edge scholarship in the field Puerto Rican Students in U S Schools features both scholarly chapters conceptual and research studies and reflective essays as well as two poems combines broad overview studies with classroom practice and social action and includes chapters that trace the history of the education of Puerto Ricans in U S schools in general and its history in New York City and one chapter on return migrants Science Education Leadership: Best Practices for the New Century

Jack Rhoton,2010 It's Time for Strategic Scheduling Nathan Levenson,David James,2023-07-03 An accessible guide to creating schedules that amplify school and district priorities support best practices in teaching and learning heighten student engagement and enhance equity A school s schedule can be as important to education outcomes as its budget or strategic plan The secret to making the schedule a tool for school improvement is to approach schedule design not as a technical task centered on making everything fit like Tetris blocks but as a strategic one In this book informed by research and their work with hundreds of schools scheduling experts Nathan Levenson and David James explore how strategic scheduling can turn a good enough schedule into one that supercharges learning and engagement without additional costs or more FTEs If you are ready to Figure out which schedule type is best for your students and staff Disrupt harmful tracking and ensure every student has access to highly skilled teachers and rigorous curriculum Deliver optimum hours of core instruction while expanding electives and providing opportunities for student voice and choice Precisely match staffing to course enrollment to free up personnel and funds for other purposes Find time for critical intervention and enrichment blocks and Communicate scheduling decisions more effectively to parents families and district leaders then it s time for strategic scheduling Offering targeted advice for best practice scheduling at the elementary middle and high school levels this book will help school and district leaders and the teachers and students they serve make the most of every school day and every school year

Beating the Odds Freeman A. Hrabowski III,Kenneth I. Maton,Geoffrey L. Greif,1998-04-02 Today young Black men are more likely to be killed or sent to prison than to graduate from college Yet despite all the obstacles some are achieving at the highest academic and professional levels Beating the Odds tells their remarkable stories and shows us what African American families have done to raise academically successful sons sons who are among the top two percent of African American males in terms of SAT scores and grades The result of extensive and innovative research Beating the Odds goes beyond mere analysis and beyond the relentlessly negative media images to show us precisely how young Black men can succeed despite the roadblocks of racism the temptations of crime and drugs and a popular culture that values being cool over being educated By interviewing parents and children from a range of economic and educational backgrounds and from both single and two parent homes the authors identify those constants that contribute to academic achievement and offer step by step guidance on six essential strategies for effective parenting child focused love strong limit setting and discipline continually high expectations open consistent and strong communication positive racial identity and positive male identity and full use of community resources The proof of the effectiveness of such strategies is in the sons themselves who speak eloquently in these pages about their struggles and successes in both the classroom and the often hostile world that surrounds it Essential reading for parents teachers and school administrators Beating the Odds offers insight guidance and hope for anyone concerned about the plight of young African American men and the society they live in Cutting School Noliwe Rooks, 2017-09-26 2018 Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright Legacy Award Nonfiction Finalist A timely indictment of the corporate takeover of education and the privatization and profitability of separate and unequal schools published at a critical time in the dismantling of public education in America An astounding look at America's segregated school system weaving together historical dynamics of race class and growing inequality into one concise and commanding story Cutting School puts our schools at the center of the fight for a new commons Naomi Klein author of No Is Not Enough and This Changes Everything Public schools are among America's greatest achievements in modern history yet from the earliest days of tax supported education today a sector with an estimated budget of over half a billion dollars there have been intractable tensions tied to race and poverty Now in an era characterized by levels of school segregation the country has not seen since the mid twentieth century cultural critic and American studies professor Noliwe Rooks provides a trenchant analysis of our separate and unequal schools and argues that profiting from our nation's failure to provide a high quality education to all children has become a very big business Cutting School deftly traces the financing of segregated education in America from reconstruction through Brown v Board of Education up to the current controversies around school choice teacher quality the school to prison pipeline and more to elucidate the course we are on today the wholesale privatization of our schools Rooks's incisive critique breaks down the fraught landscape of segrenomics showing how experimental solutions to the so called achievement gaps including charters vouchers and cyber schools rely on profit from and ultimately exacerbate disturbingly high levels of racial and economic segregation under the guise of providing equal opportunity Rooks chronicles the making and unmaking of public education and the disastrous impact of funneling public dollars to private for profit and nonprofit operations As the infrastructure crumbles a number of major U S cities are poised to permanently dismantle their public school systems the very foundation of our multicultural democracy Yet Rooks finds hope and promise in the inspired individuals and powerful movements fighting to save urban schools A comprehensive