular reference to medicine and healthcare Part I Selected Keynotes covers three key areas in the conversation between medicine and the arts chance in health and illness the contested role of simulation in art and medical education and risks in introducing arts based learning to medical students Part II Performances archives three innovative and challenging performance pieces presented at the conference with commentaries and discussion including a closely argued philosophical justification for performance art Part III Histories offers a historical gaze on anatomical illustration plagues represented through art and poetry written in combat Part IV For some just living is a risk offers a photo essay on Haiti's symptoms a photo record on the regulation of foodways for those living at the edge of subsistence a medical student's wary account of scepticism towards the use of arts in medical education and a photo essay concerning the care of a child with complex disabilities and special needs Part V Exhibition At the Sharp End of Bluntness archives deliberately provocative visual work addressing surgical themes and living with cystic fibrosis as Slow Death The Tao of Audience Development for the Arts: Philosophies About Audience

Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts Basia

Sliwinska, Catherine Dormor, 2022-10-20 Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts interrogates the politics of space expressed via womxn's artistic practices which prioritise solidarity and collaboration across borders imagining attentive geographies of difference It considers belonging as a manifestation of processes of becoming that traverse borders and generate new spaces and forms of difference In doing so the book aims to catalyse mutual social relations founded upon responsibility and response ability to each other The transnational framework activates concerns around belonging at a time of intensified divisions partitioning global narratives unequal trajectories and increasing violence against bodies of the most vulnerable largely founded on Eurocentric paradigms of political economic and cultural superiority The contributors engage in a conversation signalling transversal thinking and artmaking in order to articulate and activate in between spaces This is to welcome co affective models of belonging that question versatile embodiments of subjectivity as both agentic and as interrelational Organised around the triangulation of modes of belonging spatial affective and collective overarched by a transnational lens that acknowledges non hierarchical local and socially relevant genealogies against universalising politics of globalisation these essays consider afresh ways in which female agency disrupts borders and activates concerns around different forms of belonging citizenship and transnationalisms Cover Image credit Keren Anavy Garden of Living Images

Weldon Kees and the Arts at Midcentury Daniel A. Siedell, 2003-01-01

Born in 1914 in Beatrice Nebraska and presumed dead in 1955 when he apparently leapt from the Golden Gate Bridge Weldon Kees has become one of the better known unknown American poets of the twentieth century his fiction and poetry largely kept alive by other poets But Kees was also that rare artist who excelled in many genres and media a skillful painter filmmaker jazz musician and composer He was a gifted critic as well and his criticism bears the marks of his own deep and broad engagement with the arts Weldon Kees and the Arts at Midcentury is the first book to reflect the full range and reach of Kees's artistic activities Bringing together writers from various disciplines art historians poets literary critics curators and cultural scholars including Dore Ashton James Reidel Dana Gioia and Stephen C Foster this volume offers a wide variety of perspectives through which to evaluate the meaning and significance of Kees's achievement Although the essays themselves partake of the diversity of Kees's impact on the culture all agree on one fundamental point any history of postwar American culture that neglects Kees's multifaceted contribution is ultimately incomplete

What Are the Arts and Sciences? Dan Rockmore, 2017-06-06

What constitutes the study of philosophy or physics What exactly does an anthropologist do or a geologist or historian In short what are the arts and sciences While many of us have been to college and many aspire to go we may still wonder just what the various disciplines represent and how they interact What are their origins methods applications and unique challenges What kind of people elect to go into each of these fields and what are the big issues that motivate them Curious to explore these questions himself Dartmouth College professor and mathematician Dan Rockmore asked his colleagues to explain their fields and what it is that they do The result is an accessible entertaining and enlightening survey of the ideas and subjects that contribute to a liberal education The book offers a doorway to the arts and sciences for anyone intrigued by the vast world of ideas Georg Picht: A Pioneer in Philosophy, Politics and the Arts Enno Rudolph, Johannes Picht, 2023-01-21 Aimed at an international readership this book offers a representative collection of essays by the German philosopher Georg Picht 1913 1982 who was a specialist in Greek philosophy practical philosophy and philosophy of religion Picht s themes address different disciplines such as ancient philosophy systematic philosophy and political analysis and often contain critical statements on significant developments from the European Enlightenment to the Cold War era Other essays offer a distinctive interdisciplinary approach characteristic of the author These contributions are relevant to both philosophy and science as they discuss for instance philosophical definitions of space and time or the relationship between history and evolution Another part of the book includes texts on art that present Picht s authentic definition of art and his theory of the interdependence of art and politics For the first time key texts of the German philosopher and political thinker Georg Picht are presented to a global readership in English Like Nietzsche s philosophy Picht s work is grounded in his outstanding professionalism in the different fields of classics embracing not only texts and theories of the great thinkers from the pre Socratic to the post Aristotelian and Stoic philosophies but also the main currents of ancient literature Picht s importance as a political author and public adviser is exceptional and may explain why his lifelong friend Carl Friedrich von Weizsäcker another pioneer presented in this series called him his teacher Grassroots Leadership and the Arts For Social Change Susan J. Erenrich, Jon F.

Wergin, 2017-03-29 This book explores the intersection of grassroots leadership and the arts for social change examining the many movements and subsequent victories the arts community has won for society The book illustrates the diverse but influential work of these figures reflecting on their actions commitments and their positive impact on the modern world
