Becoming Habsburg David Rechter, 2013-06-20 The Jews of Bukovina were integral to and at home in local society Rechter reconstructs their history while carefully locating it within larger intellectual frameworks At Eden's Door David Rechter, 2022-12-15 Leon Kellner

was part of the intellectual and cultural elite of imperial Austria Engaged in politics a member of his regional parliament and an essayist of repute he was also a Zionist leader and confidant of Theodor Herzl He created an institution for Jews cultural educational and social advancement modelled on London s Toynbee Hall which spread across east central Europe to great effect He was also an internationally recognized Shakespeare scholar Yet for all this today he is little known How did someone born into a lower middle class Orthodox Jewish family from the province of Galicia come to gain such prominence in the Habsburg empire Kellner s is a thoroughly Habsburg Jewish story spanning east and west and shaped by the empire s history politics and culture He was a singular character a Galician Jew at home in Vienna and in Czernowitz eyes towards Zion yet content also in London and never more so than when absorbed in the minutiae of Shakespeare s texts Kellner s world was destroyed twice over Habsburg Austria came to an end in 1918 east central European Jewry in 1945 This biography recovers at least part of what was lost Venice and Venetia under the Habsburgs David Laven,2002-08-22 The Austrian domination of Venice and Venetia after the Congress of Vienna has traditionally received a bad press The Restoration regime was long villified as oppressive and exploitative and in direct opposition to the interests of almost all classes of the population This volume questions this view arguing from detailed archival research that Francis I s rule brought many real benefits to his Venetian subjects The root of the remarkable passivity of Venetia in the years after the fall of Napoleon should not be explained in terms of pervasive policing heavy handed censorship and the presence of Metternich s forest of bayonets but rather by the existence of a fair and responsive if sometimes cumbersome administrative structure Having outlined the origins of Austrian control of Venetia in terms of radical political and territorial changes experienced during the Revolutionary and Napoleonic period this work examines the mechanisms of Austrian rule Early chapters focus on the uncomfortable tensions that existed between the temptation to retain a modernised machinery of state inherited from Napoleon s Kingdom of Italy and the desire to look to models existing in the rest of the Habsburg Monarchy with the aim of creating greater uniformity with the rest of the multinational empire Various aspects of the Habsburg system are examined to assess the burden of Austrian control in the form of taxation and conscription and the way in which education policing the Church and censorship were used in sometimes surprising ways to attach the Venetian population to their Habsburg masters Finally the book addresses the question of what went wrong between the death of Francis I in 1835 and the Venetian insurrection of 1848 9 to alienate the population so radically The Traditions of Invention Alex Drace-Francis,2013-07-15 Literary and cultural images once considered marginal to the main currents of political and institutional development in southeastern Europe have been accorded much greater importance by scholars in recent years In this volume Alex Drace Francis brings together over fifteen years of work on the topic of representations of Romania and Romanians Crossing the East West divide the book studies both external images of the country and people and domestically generated representations of Europe and the West It draws on material in a wide range of languages and offers a long term view
