The Barabaig East African Cattle Herders:

The Barabaig George J. Klima, 1985 Information about the Barabaig of Tanganyika East Africa who are cattle herders The Barabaig, East African Cattle-herders ,1970 The Collapse of a Pastoral Economy Samwel Shanga Mhajida, 2019 This research unravels the economic collapse of the Datoga pastoralists of central and northern Tanzania from the 1830s to the beginning of the 21st century The research builds from the broader literature on continental African pastoralism during the past two centuries Overall the literature suggests that African pastoralism is collapsing due to changing political and environmental factors My dissertation aims to provide a case study adding to the general trends of African pastoralism while emphasizing the topic of competition as not only physical but as something that is ethnically negotiated through historical and collective memories There are two main questions that have guided this project 1 How is ethnic space defined by the Datoga and their neighbours across different historical times And 2 what are the origins of the conflicts and violence and how have they been narrated by the state throughout history Examining archival sources and oral interviews it is clear that the Datoga have struggled through a competitive history of claims on territory against other neighbouring communities The competitive encounters began with the Maasai entering the Serengeti in the 19th century and intensified with the introduction of colonialism in Mbulu and Singida in the late 19th and 20th centuries The fight for control of land and resources resulted in violent clashes with other groups Often the Datoga were painted as murderers and impediments to development Policies like the amalgamation measures of the British colonial administration in Mbulu or Ujamaa in post colonial Tanzania aimed at confronting the Datoga problem but were inadequate in neither addressing the Datoga issues of identity nor providing a solution to their quest for land ownership and control Cultural Anthropology Stephen A. Grunlan, Marvin K. Mayers, 2016-11-22 This volume on cultural anthropology presents a Christian perspective for Bible school students of conservative evangelical backgrounds The hope is that a sympathetic approach to the problems of cultural diversity throughout the world will help young people overcome typical North American cultural biases and bring understanding and appreciation for the diversities of behavior and thought that exist in a culturally heterogeneous world Grunlan and Mayers take the position of functional creationism and though they discuss some of the problems implied in traditional interpretations of the age of the world and especially of the creation of the human race they do not attempt to deal with either physical anthropology or the origins of man They do however attempt to deal meaningfully with the problems posed by biblical absolutism and cultural relativism and their practice Concluding chapters with a series of thought provoking questions should prove to be of real help to both the professional and nonprofessional teacher of anthropology

The Adapted Mind Jerome H. Barkow,Leda Cosmides,John Tooby,1992 Although researchers have long been aware that the species typical architecture of the human mind is the product of our evolutionary history it has only been in the last three decades that advances in such fields as evolutionary biology cognitive psychology and paleoanthropology have made the fact of our evolution illuminating Converging findings from a variety of disciplines are leading to the emergence of a fundamentally new view of the human mind and with it a new framework for the behavioral and social sciences First with the advent of the cognitive revolution human nature can finally be defined precisely as the set of universal species typical information processing programs that operate beneath the surface of expressed cultural variability Second this collection of cognitive programs evolved in the Pleistocene to solve the adaptive problems regularly faced by our hunter gatherer ancestors problems such as mate selection language acquisition co operation and sexual infidelity Consequently the traditional view of the mind as a general purpose computer tabula rasa or passive recipient of culture is being replaced by the view that the mind resembles an intricate network of functionally specialized computers each of which imposes contentful structure on human mental organization and culture The Adapted Mind explores this new approach evolutionary psychology and its implications for a new view of culture Mobility and Territoriality Michael Casimir, Aparnu Rao, 2021-01-08 Territorial behaviour among various herders and hunter gatherers has been discussed in earlier studies but this is the first time that a comparison of these three types of mobile populations has been attempted The original papers presented in this volume discuss the conditions and problems of securing access to resources among pastoralists peripatetics and hunting gathering and fishing communities in Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East A comprehensive introductory chapter places these empirical studies