study examines characters like Trina Sieppe Caroline Meeber Edna Pontellier and Helga Crane It analyzes these women s backgrounds their demeanors their temperaments their experiences and their settings and explains how and when each woman decides to use her sexuality There is also a brief discussion of other femmes fatales in American naturalism such as Stephen Crane s Maggie A Girl of the Streets Although the perception of women in nineteenth century American literature has always had its place in discussions of literary texts this book is unique in its argument that women in American naturalism are neither weak nor passive but rather are strong and daring women who try diligently to find a means of fighting back This book is an important addition to collections in literature and Women s studies The Mississippi
