Hindus and Their Christian Bible R. S. Sugirtharajah,2024-02-22 R S Sugirtharajah shows how at the height of European colonialism whilst the colonizers were studying the sacred texts of Hindus Muslims Buddhists Sikhs and Zoroastrians the Hindus were themselves scrutinizing the invader s book the Christian Bible Sugirtharajah examines how these Hindus transformed the Bible into what they deemed fit for and suited to their contexts The result was that the Bible acquired a totally different form and lost its authority as the Book of the Empire Sugirtharajah shows how the resistant subversive and at times antagonistic readings of the Hindus went beyond what the colonizer had intended Sadly what these Hindus made of the Bible went largely unnoticed and was ignored by Western scholarship This volume seeks to rectify this regrettable omission and to place both the Hindu reformers and nationalists attitude to the Bible in their own specific context and to allow them to speak on their own terms rather than reading them with Christian preconception The Hindu reformers covered include figures such as Raja Rammohun Roy Arumuga Navalar Keshub Chunder Sen Swami Vivekananda Ponnambalam Ramanathan M K Gandhi and Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan and nationalists such as Dhirendranath Chowdhary Sita Ram Goel and Ram Swarup The book contains the interpretative context the textual negotiation that went on between these Hindus and the missionaries and orientalist examples of their Hinduization of the Bible and the hermeneutical impact on mainstream biblical interpretation Basic Writing of S. Radhakrishnan Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan,1970

V. Satyanarayana,2009 Ethics is a part of philosophy that is concerned with living well and choosing the right course of action The choice of the course of action is based on moral reasoning and there is no single moral theory on which we can base the choices that we make The application of moral standards in life is also the concern of Ethics Theory and Practice which deals with moral theories in Indian and Western philosophical traditions as well as the debates that centre around their application The book has ten chapters the first chapter presents what morality and moral reasoning is the second chapter is a critical survey of some popular concepts of Indian ethics the third chapter surveys Western moral theories and the remaining seven chapters cover a variety of contemporary moral issues that are controversial as well as inescapable They deal with issues like capital punishment civil

Metaphysical Realities in Psychology and Management Mithila Bihari Sharan, 2011 Representing the Margin Ajay S. Sekher, 2008 The work explores the representation of socio cultural margins of caste and gender in Indian contexts in works of fiction written in various Indian languages in the twentieth century taking representative samples from Hindi Urdu Bengali Kannada Malayalam and English The focus of enquiry is the narrativization of these important cultural and political questions in representative texts of fiction What are the socio political and cultural implications and underpinnings of the representation of marginalization in the medium and genre of fiction what could be the politics ethics and aesthetics of such narrating how far such representations are subversive or consensual complicit what are the limitations and pitfalls of such intervening radicalism in fictional narration all these questions are taken up in detail in the analyses In the greater sense this study is also a critique of modernity and its discontents as it analyses the dialectics of modernity its radical as well as reactionary aspects A problematic premise of contextualizing the text and textualizing the context would also be prominent in the attempt Fictional texts from five Indian languages including English two texts from each language are incorporated in the study to ensure regional and linguistic representation within the limits of the availability of works in translation Questions of class analytical perspectives in the context of Brahmanic patriarchy are explicated and critiqued The need for a subaltern hermeneutics and the urgency of epistemological democratization are also discussed as a political and emancipatory outcome of the study Both the formal as well as thematic concerns of the novel in the Indian languages are found to be shaped and determined by the material realities and associated attitudes and worldviews of caste and gender hierarchy emanating from internal imperialism Though the ten texts chosen attempt intense critique of the gender question the more profound and specific cultural question of caste evades comprehension and critical understanding Caste often escapes as the un