compelling account of what's truly at stake in the relentless push to deregulate and privatize Cutting School is a cri de coeur for all of us to resist educational apartheid in America Six Shifts to Improve Special Education and Other Interventions Nathan Levenson, 2021-11-18 Six Shifts to Improve Special Education and Other Interventions offers a set of bold new ideas for dramatically raising the achievement of students with mild to moderate disabilities and students experiencing serious academic social and emotional and behavioral difficulties Despite much effort and caring on the part of educators a new approach to supporting struggling students is critically needed so they can master grade level skills and complete college argues author Nathan Levenson Combining research with evidence from his own implementation work in more than a hundred districts Levenson makes the case for a wholesale rethinking of how interventions are delivered summarized by six essential shifts Designed to be practical and draw on the talents of existing staff Levenson's shifts are paired with concrete advice and lessons learned from the field to improve special education and general education interventions such as Response to Intervention and Multi Tiered Student Supports Six Shifts to Improve Special Education and Other Interventions serves as both a call to action and a critical guide for administrators looking for more effective affordable ways to close the achievement gap The Encyclopedia of Middle Grades Education (2nd ed.) Steven B. Mertens, Micki M. Caskey, Nancy Flowers, 2016-08-01 The second edition of The Encyclopedia of Middle Grades Education has been revised updated and expanded since its original publication in 2005 The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive overview of the field it contains alphabetically organized entries that address important concepts ideas terms people organizations publications and research studies specifically related to middle grades education This edition contains over 210 entries from nearly 160 expert contributors this is a 25% increase in the number of entries over the first edition The Encyclopedia is aimed at a general audience including undergraduate students in middle level teacher preparation programs graduate students higher education faculty and practitioners and administrators The comprehensive list of entries are comprised of both short entries 500 words and longer entries 2000 words A significant number of entries appearing in the first edition have been revised and updated Citations and references are provided for each entry Building the Best Faculty Mary C. Clement, 1999-12-29 Why not improve your recruiting techniques and staff development strategies Clement describes realistic yet simple hiring strategies ranging from performing the initial interviews to making the final hiring decision She also outlines the importance of maintaining a continuing support structure for the entire faculty and illustrates strategies through case studies An important tool for administrators teachers and other staff members involved in recruiting and retention ERIC Clearinghouse Publications, 1982 Biennial Report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the School Years ... Nevada. Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, 1924 Improving School Accountability - Check-Ups or Choice Timothy J. Gronberg, Dennis W. Jansen, 2006-07-12 Brings together ten papers by researchers who tackle economic issues surrounding school accountability reforms The papers in this volume employ relevant microeconomic analysis and econometric techniques to provide an understanding of the vital economic and public policy issues It is aimed at researchers in business economics and other fields The Publishers Weekly, 1990 Best Practices in Social Studies Assessment Mark Percy, 2017-03-01 The importance of social studies assessment is beyond question The National Council of the Social Studies C3 Framework recognizes the importance of high quality assessments its major objective a deep understanding of the sociocultural world has as its underpinning the idea that students must be able to investigate the world and that teachers much be able to assess their understanding of it However there is a comparative dearth of research that focuses on effective social studies assessment particularly with regard to the impact of teacher practice on the development of best practices Such research is vital to moving social studies away from an emphasis on testing and more towards using assessment as a means of educating our students In Best Practices of Social Studies Assessment we focus on an essential question what is an effective assessment Helping teachers develop practical creative curriculum appropriate strategies is essential especially in an era in which teachers are faced with the dilemma of creating inquiry based assessments in the midst of preexisting regimes of standardized summative assessments In this volume research conducted between university professors and working teachers is described focusing on innovative assessment practices These practices include role playing activities depicting historical events Socratic seminars revolving around public policy issues collaborative student projects on a wide range of social inquiries including the implementation of UN programs and the promotion of critical thinking and writing skills on subjects as diverse as school violence and the impact of imperialism These adaptive assessments highlight the essential role of the teacher in creating assessments that blend higher order critical thinking complex content knowledge and an understanding of their own students The strategies described in this volume focus on the ability of expert educators to acknowledge the structures power and consequences of high stakes testing regimes while simultaneously designing and sustaining classroom assessment methods that embody the social participatory nature of learning and reflect research on effective practice p 289 The volume also describes the shared characteristics of the teachers who created these assessments especially their emphasis on self reflection and student autonomy as well as their professional willingness to take on challenges associated with performance based assessments even in the face of institutional pressures and external demands
