Tasan Ch'ng Yagyong 1762-1836 is one of the most creative thinkers Korea has ever produced one of the country's first Christians and a leading scholar in Confucian philosophy Born in a staunchly Neo Confucian society in his early twenties he encountered writings by Catholic missionaries in China and was fascinated However when he later learned that the Catholic Church condemned the Confucian practice of placing a spirit tablet on a family altar to honor past generations he left the small Catholic community he had helped found and ostensibly returned to the Neo Confucian fold Nevertheless the Christian ideas he studied in his youth influenced his thinking for the rest of his life stimulating him to look at Neo Confucianism with a critical eye and suggest new solutions to problems Confucian scholars had been addressing for centuries A Korean Confucian's Advice on How to Be Moral is an annotated translation of Tasan's commentaries on the Confucian classic Zhongyong usually translated as The Doctrine of the Mean in which he applies both Confucianism and Christianity to the question of how to best develop a moral character Written as a dialogue with King Ch'ngjo r 1776-1800 these texts reveal how Tasan interpreted his Confucian tradition particularly its understanding of how human beings could cultivate morality while the king's questions illustrate the mainstream Neo Confucianism Tasan was reacting against Tasan challenged the non theistic standard insisting that living a moral life is not easy and that we need to be motivated to exert the effort necessary to overcome our selfish tendencies He had abandoned his faith by the time he wrote these commentaries but influenced by Catholic works and determined to find a more effective way to live a moral life than non theistic Neo Confucianism provided Tasan constructed a Confucian philosophy of moral improvement centered on belief in God This translation helpfully annotated for context and analysis is an exploration of early Korean engagement with the West and a powerful guide to all those interested in Confucianism Christianity and morality
