A Fluid Sense of Self Silvia Schultermandl,Sebnem Toplu,2010 In this era of increasing global mobility identities are too complex to be captured by concepts that rely on national borders for reference Such identities are not unified or stable but are fluid entities which constantly push at the boundaries of the nation state thereby re defining themselves and the nation state simultaneously Contemporary literature pays specific attention to internal and external notions of belonging Politics of Motion and definitions of self resulting from interpersonal relationships Politics of Longing This collection looks at texts by authors who are British American or Canadian but for whom a self definition according national parameters is insufficient

Fictions of Proximity Tim Person,2023-11-02 Fictions of Proximity Skepticism Romanticism and the Wallace Nexus tells the story of a nexus of contemporary novelists around David Foster Wallace who took up the legacy of logical positivism and reworked it between the 1980s and the 2000s in a way that has affinities with romanticism The book shows how the writers of this Wallace nexus use fiction's complexities to challenge the idea that in human interactions only complete fusion and transparency may count as instances of knowing In place of this positivistic ideal of absorption the book offers the freshly defined concept of proximity a closeness with separateness It reads key novels of contemporary Anglo-American literature as fictions of proximity i.e. as texts that dramatize problematize and enact the movement into this position of proximity To tell this story the book draws on unpublished archival materials and understudied connections advancing new interpretations of four novelists David Foster Wallace David Markson Bret Easton Ellis and Zadie Smith Fictions of Proximity provides new readings of these writers both of their canonical texts and of lesser-known works and situates them with respect to prominent figures in contemporary post-positivist philosophy The polemics of Ageing as reflected in Literatures.
