Bruce Douglas, 1929 The Smells and Senses of Antiquity in the Modern Imagination Adeline Grand-Clément, Charlotte Ribeyrol, 2021-12-16 This volume tackles the role of smell under explored in relation to the other senses in the modern rejection reappraisal and idealisation of antiquity Among the senses olfaction in particular has often been overlooked in classical reception studies due to its evanescent nature which makes this sense difficult to apprehend in its past instantiations And yet the smells associated with a given figure or social group convey a rich imagery which in turn connotes specific values perfumes scents and foul odours both reflect and mould the ways in which a society thinks or acts Smells also help to distinguish between male and female citizens and strangers and play an important role during rituals The Smells and Senses of Antiquity in the Modern Imagination focuses on the representation of ancient smells both enticing and repugnant in the visual and performative arts from the late 18th century up to the 21st century The individual contributions explore painting sculpture literature and film but also theatrical performance museum exhibitions advertising television series historical reenactment and graphic novels which have all played a part in reshaping modern audiences perceptions and experiences of the antique The Palgrave Handbook of Steam Age Gothic Clive Bloom, 2021-02-03 By the early 1830s

the old school of Gothic literature was exhausted Late Romanticism emphasising as it did the uncertainties of personality and imagination gave it a new lease of life Gothic the literature of disturbance and uncertainty now produced works that reflected domestic fears sexual crimes drug filled hallucinations the terrible secrets of middle class marriage imperial horror at alien invasion occult demonism and the insanity of psychopaths It was from the 1830s onwards that the old gothic castle gave way to the country house drawing room the dungeon was displaced by the sewers of the city and the villains of early novels became the familiar figures of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Dracula Dorian Grey and Jack the Ripper After the death of Prince Albert 1861 the Gothic became darker more morbid obsessed with demonic lovers blood sucking ghouls blood stained murderers and deranged doctors Whilst the gothic architecture of the Houses of Parliament and the new Puginesque churches upheld a Victorian ideal of sobriety Christianity and imperial destiny Gothic literature filled these new spaces with a dread that spread like a plague to America France Germany and even Russia From 1830 to 1914 the period covered by this volume we saw the emergence of the greats of Gothic literature and the supernatural from Edgar Allan Poe to Emily Bronte from Sheridan Le Fanu to Bram Stoker and Robert Louis Stevenson Contributors also examine the fin de siècle dreamers of decadence such as Arthur Machen M P Shiel and Vernon Lee and their obsession with the occult folklore spiritualism revenants ghostly apparitions and cosmic annihilation This volume explores the period through the prism of architectural history urban studies feminism hauntology and much more Horror as Poe teaches us is the soul of the plot

A Century of Weird Fiction, 1832-1937 Jonathan Newell, 2020-03-15 Offers a new critical perspective on the weird that combines two ways of looking at weird and cosmic horror Mingling of nausea and knowledge this book connects pulp horror with metaphysical insight offering an innovative approach aesthetics and metaphysics Combines recent speculative philosophy and affect theory

The Hill of Dreams Arthur Machen, 2023-04-03 An ancient Roman hilltop fort proves an irresistible draw to Lucian Taylor but what awaits at the top isn't just a view of the surrounding Welsh landscape but a bacchanal experience his young soul isn't ready for This experience sets his path as he attempts to transcribe his increasingly elaborate visions into the perfect book the book that will actually mean something more than the banal novels he sees the publishing houses push out The Hill of Dreams is a semi autobiographical work with Arthur Machen following a similar physical journey to the novel a childhood in rural Wales followed by attempts to become an author in London Machen was inspired by a review of Tristram Shandy that described it as a picaresque of the mind and determined to write a Robinson Crusoe of the soul The protagonist's isolation from the rest of society certainly resonates with that description Machen wrote this ten years earlier than its original 1907 publication it having been turned down by the publishers of the time While it was mostly ignored on its initial release it has picked up admirers over the years and is now viewed as one of Machen's most important works

Bewilderments of Vision Oliver Tearle, 2014-06-01 According to Oscar Wilde the primary aim of the critic is to see the object as in itself it really is not Through a series of close and often unusual readings this book endeavours to develop Wilde's remark into a detailed and creative theory of reading It focuses on a series of neologisms from writing of the period

The Shape of Fear Susan Jennifer Navarette, 2021-05-11 During the last decades of the nineteenth century Charles Darwin Thomas Henry Huxley Walter Pater and others changed the nature of thought concerning the human body and the physical environment that had shaped it In response the 1890s saw the publication of a series of remarkable literary works that had their genesis in the intense scientific and aesthetic activity of those preceding decades texts that emphasized themes of degeneration and were themselves stylistically decompositive with language both a surrogate for physical deformity and a source of anxiety Susan J Navarette examines the ways in which scientific and cultural concerns of late nineteenth century England are coded in the horror literature of the period By contextualizing the structural stylistic and thematic systems developed by writers seeking to reenact textually the entropic forces they perceived in the natural world Navarette reconstructs the late Victorian mentalit She analyzes aesthetic responses to trends in contemporary science and explores horror writers use of scientific methodologies to support their perception that a long awaited period of cultural decline had begun In her analysis of the classics Turn of the Screw and Heart of Darkness Navarette shows how James and Conrad made artistic use of earlier scientific readings of the body She also considers works by lesser known authors Walter de la Mare Vernon Lee and Arthur Machen who produced fin de si cle stories that took the form of hybrid literary monstrosities To underscore the fascination with bodily decay and deformation that these writers explored The Shape of Fear is enhanced with prints and line drawings by Victor Hugo James Ensor and other artists of the day This elegantly written book formulates a new canon of late Victorian fiction that will intrigue scholars of literature and cultural history Sex, Sects and Society Russell Davies,2018-03-28 This book will provide an educational and entertaining read It will explain the contradictions and complexities of the Welsh national identity This book will reveal the hardships and horrors of some people s lives It will reveal how religion and superstition ebbed and flowed together G.K. Chesterton, London and Modernity Matthew Beaumont,Matthew Ingleby,2013-12-05 G K Chesterton London and Modernity is the first book to explore the persistent theme of the city in Chesterton s writing Situating him in relation to both Victorian and Modernist literary paradigms the book explores a range of theoretical and methodological approaches to address the way his imaginative investments and political interventions conceive urban modernity and the central figure of London While Chesterton s work has often been valued for its wit and whimsy this book argues that he is also a distinctive urban commentator whose sophistication has been underappreciated in comparison to more canonical contemporaries With chapters written by leading scholars in the field of 20th century literature the book also provides fresh readings and suggests new contexts for central texts such as The Man Who Was Thursday The Napoleon of Notting Hill and the Father Brown stories It also discusses lesser known works such as Manalive and The Club of Queer Trades drawing out their significance for scholars interested in urban representation and practice in the first three decades of the 20th century Arthur Machen Henry Danielson,Arthur Machen,1923