in a broader theoretical context of the behaviourial sciences Social Anthropology Edward Hedican, 2012-01-15 This is the first introductory text that focuses on social anthropological research using Canadian examples and perspectives In this groundbreaking new book Edward Hedican provides undergraduate students with a solid background on the theoretical and applied aspects of anthropology while exploring the rich history of the discipline in a Canadian context In ten concise chapters readers are introduced to the basic conceptual building blocks of introductory anthropology in a refreshingly succinct and engaging way With a strong focus on Canadian theory this book includes discussion of evolutionism feminist anthropology marriage and the family and political economy Symbols and Meaning Mari Womack, 2005-04-07 Womack offers a concise and easy to read overview of the power and meaning of symbols in all human societies She describes how symbols images words or behaviors with multi layered meanings are mechanism of communication She demonstrates how we experience the power of symbols in all aspects of human life birth death love sexual desire and the need for food and shelter Womack investigates the use of symbols in the language of religion healing politics social organization and control popular culture psychology philosophy semiotics magic and expressive culture including art aesthetics literature theater sports and music The author's eclectic anthropological approach incorporates the social conceptual and psychological dynamics of symbols Her new book is an essential introductory textbook for courses that define fundamental concepts in religion cultural anthropology communication and art Cruel Creeds, Virtuous Violence Jack David Eller, 2011-03 This illuminating in depth studypresents a wealth of case material demonstrating the many manifestations of religious violence not just war and terrorism which are the focus of so many discussions of religiously motivated violence but also more prevalent forms. The author an anthropologist devotes separate chapters to sacrifice both animal and human self mortification including self injury asceticism and martyrdom religious persecution from anti Semitic pogroms to witchhunts ethno religious conflict including such hotspots as Sri Lanka Northern Ireland and the former Yugoslavia religious wars from the ancient Hebrews wars and the Christian Crusades to Islamic jihad and Hindu righteous wars and religious homicide and abuse spousal abuse genital mutilation and dowry death among other manifestations In the final chapter Religion and Nonviolence the author examines nonviolent and low conflict societies and considers various methods of managing conflict This book goes a long way toward helping us understand the nature of violence generally its complicated connections with religion and how society in the future might avoid being blindsided by the worst aspects of human nature Political Anthropology Donald V Kurtz, 2018-02-13 The field of political anthropology is complicated by a breadth and depth of interests that include every kind of ethnographically and historically represented political community and nearly every kind of recorded political practice behavior and organization To make sense of this array of information political anthropologists examine political topics and issues in the context of research paradigms that include structural functionalism pro cessualism political economy political evolution and arguably post modernism In Political Anthropology Donald V Kurtz examines how anthropologists think about politics political organizations and problems fundamental to political anthropology He explores the ideas with which they address universal political concerns the paradigms that direct political research by anthropologists and political topics of special interest Strategies for Survival Michael A. Jochim, 2013-09-11 Strategies for Survival Cultural Behavior in an Ecological Context focuses on the ecological relationships between cultural behavior and its environmental context The proliferation of ecological studies within anthropology suggests the increasing emphasis given to the systemic context of behavior The aim of this book is to develop a framework for examining these relationships and for comparing diverse ecological studies within a coherent conceptual structure It seeks to include any aspect of behavior to investigate the links between ideological and material factors to broaden the view of relevant factors and possible assumptions and to relate the processes of decision making to their specific context in a manner allowing cross cultural comparisons In the process certain popular forms of ecological explanation will be examined In addition specific behavioral examples will be investigated in an attempt to explain patterns of similarities and differences This book is addressed to all individuals interested in human environmental interactions including professional anthropologists and general students of human behavior Imagining Serengeti Jan Bender Shetler, 2007-06-15 Many students come to African history with a host of stereotypes that are not always easy to dislodge One of the most common is that