The Echoing Grove:

The Echoing Grove Rosamond Lehmann, 2015-07-21 Two sisters fall for the same man in this New York Times bestselling novel of WWII era England by an immensely readable author Elizabeth Jane Howard Rickie Masters is married to Madeleine who is sitting out the war in the country with their children Their domestic serenity is shattered when Rickie falls in love with Madeleine's sister Dinah and they begin a clandestine guilt-ridden affair When Madeleine discovers their infidelity accusations are hurled and hard choices are made Then a year before the war officially ends tragedy strikes and it is only after an estrangement of fifteen years that Madeleine and Dinah will begin to struggle toward some kind of reconciliation Shifting between the three characters' viewpoints and shuttling seamlessly between past and present The Echoing Grove is a story of life messy unpredictable and unstoppable It is about family the things that hold us accountable the events that lead to life-altering decisions and the emotions that make us human And above all it is about love romantic love married love familial love and illicit love The heart wants what it wants regardless of the cost The Echoing Grove Rosamond Lehmann, 1953 First published in 1953 The Echoing Grove is one of Rosamond Lehmann's most acclaimed novels and Madeleine calm and resolute has accepted that her marriage has been of limited success With extraordinary insight Lehmann explores the sublimity and the pain of these fatally interrelated lives in her magnificent novel The Echoing Grove Rosamond Lehmann, 1953 The echoing grove Rosamond Lehmann, 1968 The Echoing Grove Rosamond Lehmann, 2005 The inter-related lives of two sisters are shown through the eyes and experiences of both women Fifteen years have passed since the two sisters have met Now both are widows and both love the same man British Literature of the Blitz K. Miller, 2008-12-18 British Literature of the Blitz interrogates the patriotic utopian ideal of the People's War by analyzing conflicted representations of class and gender in literature and film Its subtitle Fighting the People's War describes how British citizens both united to fight Nazi Germany and questioned the nationalist ideology binding them together

Rosamond Lehmann Judy Simons, 2011 This book locates Lehmann's fictional achievement in the context of her times and in particular describes its positioning within the turbulent period between two world wars and the changing aesthetic of modernity Elizabeth Gaskell Angus Easson, 2016-07-22 First published in 1979 this book looks at every aspect of the life and work of Elizabeth Gaskell including her lesser-known novels and writings especially those concerning life in the industrial north of Victorian England It shows how her work springs from a culture and society which pervades all she thought and wrote An opening chapter explores her religion culture friendships and family The major works are considered in turn and background material relevant to the novels industrial scenes is presented The process of literary creation is charted in material drawn from letters and by examination of the manuscripts Her short stories journalism and letters are also considered Living in Time Albert Gelpi, 1998 Albert Gelpi explores in three expansive sections the major periods of the poet's development beginning with the emergence of Day Lewis in the thirties as the most radical of the Oxford poets An artist who sought through poetry a way of living in time without traditional religious assurances Day Lewis went further than his friends in seeking to forge a revolutionary poetry out of his commitment to Marxism When Stalinism led to his resignation from the Communist Party Day Lewis in the forties went on to shape a rich fiercely perceptive poetry out of the convergence of the wartime crisis with the explosive events of his own inner life intensified by the erotics of a decade long affair The Literature of Absolute War Nil Santiáñez,2020-05-28 This book explores for the first time the literature of absolute war in connection to World War II From a transnational and comparative standpoint it addresses a set of theoretical historical and literary questions shedding new light on the nature of absolute war the literature on the world war of 1939 45 and modern war writing in general It determines the main features of the language of absolute war and how it gravitates around fundamental semantic clusters such as the horror terror and the specter The Literature of Absolute War studies the variegated responses given by literary authors to the extreme and seemingly unsolvable challenges posed by absolute war to epistemology ethics and language It also delves into the different poetics that articulate the writing on absolute war placing special emphasis on four literary practices traditional realism traumatic realism the fantastic and catastrophic modernism

