René Descartes,1850 Discourse on the Method of Rightly Conducting the Reason, and Seeking Truth in the Sciences René Descartes,1850 Seeking More of the Sky Charles N. Stevens,2014-12-02 The stories presented in this book follow the life of a young boy growing up in Inglewood California a suburb of Los Angeles during the 1930s The author lived during the depression when unemployment was affecting many and banks were closed while the clouds of war were gathering in Europe But he was lucky enough to be raised in a loving family the power of that love reflected throughout his stories The day when boys would have cell phones television smart phones and Ipads was in the far distant future Boys made do with what they had old tires bottle caps marbles spools and anything else they could find around the house forcing them to be inventive in their play It was a period when milkmen delivered milk in bottles icemen brought blocks of ice for the ice box and the sound of steam locomotives echoed through the town These true stories take the reader back to a simpler time Older readers may find a little of themselves in the stories while the young may be amazed by how boys lived over seventy five years ago Seeking Peace in the Wake of War Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann,Peter Romijn,Sandrine Kott,Olivier

Wieviorka,2025-10-01 When the Second World War ended Europe was in ruins Yet politically and socially the years between 1943 and 1947 were a time of dramatic reconfigurations which proved to be foundational for the making of today's Europe This volume hones in on the crucial period from the beginning of the end of Nazi rule in Europe to the advent of the Cold War Through a series of interrelated case studies that span the entire continent it demonstrates how the everyday experiences of Europeans during these five years shaped the transition of their societies from war to peace The authors explore these reconfigurations on different scales and levels the local and regional the ethnic and national and the international with the purpose of enhancing our understanding of how wars end Seeking the First Farmers in Western Sjælland, Denmark

T. Douglas Price,2022-06-16 This volume summarizes 30 years of fieldwork in Denmark some of the evidence for the spread of agriculture and the Neolithic into Scandinavia and some opinions about the origins of agriculture It is intended to be both academic and personal and to describe the actual process of research because most projects involve elements of both There is an introduction to each chapter that relates some of the more personal aspects of the research and the bulk of each chapter will be a more technical scientific report on our investigations Each chapter will deal with one of the components of the project survey testing and excavations We excavated eight sites from the Late Mesolithic and Early Neolithic that are discussed in this volume The concluding chapter summarizes our research in the area and proffers opinions on a variety of archaeological subjects with visits to climate change seasonality and sedentism hunter gatherer complexity aDNA inequality and the origins and spread of agriculture Seeking Justice for the Holocaust Graham B. Cox, 2019-09-12 The Nuremberg War Crimes Trial has become a symbol of justice the pivotal moment when the civilized world stood up for Europe's Jews and ultimately for human rights Yet the world represented at the time by the Allied powers almost did not stand up despite the magnitude of the horrors perpetrated by the Nazis Seeking justice for the Holocaust had not been an automatic or an obvious mission for the Allies to pursue In this book Graham Cox recounts the remarkable negotiations and calculations that brought the United States and its allies to this point At the center of this story is the collaboration between Franklin D Roosevelt and Herbert C Pell Roosevelt's appointee as U S representative to the United Nations War Crimes Commission in creating an international legal protocol to prosecute Nazi officials for war crimes and genocide Pell emerges here as an unheralded force in pursuing justice and in framing human rights as an international concern The book also enlarges our perspective on Roosevelt's policies regarding European Jews by revealing the depth of his commitment to postwar justice in the face of staunch opposition even from some within his administration What made the international effort especially contentious was a debate over its focus how to punish for aggressive warfare and crimes against humanity Cox exposes the internal contradictions and contortions behind the U S position and the maneuverings of numerous officials negotiating the legal parameters of the trials Most telling perhaps were the efforts of Robert H Jackson the chief U S prosecutor at Nuremberg to circumscribe the scope of new international law for fear of setting precedents that might boomerang on the United States because of its own racial segregation practices With its broad new examination of the background and context of the Nuremberg trials and its expanded view of the roles played by Roosevelt and his unlikely deputy Pell Seeking Justice for the Holocaust offers a deeper and more nuanced understanding of how the Allies came to hold Nazis accountable for their crimes against humanity Seeking the Favor of God Mark J. Boda, Rodney Alan Werline, 2007 The essays collected in this volume investigate the development of prayers of penitence within Jewish literature of the Hellenistic and Roman periods The book provides a critical overview of the present state of research on these prayers and leading experts in the field use a variety of methodologies to investigate afresh various texts from the Hebrew Bible apocryphal deuterocanonical and pseudepigraphical works and the Qumran corpus in order to provide new insights into this prayer tradition Seeking the Truth of Change in the Church Paul Avis, 2004-01-01 This timely book which arises out of consultations under the auspices of the Centre for the Study of the Christian Church examines the Church of England's decision to ordain women to the priesthood and to make pastoral provision for those opposed It attempts to discover and define the theological principles underlying both the ordination of women and the determination of the Church to maintain communion when these developments provoke fundamental disagreements Seeking God In All Things William Reiser, 2004-05-01 The practice of spiritual direction assumes a theology of the Holy Spirit a theology of revelation and of the Church and a theology of prayer Seeking God in All Things explores each of these themes as the underpinnings of spiritual direction and examines what makes the Christian religious experience distinctive Since not every experience of God bears a Christian imprint William Reiser SJ asks whether and in what way a Christian might be able to assist someone who is not Christian in developing his or her interior life This question looks beyond suggesting the concrete steps a person might take in initiating nurturing and solidifying a way of praying It looks rather toward the fundamental issue of helping others as they discover and deepen their relationship to the mystery of God Chapters are It Is God Who Directs Imagining Divine Action in Human Lives Where Do Holy Desires Come From What's Distinctive About the Christian Religious Experience Further Elements of Christian Distinctiveness The Incarnation as a Starting Point for Spiritual Direction and Should Christian Spirituality Move Beyond Jesus William Reiser SJ PhD is a professor of theology in the religious studies department at Holy Cross College Worcester Massachusetts Over the past twelve years he has also served as an associate staff member at the Center for Religious Development in Cambridge He is the author of Jesus in Solidarity with His People published by Liturgical Press
