Bar Mitzvah-Palooza! Dan Mendelsohn Aviv, 2017-02-18 The bar mitzvah is a wild card It has no precedent in Scripture and merits barely any mention in rabbinic literature Emerging from a patchwork of rabbinic sources improvised practices and cultural appropriations it has the biggest cultural footprint of all Jewish life cycle events From a small private event in medieval Europe it morphed into the Godzilla of rites in North America The bar mitzvah is as American as prom and the Fourth of July Even non Jews are having bar mitzvahs Bar Mitzvah Palooza argues that the bar mitzvah fails everyone involved in the supposed passage of a young boy or girl into adulthood After exploring the rite's history classical religious texts the present moment adolescent development and pop culture Bar Mitzvah Palooza presents four alternatives to the bar mitzvah For the conventional Jew two of the options fall well within the realm of the traditional while the other two demand a wholly different approach to the rite Whether you have had a bar mitzvah of your own or have ever attended one Bar Mitzvah Palooza will spark a conversation about this rite of passage It is a conversation we all desperately need to have
