The Bad Mother's Handbook Kate Long, 2007-12-18 BAD MOTHER RULE 1 NEVER EVER DO WHAT I DID For seventeen year old Charlotte Cooper it's too late Despite her best efforts to finish school tune out her angry slightly hysterical mother and cope with her loving but dotty grandmother she is unexpectedly now that's an understatement pregnant And don't even mention the jerk who knocked her up Charlotte's mother Karen is trying to convince herself that there are worse things than becoming a grandmother at thirty three For instance there's wanting to kill Charlotte for the mess she's made of her life Between struggling to pay the bills and halfheartedly filling out questionnaires on Internet dating sites Karen uncovers a scandalous family secret involving her own birth and then falls back into bed with her sexy ex husband So much for perfect timing In the meantime Karen's mother Nan is having a wee bit of trouble with names sometimes her own But that doesn't keep her from retaining a few things she'd rather forget Of course Nan knows that everything will work out fine for Charlotte and the baby these things usually do Now if only she could put the pieces of her own fragmented memory together she might have an interesting tale or two to share In this wickedly funny disarmingly moving novel three generations of mothers learn that it's the simplest mistakes that can change your life forever With wit and wisdom Kate Long proves that there are as many kinds of mothers as there are daughters but the love that binds them all is what truly matters      Bad Mother's Handbook Kate Long, 2004-03-01      Bad Mothers United Kate Long, 2013-02-28

Childfree and Happy Courtney Adams Wooten, 2023-06-15 Childfree and Happy examines how millennia of reproductive beliefs or doxa have positioned women who choose not to have children as deviant or outside the norm Considering affect and emotion alongside the lived experiences of women who have chosen not to have children Courtney Adams Wooten offers a new theoretical lens to feminist rhetorical scholars examinations of reproductive rhetorics and how they circulate through women's lives by paying attention not just to spoken or written beliefs but also to affectual circulations of reproductive doxa Through interviews with thirty four childfree women and analysis of childfree rhetorics circulating in historical and contemporary texts and events this book demonstrates how childfree women individually and collectively try to speak back to common beliefs about their reproductive experiences even as they struggle to make their identities legible in a sociocultural context that centers motherhood Childfree and Happy theorizes how affect and rhetoric work together to circulate reproductive doxa by using Sara Ahmed's theories of gendered happiness scripts to analyze what reproductive doxa is embedded in those scripts and how they influence rhetoric by about and around childfree women. Delving into how childfree women position their decision not to have children and the different types of interactions they have with others about this choice including family members, friends, colleagues, and medical professionals. Childfree and Happy also explores how communities that make space for alternative happiness scripts form between childfree women and those who support them.
