Northern Paiutes of the Malheur David H. Wilson, Jr.,2022-05 2023 Oregon Book Award Finalist In 1870 a twenty six year old Paiute Sarah Winnemucca wrote to an army officer requesting that Paiutes be given a chance to settle and farm their ancestral land in Oregon Country The eloquence of her letter was such that it made its way into Harper s Weekly Ten years later as her people languished in confinement as a result of the Bannock War she convinced Secretary of the Interior Carl Schurz to grant the requests in her letter and to free the Paiutes as well Schurz s decision unleashed a furious campaign of disinformation by the Bureau of Indian Affairs cattlemen and settlers overturning Schurz s decision sweeping truth aside and falsely branding Paiute chief Egan as instigator of the war To this day histories of the Paiutes appear to be unanimous in their mistaken claim that Egan led his Paiutes into the Bannock War Indian agents betrayal of the people they were paid to protect saddled Paiutes with responsibility for a war that most opposed and that led to U S misappropriation of their land their only source of life s necessities With neither land nor reservation Paiutes were driven more deeply into poverty and disease than any other Natives of that era In Northern Paiutes of the Malheur David H Wilson Jr pulls back the curtain to reveal what government officials hid exposing the full jarring injustice and after 140 years recounting the Paiutes true and proud history for the first time The History of Bannock County, Idaho (Classic Reprint) Arthur C.
