The Eight Habits Of Highly Compatible Couples:

The Eight Habits of Highly Compatible Couples Michael McKee, 2004-09 It has been said that relationships would be so much easier if they could be accomplished alone Well to some extent relationships can be a solo endeavor but the fulfillment factor tends to wane in proportion to the amount of chafing that occurs And so someone else becomes one of the basic requirements for a successful relationship Beyond this however we have little to help us understand how to foster good relationships other than the advice of our family and friends whose soap opera lives leave us wondering about the veracity of their wisdom Thus our relationships become a learn as we go spiraling into the abyss proposition But somehow over time we do learn So in order to alleviate the pain of this often lengthy learning curve I have written this book as a field guide to help those of you who are unsure of who to turn to regarding our often difficult and embarrassing relationship concerns