The Poison at the Source P. Brown,1992-03-10 An examination of a number of English women novelists who portrayed the crises and conflicts in the development of the female consciousness as a response to the anomalies of the rapidly changing world of the early twentieth century when opportunities for self expression and fulfilment were beginning to open up for women but nineteenth century values and prejudices still widely prevailed May Sinclair Radclyffe Hall Rosamond Lehmann Antonia White and Dorothy Richardson are seen as outspoken and innovative writers often marginalised or ignored by serious criticism Censorship across Borders Alberto Lázaro,Catherine O'Leary,2011-07-12 This volume brings together twelve essays which explore European censorship of English literature in the last century Taking into consideration the various social political and historical contexts in which literary controls were imposed and the extent to which they were determined by national and international concerns these essays comment on political and moral censorship self censorship and the role of the translator as censor Besides systematic state control other hidden and insidious forms of censorship are also surveyed in the essays This study considers why certain works and authors many of them now regarded as canonical were targeted in various states and often under opposing ideologies such as those dominated by conservative Catholic morality and those governed by communism or socialism The essays contain previously unpublished material cover a wide range of authors including Beckett Eliot Joyce and Orwell and analyse diverse censorship systems operating across Europe thus serving as a useful comparative resource Despite the variety of structures of suppression the study shows that certain common practices can be discerned across national borders and that general conclusions can be drawn about the complex and ambiguous nature of the state's relationship with culture and about the immediate and long term impact of censorship not only on the author and publisher but on society as a whole Finally the essays are also significant for what they tell us about the survival of literature despite the best efforts of the censors Understanding Jonathan Coe Merritt Moseley, 2016-07-30 An examination of the life career and oeuvre of the British novelist and biographer In Understanding Jonathan Coe the first full length study of the British novelist Merritt Moseley surveys a writer whose experimental technique has become increasingly well received and critically admired Coe is the recipient of the John Llewellyn Rhys Prize the Prix Medicis the Priz du Meilleur Livre Entranger the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prizes for Fiction and the Samuel Johnson Prize for Nonfiction His oeuvre includes eleven novels and three biographies two of famous Hollywood actors Humphrey Bogart and Jimmy Stewart and one of English modernist novelist B S Johnson Following an introductory overview of Coe s life and career Moseley examines Coe s complex engagement with popular culture his experimental technique his political satire and his broad canvased depictions of British society Though his first three books An Accidental Woman A Touch of Love and The Dwarves of Death received little notice upon publication Moseley shows their strengths as literary works and as precursors In 1994 Coe gained visibility with What a Carve Up which has remained his most admired and discussed novel He has since published a postmodern take on sleep disorders and university students The House of Sleep a two volume roman fleuve consisting of The Rotters Club and The Closed Circle a touching account of a lonely woman s life The Rain before It Falls a satiric vision of a misguided life The Terrible Privacy of Maxwell Sim and a domestic comedy thriller set at the 1958 world s fair in Brussels Expo 58 Moseley explicates these works and discusses the recurring features of Coe s fiction political consciousness a deep artistic concern with the form of fiction and comedy Rosamond Lehmann and Her Critics Wendy Pollard, 2017-11-28 This study of contemporary and later critical responses to the work of the novelist Rosamond Lehmann 1901 1990 offers an original approach to twentieth century literary history by foregrounding the cultural and commercial fields in which Lehmann s writing was situated Wendy Pollard examines the effect recent developments in literary theory and movements from modernism to feminism have had on Lehmann s literary reception She also considers the interpolation of a damning third category between te and popular culture namely middlebrow a widening gender divide in readership controversies within book reviewing changes in the publishing world and the introduction of popularist means of book marketing While considering the general privileging of male authors from the 1920s to the 1950s Lehmann s most prolific period Pollard argues that her novels have been unfairly subjected to specific forms of neglect and their exclusion from many academic comparative studies is due to a diversity of form and content that can also be considered their strength

Bingeing It Graham Falconer, 2024-03-20 As the subtitle indicates Bingeing It is an account of the author s leisure reading between 2016 and 2022 when it was no longer possible to pursue his academic research The binges in question were often a matter of chance a trip to Italy a Christmas present a hospital visit but they aim to show how and why the books became life long friends The Penguin Modern Classics Book Henry Eliot, 2021-11-18 The essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world For six decades the Penguin Modern Classics series has been an era defining ever
