Beyond Blood Identities Jason D. Hill,2009-01-01 Beyond Blood Identities uncovers the social psychology of those who hold strong blood identities In this highly original work Jason D Hill argues that strong racial ethnic and national identities which he refers to as tribal identities function according to a separatist logic that does irreparable damage to our moral lives Drawing on scholarship in philosophy sociology and cultural anthropology Hill contends that strong tribalism is a form of pathology Beyond Blood Identities shows how a particular understanding of culture could lead to a new theoretical approach to enriched human living Hill develops a new version of cosmopolitanism that he calls post human cosmopolitanism to solve a number of challenges in contemporary society From the problem of defining culture the failure of multiculturalism the question of who owns native culture the identification of Jews as post human people and the problem of their status as chosen people in a modern world the author applies a cosmopolitan analysis to some of the major problems in our global and interdependent world He posits a world in which community has been dispensed with and replaced by its successor term sociality_the broad unmarked space in which creative social intercourse takes place Hill applies a new cosmopolitanism to ideate a new post humanity for the twenty first century Revisiting Normativity with Deleuze Rosi Braidotti, Patricia Pisters, 2013-03-14 This volume assembles some of the most distinguished scholars in the field of Deleuze studies in order to provide both an accessible introduction to key concepts in Deleuze's thought and to test them in view of the issue of normativity This includes not only the law but also the question of norms and values in the broader ethical political and methodological sense The volume argues that Deleuze's philosophy rejects the unitary vision of the subject as a self regulating rationalist entity and replaces it with a process oriented relational vision of the subject But what can we do exactly with this alternative nomadic vision What modes of normativity are available outside the parameters of liberal self reflexive individualism on the one hand and the communitarian model on the other This interdisciplinary volume explores these issues in three directions that mirror Deleuze and Guattari's defense of the parallelism between philosophy science and the arts The volume therefore covers socio political and legal theory the epistemological critique of scientific discourse and the cultural artistic and aesthetic interventions emerging from Deleuze's philosophy