of Africa as safari grounds as the land of expansive unpopulated game reserves untouched by civilization and preserved in their original pristine state by the tireless efforts of contemporary conservationists With prose that is elegant in its simplicity and analysis that is forceful and compelling Jan Bender Shetler brings the landscape memory of the Serengeti to life She demonstrates how the social identities of western Serengeti peoples are embedded in specific spaces and in their collective memories of those spaces Using a new methodology to analyze precolonial oral traditions Shetler identifies core spatial images and reevaluates them in their historical context through the use of archaeological linguistic ethnographic ecological and archival evidence Imagining Serengeti is a lively environmental history that will ensure that we never look at images of the African landscape in guite the same way The Archaeological and Linguistic Reconstruction of African History Christopher Ehret, Merrick Posnansky, 2022-05-13 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982 Copyright Entries. Rollwagen, 1988 First Published in 1988 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Christian Remnant - African Folk Church Stefan Höschele, 2007-11-30 The growth of Christianity in Africa during the twentieth century is one of the most fascinating shifts in the history of religions This book presents a history of the Tanzanian Seventh day Adventist Church which is representative of this shift in many respects slow beginnings struggles over cultural issues the emergence of a unique church life combining denominational heritage and African elements frictions with governments and the development of popular theology Yet Tanzanian Adventism also exemplifies an important phenomenon which has been given little attention so far the transformation of minority denominations to dominant religions This study breaks new ground in analyzing how the Adventist remnant developed into an African folk church while attempting to remain true to its original ethos Africa Phyllis M. Martin, Patrick O'Meara, 1995 Since the publication of the first edition of this book in 1977 Africa has established itself as the most popular introductory text for African studies courses in North America This third edition has been completely revised and brought up to date since the 1986 edition reflecting changes in African society and politics and in the scholarship available on this vast and complex continent Contents I Introduction 1 Africa Problems and Perspectives Phyllis M Martin and Patrick O Meara 2 The Contemporary Map of Africa Michael L McNulty II The African Past 3 Prehistoric Africa Kathy D Schick 4 Aspects of Early African History John Lamphear and Toyin Falola 5 Islam and African Societies John H Hanson 6 Africa and Europe before 1900 Curtis A Keim 7 The Colonial Era Sheldon Gellar 8 Decolonization Independence and the Failure of Politics Edmond J Keller III Society and Culture 9 Social Organization in Africa John C McCall 10 Economic Life in African Villages and Towns Mahir Saul 11 African Systems of Thought Ivan Karp 12 African Art Patrick McNaughton and Diane Pelrine 13 African Music Performed Ruth M Stone 14 Popular Culture in Urban Africa Dele Jegede 15 African Literature Eileen Julien 16 Social Change in Contemporary Africa Claire Robertson 17 Law and Society in Contemporary Africa Takyiwaa Manuh IV Economics and Politics 18 African Politics since Independence N Brian Winchester 19 Economic Change in Contemporary Africa Sara Berry 20 The African Development Crisis Richard Stryker and Stephen N Ndegwa 21 South Africa C R D Halisi and Patrick O Meara Africana Resources for Undergraduates A Bibliographic Essay Nancy J Schmidt The Pastoral Continuum Paul Spencer, 1998-01-29 Paul Spencer presents the definitive study of the ways of life of the cattle herding peoples of East Africa drawing on many years of research This region has offered a prime example of a traditional culture resisting the inevitability of change it provides the best known and most extensive instance both of cattle pastoralist society and of social organization based primarily on age Pastoral peoples were once dominant in the East African interior but development of the market economy has progressively polarized the region and forced them into the most marginal drought ridden areas in this ecological trap they have become a peripheral underclass The Pastoral Continuum examines the richness and resilience of their cultures and illuminates the role of indigenous practices and institutions in adaptation and survival The pastoralists systems of age organization in particular are notable for their resilience it is demonstrated that these are bound up with problems of growth and succession in family enterprises and that marriage is a critical link in the web of alliance that governs the problematic relations between old and young Spencer's exploration of the development of the pastoralist phenomenon yields a unique view of its place in the modern world and its prospects for the future This landmark work by a leading authority will be of lasting value to any reader interested in traditional social systems of this kind
