

THE BAND

THE AUTHORISED BIOGRAPHY

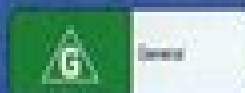

The Band emerged from the rock scene of the late 60s and made immediate impact with their highly influential albums Mud, From The Hip, Pink and The Band. These albums set them apart from the over-produced psychedelic music of the period. They explored the roots of the genre, as well as other traditions, with such iconic songs as The Weight, The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down, Up On Cripple Creek and Life Is A Carnival.

The Band - The Authorised Biography tells the group's painful history. There are over 25 songs, rare interviews and concert performances as well as behind-the-scenes film and candid interviews which chronicle the band's real musical influence through their triumphs and tragedies. Also included are segments of The Last Waltz which documents The Band's break-up as well as footage of their return at Bob Dylan's 30th Anniversary Concert.

As Fat Matt wrote in Rolling Stone's History Of Rock & Roll: "There is no doubt that the achievements of this unique group have earned them the right to be known simply as The Band."
