British Envoys to the Kaiserreich, 1871–1897 Markus Mösslang, Helen Whatmore, 2016 Diplomatic reports from the German Empire Berlin Baden and Hesse Darmstadt Saxony Dresden Württemberg Stuttgart and Bavaria Munich The Roman Emperor and his Court c. 30 BC–c. AD 300: Volume 1, Historical Essays Benjamin Kelly, Angela Hug, 2022-10-20 At the centre of the Roman empire stood the emperor and the court surrounding him The systematic investigation of this court in its own right however has been a relatively late development in the field of Roman history and previous studies have focused on narrowly defined aspects or on particular periods of Roman history This book makes a major contribution to understanding the history of the Roman imperial court The first volume presents nineteen original essays covering all the major dimensions of the court from the age of Augustus to the threshold of Late Antiquity The second volume is a collection of the ancient sources that are central to studying that court The collection includes translations of literary sources inscriptions and papyri plans and computer visualizations of archaeological remains and photographs of archaeological sites and artworks depicting the emperor and his court The Emperor Ryszard Kapuscinski, 1983-03-01 This account of the rise and fall of Ethiopian emperor Haile Selassie is an unforgettable fiercely comic and finally compassionate book Salman Rushdie Man Booker Prize winning author After Haile Selassie was deposed in 1974 Ryszard Kapuscinski Poland's top foreign correspondent went to Ethiopia to piece together a firsthand account of how the emperor governed his country and why he finally fell from power At great risk to himself Kapuscinski interviewed members of the imperial circle who had gone into hiding The result is this remarkable book in which Selassie's servants and closest associates share accounts humorous frightening sad grotesque of a man living amidst nearly unimaginable pomp and luxury while his people teetered between hunger and starvation It is a classic portrait of authoritarianism and a fascinating story of a forty four year reign that ended with a coup d'état in 1974

prestige and provide the populace with an effective substitute for politics and war Butchered to make a Roman holiday the victims of this lust for slaughter were slaves and criminals the human surplus of their day coached for an almost certain death One chapter highlights the perverted death wish of many early would be martyrs and decisively establishes that there is no evidence for the death of a single Christian martyr in the Colosseum The book concludes with a brief survey of the building s subsequent history looted and despoiled yet still the embodiment of Rome s spirit and greatness it became a sublime romantic ruin now exposed by slum clearance as a gigantic traffic island Mr Pearson is acutely aware of the violence that was endemic in Roman society and in his shrewd analysis he draws disturbing parallels with the twentieth century situation

Two Studies in Later Roman and Byzantine Administration Arthur Edward Romilly Boak, James Eugene

Dunlap, 1924      The Master of the Offices in the Later Roman and Byzantine Empires Arthur Edward Romilly
Boak, 1919      Cherishing Men from Afar James Louis Hevia, 1995 In the late eighteenth century two expansive Eurasian empires met formally for the first time the Manchu or Qing dynasty of China and the maritime empire of Great Britain The occasion was the mission of Lord Macartney sent by the British crown and sponsored by the East India Company to the court of the Qianlong emperor Cherishing Men from Afar looks at the initial confrontation between these two empires from a historical perspective informed by the insights of contemporary postcolonial criticism and cultural studies The history of this encounter like that of most colonial and imperial encounters has traditionally been told from the Europeans point of view In this book James L Hevia consults Chinese sources many previously untranslated for a broader sense of what Qing court officials understood and considers these documents in light of a sophisticated anthropological understanding of Qing ritual processes and expectations He also reexamines the more familiar British accounts in the context of recent critiques of orientalism and work on the development of the bourgeois subject Hevia's reading of these sources reveals the logics of two discrete imperial formations not so much impaired by the cultural misunderstandings that have historically been attributed to their meeting but animated by differing ideas about constructing relations of sovereignty and power His examination of Chinese and English language scholarly treatments of this event both historical and contemporary sheds new light on the place of the Macartney mission in the dynamics of colonial and imperial encounters
