The Aten Promise:

Boundary Stelae Of Akhentaten William J. Murnane, Charles C. Van Sicel III, 2012-11-12 First published in 1993 This is a new edition of Akhenaten's boundary stelae which now includes information about most of the boundary markers the tablets were accompanied by statues of Akhenaten Nefertiti and two of their daughters all of which stood on low platforms that were raised above the level of the floor In addition was the awareness that the statues at the site of Stela A were elevated to a greater degree than were the corresponding statues at other sites insofar as this could be judged from published photographs The evidence in the publication indicated moreover that Stela A along with Stela B some two miles south were the latest of the boundary monuments to be inscribed since both concluded with a colophon dated to the end of Akhenaten's eighth regnal year added to the standard text of the Later Proclamation found on these and other stelae of this series

Thomas D. Turner, 2011-05 Duncan an archeologist finds a satellite city of Atlantis inside a mountain After his team excavates the site the archeologist becomes ill and he goes into a coma While unconscious Duncan experiences the last days of the Atlantean Empire In Duncan's adventures he sees the political struggles which lead to the demise of Atlantis The Atlantians have to fight for their race as their competing empires have different religions politics and greed Honor duty friendship and religion are the only things that can keep them from being completely wiped off the face of the Earth Daygun the Atlantean emperor's son sees what his friends and family will do to for their empire Daygun has to make hard decisions for his homeland When Duncan comes back from his adventures he looks at the world differently In his mind it is not his discovery of the lost city but what he sees in the similarities of today's world The Aten Promise Henniker Keene, 2002-11

Imagine for a moment that legend and fact are two living and breathing entities In legends Atlantis was destroyed by a great flood due to greed For a civilization to be gluttonous they have to be imperialistic A great war would have taken place to destroy such a powerful civilization In fact mankind has learned of civilizations older than the Egyptians and Sumerians Within the last five decades archeologists have learned about the Gobekli Tepe in Turkey and the City of Lord Krishna submerged under the Gulf of Cambay Both cities can date back twelve thousand years ago Right after the Ice Age the world looked different The oceans and seas started to rise four hundred feet due to climate change After the glaciers started to melt Mankind was ready to strive to the next level of its existence Societies and cultures started to expand If a person fuses fact and legend together the result would be the civilization of the Atlantean Empire The Promises and Pitfalls of Technology in Higher
