Effective School Leadership John MacBeath, 1998-09-30 This is a zippy read arising out of the international project effective leadership in a time of change which grapples with the nature and practice of leadership as opposed to management or administration in schools Times Educational Supplement Who really runs the school head teachers or governors What do pupils think of their leaders and should they have a bigger role in school leadership Is the United Kingdom obsessed with discipline and strong leadership as others suggest Is New Public Management an insidious undermining of what is important and valuable in the UK educational system The answers to these and other questions present surprises and challenges to the way things are seen in the UK This book provides evidence from other countries that raises many questions about effective leadership and how it is seen from different viewpoints and examines the issues in a political context and in relation to a changing world scene Resources in Education, 1997 The Principal's Guide to School Budgeting Richard D.

Sorenson, Lloyd M. Goldsmith, 2024-04-18 Align your school budget with your vision for student achievement Since 2006 The Principal's Guide to School Budgeting has been a best seller supporting thousands of principals in navigating the complex process of school budgeting This fourth edition hones in on the message that a school budget should be a reflection of the school's vision for student growth an open culture and a positive school climate This edition offers new information on how national and state reform and political practices affect school allocations and emphasizes the need for appropriate budget visioning planning analysis and needs assessment Covering the budgeting process effective budgeting practices accounting and auditing procedures and building the school budget within a collaborative decision making context this comprehensive guide includes In chapter vignettes and discussion questions Case study applications and experiential exercises A budget development project New discussion of technology's impact on budgetary practices phishing scams and fundraising The Principal's Guide to School Budgeting is an essential resource for practicing and aspiring school administrators who want to master their accounting and auditing procedures By effectively managing the school budgeting process principals can contribute to improved student achievement and strengthen connections with the school community Assessing

Instructional Leadership with the Principal Instructional Management Rating Scale Philip Hallinger, Wen-Chung Wang, 2015-05-22 This volume provides a succinct up to date summary of global research on principal instructional leadership as it has evolved over the past 50 years The book's particular focus is on the development and use of the Principal Instructional Management Rating Scale PIMRS The PIMRS is the most widely used survey instrument designed for assessing instructional leadership for research and practice It has been used in more than 250 studies in more than 30 countries around the world The authors provide a detailed conceptual and data based description of the rationale and development of the instrument as well as the ways in which it has been used in practice The book also provides for the first time a comprehensive assessment of the scale's measurement properties This represents essential information for future users of the instrument across different national contexts Finally the volume outlines an agenda for improving future research on the role of principal instructional leadership in student learning and school effectiveness      Formation and Development for Catholic School Leaders: The principal as educational leader Maria J.
