The American College Novel John E. Kramer, 1981 Homosexual Characters in YA Novels Allan A. Cuseo, 1992-03

Analyzes homosexual characters from YA novels published between 1969 and 1982 aiming to assess their literary quality and determine if their image of homosexual characters is negative Contemporary American Women Writers Catherine Rainwater, William J. Scheick, 2021-05-11 Ann Beattie Annie Dillard Maxine Hong Kingston Toni Morrison Cynthia Ozick Grace Paley Marge Piercy Anne Redmon Anne Tyler and Alice Walker all seem to be especially concerned with narrative management The ten essays in this book raise new and intriguing questions about the ways these leading women writers appropriate and transform generic norms and ultimately revise literary tradition to make it more inclusive of female experience vision and expression The contributors to this volume discover diverse narrative strategies Beattie Dillard Paley and Redmon in divergent ways rely heavily upon narrative gaps surfaces and silences often suggesting depths which are lamentably absent from modern experience or which mysteriously elude language For Kingston and Walker verbal assertiveness is the focus of narratives depicting the gradual empowerment of female protagonists who learn to speak themselves into existence Ozick and Tyler disrupt conventional reader expectations of the anti novel and the family novel respectively Finally Morrison s and Piercy s works reveal how traditional narrative forms such as the Bildungsroman and the soap opera are adaptable to feminist purposes In examining the writings of these ten important women authors this book illuminates a significant moment in literary history when women s voices are profoundly reshaping American literary tradition The portrayal of the child in children's literature Denise Escarpit, 2011-05-02 The Portrayal of the Child in Children s Literature Proceedings of the 6th Conference of the Irscl Bordeaux 1983 American Childhood Anne Scott MacLeod, 1995-10-01 In this collection of fourteen essays Anne Scott MacLeod locates and describes shifts in the American concept of childhood as those changes are suggested in nearly two centuries of children s stories Most of the essays concern domestic novels for children or adolescents stories set more or less in the time of their publication Some essays also draw creatively on childhood memoirs travel writings that contain foreigners observations of American children and other studies of children s literature The topics on which MacLeod writes range from the current politicized marketplace for children s books to the reestablishment and reconfiguration of the family in recent children s fiction to the ways that literature challenges or enforces the idealization of children MacLeod sometimes considers a single author s canon as when she discusses the feminism of the Nancy Drew mystery series or the Orwellian vision of Robert Cormier At other times she looks at a variety of works within a particular period for example Jacksonian America the post World War II decade or the 1970s MacLeod also examines books that were once immensely popular but currently have no appreciable readership the Horatio Alger stories for example and finds fresh intriguing ways to view the work of such well known writers as Louisa May Alcott

Beverly Cleary and Paul Zindel The Literature Lover's Book of Lists Judie L. H. Strouf, 1999-09-15 Wonderful for browsing and invaluable for finding specific information Literature Lovers Book of Lists is a compendium of useful and sometimes whimsical information for anyone who loves books and loves to read at any age or reading level It is organized into nine sections and provides nearly 200 lists relating to genres authors characters and settings awards literary terms with their definitions and much more There are even lists of books of prose and poetry available on audiocassettes If it has to do with literature this book has the answers What book has had the longest run on The New York Times best seller list Who is the only four time winner of the Pulitzer Prize for drama What is the complete list of Shakespeare's plays and poems Who are some of the most notable African American authors What are the three main variations of the sonnet What famous writers belonged to The Bloomsbury Group Literature Lovers Book of Lists is both exciting and informative at the same time
